Society And HIV/AIDS Selected Knowledge Base For Research And Action:

Society and HIV/AIDS Göran Sterky, Ingela Krantz, 1988 Aids Awareness Through Community Participation Meenu Sharma, 2006 AIDS is the most devastating epidemic mankind has ever faced The book delves into the lives of some such communities with a modest attempt to create AIDS awareness amongst them The book makes a concerted effort to understand various issues related to AIDS The AIDS Bibliography Ralph Bolton, 1994 Nordic Journal of African Studies , 1996 The Anthropology of AIDS Ralph Bolton, Erika Kempler, 1992 The Psychological and Social Impact of Disability Robert P. Marinelli, 1999 Marinelli and Dell Orto continue the premise of their earlier editions of this widely adopted text and present a realistic perspective on disability Carefully selected articles and personal narratives capture the unique aspects of the psychological and social effects of disability Formatted to include thought provoking study questions and disability awareness exercises this text is recommended for students in rehabilitation counseling and physical therapy education programs as well as professionals in rehabilitation psychology and social work Development Dialogue , 1988

International Directory of Health Services and Systems Research Centers , 1991 Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance , 2011 Identifies and describes specific government assistance opportunities such as loans grants counseling and procurement contracts available under many agencies and programs The Oxford Handbook of Counseling Psychology Elizabeth M. Altmaier, Jo-Ida C. Hansen, 2011-11-25 Counseling Psychology one of the original specialties recognized in the profession of psychology centers on and promotes clients personal strengths during times of developmental transition or personal challenge and crisis This tradition has led the discipline to excellence in areas such as improving vocational decision making and understanding client response during counseling More recently this tradition has been applied in new and exciting areas such as understanding the role of multicultural factors among persons and society responding to crises in life such as health threats and disasters and enhancement of social justice in systems and communities The Oxford Handbook of Counseling Psychology comprises chapters all written by expert contributors in four sections foundations of the specialty contextual variables such as ethnicity and social class applications across individual couple family and group populations and intersections of the specialty with new targets of client or context Each chapter reviews the history of research theory and application analyzes current directions and sets an agenda for the close future again in theory research and application The handbook is a comprehensive and well written survey of many of psychology s domains of growing interest to students professionals and the public AIDS Bibliography , 1993 Ex-post impact assessment review of the Regional Network on AIDS, Livelihoods, and Food Security (RENEWAL) Frankenberger, Tim, Nelson, Suzanne, 2012-02-16 The Regional Network on AIDS Livelihoods and Food Security RENEWAL was officially launched in 2001 as a joint project of the International Food Policy Research Institute IFPRI and the International Service for National Agricultural Research ISNAR and was operational in Malawi Uganda Kenya Zambia and South Africa through most of 2011 RENEWAL is a network of networks comprised of national networks of food and nutrition relevant organizations along with partners in AIDS and public health practitioners Its overarching goal is to provide evidence based research on the linkages between HIV food security and nutrition in Sub Saharan Africa that would inform responses to prevent or mitigate the impact and consequences of AIDS RENEWAL s three main objectives are 1 to reduce critical gaps in understanding how livelihoods particularly those deriving from agriculture both contribute to the spread of HIV and are affected by HIV and AIDS 2 to generate new policy relevant knowledge on how households and communities may strengthen both their resistance to HIV transmission and their resilience to the impacts of AIDS and 3 to enable relevant institutions particularly governments to generate and act upon realistic priorities for responding to the interaction of the AIDS epidemic with food and nutrition insecurity RENEWAL s strategic approach to achieving these goals involved the three core pillars of capacity strengthening policy communications and action research and the synergies resulting from their interactions This report assesses the impact of RENEWAL activities from 2000 to 2010 and is based on a review of products resulting from RENEWAL activities such as books policy briefs workshop summaries reports and discussion papers stakeholder perceptions of RENEWAL products and activities and national policy or programming changes resulting from RENEWAL supported action research capacity strengthening efforts and policy communications

Africa Today ,2004 The SAGE Encyclopedia of Action Research David Coghlan,Mary Brydon-Miller,2014-08-11 Action research is a term used to describe a family of related approaches that integrate theory and action with a goal of addressing important organizational community and social issues together with those who experience them It focuses on the creation of areas for collaborative learning and the design enactment and evaluation of liberating actions through combining action and research reflection and action in an ongoing cycle of cogenerative knowledge While the roots of these methodologies go back to the 1940s there has been a dramatic increase in research output and adoption in university curricula over the past decade This is now an area of high popularity among academics and researchers from various fields especially business and organization studies education health care nursing development studies and social and community work The SAGE Encyclopedia of Action Research brings together the many strands of action research and addresses the interplay between these disciplines by presenting a state of the art overview and comprehensive breakdown of the key tenets and methods of action research as well as detailing the work of key theorists and contributors to action research
