Towards a New Development Paradigm in Twenty-first Century China Éric Florence, Pierre Defraigne, 2013. This book argues that the current state of China requires an important paradigm shift in the way the party state manages the country's development and goes on to assess the fitness of the party state for implementing such a paradigm shift and the likelihood of the party state bringing this about. It brings together an examination of the very latest situation in a range of key areas where current developments have the potential to undermine substantially the status quo: areas such as the recent economic crisis and the resulting economic slowdown, increasing labour unrest, mounting calls for social justice, worsening urban-rural disparity, the urgent need to implement social welfare programmes, the rise of civil society and the impact of new media. Overall, the book provides a thorough appraisal of the difficulties which China currently faces.

Whereas traditional political parties have lost support throughout Latin America and electoral systems have devolved into illiberal democracies, Dominican democracy remains flawed but vibrant with a popular embrace of party politics. Across eight chapters, a collection of subject experts argue that the Dominican case offers valuable lessons to understand that even though traditional political parties are endangered throughout the region, they are not going anywhere. The book analyzes topics including electoral politics, the quality of Dominican democracy, political parties, corruption, relations with Haiti and the United States, migration, the Dominican diaspora, gender and politics, social movements.

and civil participation and citizenship to reveal how the Dominican case proves that traditional political parties can adapt in order to survive turning themselves into major sources of patronage appealing to personalistic politics and tinkering with the constitution in order to stay relevant Dominican Politics in the Twenty First Century will be a vital resource for understanding contemporary Dominican politics It will appeal to political scientists Latin Americanists and students of democracy comparative politics and electoral politics in general     The Global 2000 Report to the President--entering the Twenty-first Century: Documentation on the government's global sectoral models: the government's "global model" Global 2000 Study (U.S.),1980
