Bridges and Barriers Eddie Williams, 2014-06-03 Recent decades have seen sub Saharan Africa decline in both economic and human terms The rich North has responded with a barrage of well publicized initiatives from pop concerts to international commitments on debt relief aid trade and good governance Among the complex of factors necessary to sustain economic and human development education receives little media coverage although it is crucial However education must be effective This book argues that in Anglophone Africa education is not effective because of the use of English rather than children s first languages both as the medium of instruction and also as the language in which children are first taught to read Research is presented from Malawi and Zambia countries with contrasting language policies using evidence from tests in English and African languages small group discussions and classroom observation The findings show that English medium policies in Africa do not give students any advantage in English over first language policies while the use of English discriminates against girls and rural children The book concludes that much education in Africa is a barrier rather than a bridge to learning because of the prevailing language ideology which has resulted in massive over estimation of the value of English While appropriate language policies alone will not solve education and development difficulties in Africa they do have a positive contribution to make The evidence presented here suggests they are failing to make that contribution     Improving Global Health Barry B. Hughes,Randall Kuhn,Cecilia Mosca Peterson,Dale S. Rothman,Jose Roberto Solorzano,2015-11-17 Improving Global Health is the third in a series of volumes Patterns of Potential Human Progress that uses the International Futures IFs simulation model to explore prospects for human development how development appears to be unfolding globally and locally how we would like it to evolve and how better to assure that we move it in desired directions Earlier volumes addressed the reduction of global poverty and the advance of global education Volume 3 sets out to tell a story of possible futures for the health of peoples across the world Questions the volume addresses include What health outcomes might we expect given current patterns of human development What opportunities exist for intervention and the achievement of alternate health futures How might improved health futures affect broader economic social and political prospects of countries regions and the world     Annual World Bank Conference on Development Economics 1995 Michael Bruno,Boris Pleskovic,1996 Annotation The 1995 conference continued the tradition of holding a roundtable discussion related to the subject of the forthcoming annual World Development Report in this case economies in transition The conference addressed four themes redistribution with growth demographic change and development aid and development and fiscal decentralization Among the articles included in the 1995 proceedings are Argentina s Miracle From Hyperinflation to Sustained Growth Domingo F Cavallo and Guillermo Mondino Inequality Poverty and Growth Where Do We Stand Albert Fishlow Government Provision and Regulation of Economic Support in Old Age Peter Diamond Is Growth in Developing Countries Beneficial to Industrial Countries Richard N Cooper Fiscal Federalism and Decentralization A Review of Some Efficiency and Macroeconomic Aspects Vito Tanzi     Exporting High-value Food Commodities Steven Jaffee,Peter Gordon,1993-01-01 The economic integration of the European Community EC and its implications for Sub Saharan Africa are examined in this anthology     Korean Industrial Policy Danny M. Leipziger,Peter A. Petri,1993 The World Bank is changing the way it does business in the energy sector This Policy Paper is one of two that outlines the Bank s new policies for the sector The review was prompted by concern about the effects of power generation on the environment and on populations that may be resettled to make way for projects Another stimulus was the macroeconomic reality of fewer investment resources in many countries And many developing countries are becoming more receptive to reforming the way energy is produced and consumed This paper credits the public monopoly approach of the last 30 years with facilitating expansion of power supplies capturing technical economies of scale and making effective use of scarce managerial and technical skills Nonetheless it recommends several new policies to improve the performance of the electric power sector in developing countries These reforms will guide future Bank activities in the sector Bank loans for electric power will go first to countries clearly committed to improving the performance of their power sectors The Bank will also discourage subsidies on energy prices and will encourage private investment in utilities And it will provide financing to help the least developed countries import power where local generation is not practical The efficiency of production and use of electric power in developing countries is examined in a companion paper Energy Efficiency and Conservation in the Developing World The World Bank's Role The World Bank's Role in the Electric Power Sector is also available in Spanish La función del Banco Mundial en el sector de la electricidad Políticas para efectuar una reforma institucional regulatoria y financiera eficaz ISBN 0 8213 2451 9 Stock No 12451 7 95 Price code 007 Spanis      Borrower Ownership of Adjustment Programs and the Political Economy of Reform John H. Johnson, Sulaiman S. Wasty, 1993-01-01 China has done much to reform its price system achieve macroeconomic stability and restore growth Nevertheless price distortions remain in three key areas This study suggests further price reforms for the energy grain and transport sectors It explains why energy price adjustments should have only a modest effect on consumer prices but a highly positive effect on the economy It discusses why China may have to reduce consumer subsidies to achieve the necessary reforms for grain prices The study describes what the government must do to strengthen commodity markets generate competition and make allowances for seasonal price variations China's transport sector has been a critical development bottleneck The paper reviews tariff adjustments and other reforms that would modernize the transport system and help it meet growing demand These reforms also would encourage energy conservation and help integrate the national economy
