Social Work Ageing And Society:

Social Work, Ageing and Society C Paul Brearley, 2023-03-31 First published in 1975 Social Work Ageing and Society provides a basic understanding of the needs of older people in society It deals with the role of the old person in society and attitudes to old age as well as the physical emotional and social needs of the ageing individual It shows that material resources and social work skills can make a great deal of difference to the quality of life and health of elderly citizens and is concerned therefore not only with the process of ageing but also with the validity of techniques of social intervention against a background of limited practical resources for the elderly This book will be of interest to social work students and to members of other caring professions

Social Work, Ageing and Society C. Paul Brearley, 2022 First published in 1975 Social Work Ageing and Society provides a basic understanding of the needs of older people in society It deals with the role of the old person in society and attitudes to old age as well as the physical emotional and social needs of the ageing individual It shows that material resources and social work skills can make a great deal of difference to the quality of life and health of elderly citizens and is concerned therefore not only with the process of ageing but also with the validity of techniques of social intervention against a background of limited practical resources for the elderly This book will be of interest to social work students and to members of other caring professions

Social Work With Older People: Approaches To Person-Centred Practice Hall, Barbara, Scragg, Terry, 2012-03-01 This text fills a gap for an accessible textbook which takes a person centred approach to working with older people by providing readers with a basic knowledge of policy legislation theory and research

Ageing and the Care of Older People in Europe Richard Hugman, 1994-08-23 As the population of all European countries ages rapidly understanding the phenomenon of ageing and social responses to old age has become a vital contemporary issue The diverse ways in which old age is seen across Europe are compared and different forms of care for the needs of older people are examined With the demise of large institutions and increasing demands on families and on domiciliary care the question of inter generational relations is seen as a key element in the future of old age It is argued that much is to be learned from cross national comparisons in developing social responses to old age

Social Work and Health Care in an Aging Society Barbara Berkman, 2003-06 Sixteen chapters by scholars of social work relate the well being of older adults to social work practice and the current model of service delivery Chapters concentrate on issues affecting the health of older adults depression dementia abuse services to specific populations African American women grandparents raising grandchildren the developmentally disabled and professional issues home care case management standardized assessment The implications for training research and policy are highlighted Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com

Social Work with Adults Martin Brett Davies, 2012-03-20 This best selling book explores the crucial role of social workers in securing a better future for vulnerable and disadvantaged adult service users Tackling the problems most common to this branch of social work it focuses on four major themes personalization mental health substance use and old age Edited by the highly respected Martin Davies and with contributions from some of the leading names in the field Social Work with Adults provides a clear map and guidance to help navigate between the different elements of social work knowledge and practice Whether a student on an undergraduate degree taking a module on working with adults or a qualified professional wanting to ensure they are providing the very best service they can this is essential reading The breadth and depth of coverage makes this text a perfect handbook for students of adult social work

Social Work, Social Policy and Older People Robert Johns, 2011-01-04 It is essential for social work students to know about social policy to know why studying social policy is important in the social work degree and to understand how social policy when implemented has a real impact on the everyday life of vulnerable people This book provides plenty of examples of this impact tracing the development of welfare provision for older people right through the twentieth century leading up to an analysis of contemporary developments which students will need to know about in order to practice effectively Critical Gerontology for Social Workers Sandra Torres, Sarah Donnelly, 2023-10-17 This original collection explores how critical gerontology can make sense of old age inequalities to inform and improve social work research policy and practice and empower older people With examples of practice facing research this book engages with key debates on age related human rights and social justice issues The critical and conceptual focus will expand the horizons of those who work with older people addressing the current challenges issues and opportunities that they face Social Work with Older People Ann McDonald, 2010-03-08 Social Work with Older People provides an authoritative and practical guide to working with older people in a range of settings It addresses the complexities of individual work with older people as well as work with families groups and the wider community and is not afraid to tackle the challenges as well as opportunities of practice in this area The book begins by explaining the demographic changes that have led to a greying of the general population It goes on to discuss the diversity in experiences of ageing across society and the range of issues which confront older people and those who wish to work proactively with them Clear attention is paid to the processes of assessment care planning and review with readers encouraged to reflect on developing good practice through case studies and exercises Although it has a strong practical emphasis the book also stresses the value of theoretical perspectives with insights from fields such as sociology and psychology woven throughout the book Clear links are also made to policy guidelines and organizational standards without losing sight of the deeper often more complex issues that arise when working with older people Social Work with Older People will be essential reading for social work students and practitioners but also for others who are interested in the development of practice with older people as citizens and service users Social Work and Social Development James Midgley, Amy Conley, 2010-05-19 This book shows the relevance of developmental social work to the US and other Western nations contending also that its practice is not confined to community organisation or other macro practice interventions and that developmental ideas can be implemented in mainstream fields such as child welfare mental health aging etc

Annotated Bibliography on Ageing and the Elderly in Singapore Grace Khei Mie Wong, Giok Ling Ooi, Kai Hong Phua, 1999 The SAGE Handbook of Aging, Work and Society John Field, Ronald J Burke, Cary L Cooper, 2013-09-19

Aging has emerged as a major and urgent issue for individuals organisations and governments of our time In this well timed and comprehensive handbook key international contributors to the field of study come together to create a definitive map of the subject Framed by an authoritative introductory chapter the SAGE Handbook of Aging Work and Society offers a critical overview of the most significant themes and topics with discussions of current research theoretical controversies and emerging issues divided into sections covering Key Issues and Challenges The Aging Workforce Managing an Aging Workforce Living in an Aging Society Developing Public Policy Social Policy in an Ageing Society D. Reisman, 2009-01-01

Around half the world's population live in countries where the fertility rate is far below the replacement rate and where life expectancy is increasing dramatically Using Singapore as a case study Social Policy in an Ageing Society explores what might happen in a dynamic and prosperous society when falling births longer life expectancy and rising expectations put disproportionate pressure on scarce resources that have alternative uses David Reisman investigates the challenges facing Singapore where a rapidly rising median age and the growing pressure of the elderly upon medical attention are threatening to disrupt the economic and even the political status quo The dependency of the old upon the young is becoming a financial and an emotional burden Health care is swelling in quantity and price Voluntary and compulsory savings are being used up New demands for pensions and subsidies are challenging the national ideology of family network and self reliance Despite a wealth of prospective problems the author argues that viable solutions can be found Discretionary savings can increase Reverse mortgages can monetise owner occupied property A higher participation rate can give the elderly the opportunity to earn a living for themselves This book concludes that public policy must play its part in facilitating these solutions It must ensure that the old retain their dignity The old should not lie where they fall This comprehensive intelligible and highly original cross disciplinary study will appeal to a wide ranging audience Readers will include academics researchers and students with an interest in health economics the economics of development social policy and administration public policy and the socio economic aspects of medicine Twenty Years of China's Ageing Society: Achievements, Challenges, and Prospects Peng Du, Global Mindedness in International Social Work Practice Janet Carter Anand, Chaitali Das, 2019-04-10

International social work is too often used as a bolt on subject which considers others outside the national framework Instead this book encourages readers to embrace the concept of globally minded social work practice This means paying closer attention to globalisation and broader issues of social justice mirroring the kind of changing professional context social workers practice in today Drawing on a Local Global Local framework the authors promote critical reflection and dialogue across diverse contexts of practice They outline why global mindedness is a priority for the future of social work practice before considering how it is defined and applied in practice Examples are drawn from a wide range of contexts including working with children young people adults and communities across different countries Gerontology Kevin Morgan,1992-01-01 excellent reading for both undergraduate and post graduate students studying gerontology a collection of articles which adds considerable depth to our current knowledge in what is loosely known as gerontology Australian Journal on Ageing The book manages as the editor claims to examine a range of approaches methodologies and controversies within gerontology I find the book a good exponent of the breadth and strength of British gerontology Ageing and Society Most of the chapters of this thought provoking book deal with different aspects of ageing in the normal population but several have implications for care of people with dementia Journal of Dementia Care In recent years gerontology has both diversified and specialised to meet the complex challenge of an ageing society This book aims specifically to reflect these developments and includes expert contributions from the disciplines of geography economics sociology and social policy psychology and medicine Contributions have been selected not only to highlight topics of particular concern but also to illustrate the development and deployment of pragmatic responses The chapters address important issues in lifestyle health adult education ethnicity pensions policy development residential care and professional training Attention also focuses on debate within gerontology particularly in the areas of community care dementing illness and health economics The Palgrave Handbook of Global Social Work Education Sajid S.M.,Rajendra Baikady,Cheng Sheng-Li,Haruhiko Sakaguchi,2020-10-23 This handbook addresses the issues and challenges of the delivery of social work education in the contemporary world It provides an authoritative overview of the key debates switching the lens away from a Western centric focus to engage with a much broader audience in countries that are in the process of modernization and professionalization alongside those where social work education is more developed Chapters tackle major challenges with respect to curriculum teaching practice and training in light of globalization providing a thorough examination of the practice of social work in diverse contexts This handbook presents a contribution to the process of knowledge exchange which is essential to global social work education It brings together professional knowledge and lived experience both universal and local and aims to be an essential reference for social work educators researchers and students Older Workers in an Ageing Society Phillip Taylor,2013-09-30 Prolonging working lives is high on the agenda of policy makers in most of the world s major industrialized nations This book explains how they are keen to tackle issues associated with the ageing of populations namely the funding of pension systems Inclusive Housing in an Ageing Society Sheila M. Peace,Caroline Holland,2001-10-24 This book is the first to bring together people from the worlds of architecture social science and housing studies to look at the future of living environments for an ageing society It uniquely moves beyond the issues of accommodation and care to look at the wider picture of how housing can reflect the social inclusion of people as they age Maintaining Prosperity in an Ageing Society OECD,1998-07-17 Through this multi disciplinary study the OECD points to the need to take action now by implementing a comprehensive and consistent set of policies
