Socioeconomic Status And Living Arrangements Of Older Persons In Lithuania:

Socio-economic Status and Living Arrangements of Older Persons in Lithuania Sarmite Mikulioniene,V. Stankūnienė,Lietuvos Filosofijos ir sociologijos institutas. Demographic Research Center,Lithuania. Statistikos departamentas,Lithuanian Institute of Philosophy and Sociology. Demographic Research Center,2003 This is one of a series of UNECE country studies which examines the living arrangements and the socio economic status of older persons in Lithuania Chapters look at the general demographic and socio economic context living arrangements of older people and characteristics of social care institutions employment and retirement issues including pensions policy housing conditions and sources of income Socio-economic Status and Living Arrangements of Older Persons in Latvia Pēteris Zvidriņš,2003 This is one of a series of UNECE country studies which examines the living arrangements and the socio economic status of older persons in Latvia Chapters look at the general demographic and socio economic context living arrangements of older people and characteristics of social care institutions employment and retirement issues including pensions policy housing conditions and sources of income Socio-economic Status and Living Arrangements of Older Persons in Switzerland Myriam Bongard,Claudine Sauvain-Dugerdil,2002 Population ageing is now widely recognised as a major feature of demographic trends in the countries of Europe and North America This report begins with a broad presentation of the demographic trends and socio economic context in Switzerland Of a population of 7.1 million in 1997 nearly a million are over 65 An examination of family demography as shown by living arrangements finds a great increase in the number of small households illustrating decreased family size increased life expectancy and a growing divorce rate Trends in age at retirement economic activity after 60 and the prospects for the pension scheme are considered The well being of older people and the challenge for the health system in dealing with the growing number of the elderly complete this survey Women and Aging International Lee Ann Mjelde-Mossey,Iris Chi,2013-09-13 According to a recent population report by the United Nations in most countries older women greatly outnumber older men In many cases the difference is so large that the concerns of the older population should in fact be viewed primarily as the concerns of older women Internationally the concerns of older women emanate from the unique gendered challenges they experience because they are more likely to be widowed poor have lower educational attainment fewer skills restricted inheritance and land ownership and have fewer sexual rights To add to this negative scenario ageist and sexist attitudes in both developed and developing societies throughout the world tend to categorize older women as non contributing burdens even though they are in fact often highly productive and bear most of the burdens of family caregiving responsibilities In spite of their majority status and list of concerns older women are less likely to be equally represented in the literature on aging This edited book introduces the reader to the diversity challenges and contributions of older women in several of the major regions of the world This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Cultural Diversity in Social Work Index to International Statistics ,2007

Lithuanian Society in Transition Laima Zilinskiene, Sigita Kraniauskiene, Melanie Ilic, 2024-12-31 Lithuanian Society in Transition examines the life experiences formed during the process of post socialist transformation in Lithuania by analysing the peculiarities of the life course of the cohort of young people born between 1980 and 2000 This book considers how various different components of post Soviet system transformation and more recent events such as the COVID 19 pandemic determine youth experiences and how these experiences are reflected in the generations born between 1980 and 2000 It explores how far these generations see themselves as distinct generations with distinctive identities how far any sense of a distinctive identity is based on political criteria or on technological changes demography and lifestyle and how far recent geopolitical events have had an impact on the identities of these younger generations Drawing on detailed evidence from a corpus of specially commissioned life history interviews the individual chapters uncover self reflexive generational identities and set these in the broader context of both specific local generational identities and more global generation identifiers Offering a rich analysis on social change in a key post Soviet country following the collapse of communism this book will be useful for researchers in sociology and social policy history Russia and Former Soviet Union European studies and ethnic studies Integrating Services for Older People in Lithuania OECD, 2022-11-25 Lithuania s population is ageing rapidly The share of the population aged 65 years and over is expected to grow from 20% in 2019 to 32% in 2050 faster than the EU average A growing share of people who need help with their daily activities so called long term care The governance of long term care is fragmented between the Ministry of Health the Ministry of Social Security and Labour and the municipalities
