Social Work Practice In Nontraditional Urban Settings

Stephen A. Webb

Social Work Practice In Nontraditional Urban Settings:

Social Work Practice in Nontraditional Urban Settings Melvin Delgado, 1999 The author suggests that many communities can be best served through their own already established recreational social and cultural centres and shows how professional social workers can use these non traditional settings bars beauty shops and bathhouses to reach out to the communities they are trying to help

Community Social Work Practice in an Urban Context Melvin Delgado, 1999-09-16 Community social work practice based on a capacity enhancement model offers tremendous potential for unifying communities consisting of groups from very different cultural backgrounds and in the process of doing so make physical changes in the community

Community Social Work Practice in An Urban Context aims to teach graduate students with an emphasis on community and urban social work how to create positive community environments in marginalized urban based communities The use of murals gardens playgrounds and sculptures for example provide social workers with an opportunity to identify engage and plan services with communities These projects in turn are based upon a community s strengths and represent an effort at developing a community s capacity to help itself with assistance from professionals

Alcohol Use/Abuse Among Latinos Melvin Delgado, 2014-06-03 In Alcohol Use Abuse Among Latinos Issues and Examples of Culturally Competent Services you will learn how to design and improve services for Latinos with substance abuse problems by understanding that the cultures and personal backgrounds of your clients are crucial to the counseling process This text will also show you how these service skills apply to the individual family or an entire community Studies show that according to patients culturally sensitive and responsive practitioners are generally more credible trusted and effective

Alcohol Use Abuse Among Latinos takes into account several different aspects that will help you develop these traits and provide successful services for Latinos dealing with alcohol or other drug problems You ll gain valuable insight into the five elements that are vital to a successful ATOD

Alcohol tobacco and Other Drug service multiculturalism resilience strengths competence community capacity development and community participation plus a detailed explanation of why they are needed step by step instructions for using three methods supervision inservice training and consultation as means of providing ongoing learning of cross cultural competencies to practitioners why key factors such as economic background gender and sexual orientation need to be taken into consideration for ATOD services to be effective demographic patterns and case studies of Latino users and abusers of alcohol and other drugs that illustrate the growing number of Latinos in need of ATOD services why the practitioner needs to be aware of how family importance values attached to cooperation versus competition sociability respect and action oriented problem solving play a role in effective services for Latinos the need for practitioners to understand how ethnic identity biculturalism Spanish language fluency gender specific role expectations skin color and overall sense of self can affect the success of services for Latino teenagers how excessive marketing of alcohol to Latino communities lack of representation and a lack of community involvement are key barriers to successful ATOD services for Latinos

also discusses Latino men's and women's individual needs concerning substance abuse. One of the topics addressed is the loss of self-esteem, which has been found to be a contributing factor to alcohol use and abuse for Latinas. It offers ways you can promote self-esteem in your Latina clients by focusing on their cultural heritage and pride. In addition, this text takes a unique look at Latina lesbians and how training through educational and agency internship programs can promote awareness to your clients' special needs concerning substance abuse. Alcohol Use Abuse Among Latinos will help you provide all of your Latino clients with efficient and culture-friendly services for resisting or overcoming the abuse of alcohol, tobacco, or other drugs.

Contesting Community James DeFilippis, Robert Fisher, Eric Shragge, 2010. What do community organizations and organizers do and what should they do? Contesting Community addresses one of the vital issues of our day: the role and meaning of community in people's lives and in the larger political economy. It paints a more critical picture of community work, which according to the authors in both theory and practice has amounted to less than the sum of its parts. Their comparative study of efforts in the United States, the United Kingdom, and Canada describes and analyzes the limits and potential of this work.

Sanctuary Cities, Communities, and Organizations Melvin Delgado, 2018-08-29. The term sanctuary city gained a new level of national recognition during the 2016 United States presidential election, and immigration policies and debates have remained a top issue since the election of Donald Trump. The battle over immigration and deportation will be waged on many fronts in the coming years, but sanctuary cities—municipalities that resist the national government's efforts to enforce immigration laws—are likely to be on the front lines for the immediate future. Social workers and others in the helping professions have vital roles to play. In this book, Melvin Delgado offers a compelling case for the centrality of sanctuary cities to the very mission and professional identity of social workers and others in the human services and mental health professions. The text also presents a historical perspective on the rise of the sanctuary movements of the 1970s and 2000s, thereby giving context to the current environment and immigration debate. Sanctuary Cities, Communities, and Organizations serves as a helpful resource for human service practitioners, academics, and the general public alike.

Canadian Perspectives on Community Development Sarah Todd, Sébastien Savard, 2020-03-03. Founded in a perspective that speaks to the diversity of contexts and processes used across Canada, this work is nevertheless firmly grounded in theory, offering an in-depth analysis geared toward advanced study in community practice. This depth is further strengthened by the diversity of topics represented in this collective work: community work in various regions of the country; exploring issues of poverty and environmental activism; community work with immigrants and refugees; and with trans communities; feminist community organizing; as well as organizing with persons with disabilities and with members of linguistic communities; and finally, arts-based community work with the elderly. This book is published in English. Si l'on réfléchit à une diversité de contextes et de processus mis en œuvre partout au Canada, cet ouvrage est toutefois fermement ancré dans la théorie convenant aux études avancées en pratique communautaire. La diversité des sujets que propose cet ouvrage collectif est d'un intérêt particulier qu'il s'agisse du travail communautaire dans diverses régions du pays explorant les questions de la pauvreté et de l'activisme environnemental le travail communautaire auprès des immigrants et des réfugiés et avec les communautés de personnes trans l'organisation de la communauté féministe ainsi que celle des personnes handicapées ou celle des membres de communautés linguistiques et enfin le travail communautaire axé sur les arts auprès des personnes âgées Ce livre est publié en anglais

Unanticipated Gains Mario Luis Small, 2009 While social capital theorists have studied the consequences of having effective social networks few have examined why some people have better networks than others This book argues that the answer lies less in people's deliberate networking than in the institutional conditions of the churches colleges firms gyms and other organizations in which they routinely participate Culturally Diverse Populations:

Reflections from Pioneers in Education and Research Diane De Anda, 2013-10-18 The purpose of this book is to open a discourse on current and pertinent issues related to multicultural populations by the most noted experts and researchers in the field This book offers an overview of the literature on multicultural issues and assesses its approach to the following issues the stereotypic assumptions with regard to filial piety and Asian American populations substance abuse within the Latino community multicultural youth and elders refugee and immigrant populations as well as vulnerable populations such as victims of political and sexual exploitation The aim is to provide a forum for educators in the field to present views regarding important issues for which there is no other venue They are important for educators practitioners and students in the field to consider and discuss These will serve as springboards for such discussion Although references will be cited when appropriate these will be position papers rather than research papers or reviews of the literature This book was based on a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Cultural Diversity in Social Work Youth-Led Community Organizing Melvin Delgado, Lee Staples, 2008 Youth led organizing is increasingly receiving attention from scholars activists and the media Delgado and Staples have produced the first comprehensive study of this dynamic field Their well organized book takes an important step toward bridging the gap between academic knowledge and community practice in this growing area

Social Work with Latinos Melvin Delgado, 2017 This book is specifically focused on preparing social workers for practice and research focused on Latinos in the United States It provides readers with a multi faceted and updated perspective on this community including dispersal patterns across the United States and tapping cultural assets for development of social interventions

Juvenile Justice and Expressive Arts Carol Cross, 2018-02-06 Juvenile Justice and Expressive Arts Creative Disruptions through Art Programs for and with Teens in a Correctional Institution explores art programming as a sustainable educational initiative to support incarcerated teens successful reintegration to society Responding to a lack of scholarly research on juvenile offenders and the role of art as education in correctional facilities Carol Cross presents a qualitative study that examines critical pedagogy adolescent development and research into the governance and policies surrounding youth at a Canadian correctional facility Through observational and interview data action research and visual analysis the reader gains an insider's perspective into the lives of teens affected by crime and violence and the potential of art education to aid in increasing their self-esteem, social and emotional wellbeing and personal development. Visual art and written stories created by male and female juvenile offenders are woven throughout the chapters to illustrate the use of creative expression as education and therapy. Suitable for scholars and researchers in juvenile justice and corrections as well as policymakers and practitioners in the field, this book will provoke dialogue on best practices for the rehabilitation and reintegration of institutionalized children and youth.

Asset Assessments and Community Social Work Practice Melvin Delgado, Denise Humm-Delgado, 2013-01-18 Needs assessments identify the needs for services, answering questions about who needs these services and in what priority. Asset assessments focus on existing resources, combining both needs and asset assessments helps find the gaps in these services and is useful to organizations and communities. Assets assessments differ dramatically from their needs assessments counterparts along a variety of key dimensions. Asset assessments generally attempt to:

1. focus on capacities rather than problems
2. actively seek community participation and develop collaborative partnerships
3. seek to tap and enhance community competencies
4. seek to equalize power between residents and professionals
5. be proactive rather than reactive to problems
6. stress community contributions and ownership of the process and are thus empowerment driven.

Older Adult-Led Health Promotion in Urban Communities Melvin Delgado, 2008-12-16 The subject of how best to address the current and future health needs of older adult residents in this country's urban marginalized communities is one that has also received considerable attention in academic policy and practice arenas in the past decade. A variety of models have been put forth to achieve the goal of health in these communities, but one of the most promising recommendations has been the use of health promotion as a vehicle for reaching and empowering communities of color in both rural and urban America. Older adult-led interventions, as addressed in various sections of this book, is one of the latest and most promising approaches towards health promotion that is grass roots and community participatory based. Older adult-led health promotion represents an emerging field with tremendous implications for addressing the health needs of marginalized urban older adults in the United States and international
