The Sociology of Children, Childhood and Generation Madeleine Leonard, 2015-12-01 Outlining sociology's distinctive contribution to childhood studies and our understanding of contemporary children and childhood The Sociology of Children Childhood and Generation provides a thought provoking and comprehensive account of the connections between the macro worlds of childhood and the micro worlds of children's everyday lives Examining children's involvement in areas such as the labour market family life education play and leisure the book provides an effective balance between understanding childhood as a structural phenomenon and recognising children as meaning makers actively involved in constructing co constructing and reconstructing their everyday lives Through the concept of generagency Madeleine Leonard offers a model for examining and illuminating how structure and agency are activated within interdependent relationships influenced by generational positioning This framework provides a conceptual tool for thinking about the continuities challenges and changes that impact on how childhood is lived and experienced Children And Social Competence Ian Hutchby, Jo Moran-Ellis, 2005-08-15 A text which addresses the relationship between childhood competence and the social arenas of action in which children live their lives Taking issue with the view that children are merely apprentice adults the contributors develop a picture of children as competent sophisticated social agents focusing on the contexts which both enable and constrain that competence

The Routledge Handbook of Child and Family Social Work Research Elizabeth Fernandez, Penelope

Welbourne, Bethany Lee, Joyce L. C. Ma, 2024-09-30 This Handbook provides an accessible resource for all social work students, educators, practitioners and policymakers to increase their knowledge and understanding of how research into the diversity and impact of child and family social work interventions might underpin and drive policy and practice. Divided into six sections: The Context of Child and Family Social Work Research; Preventive and Reparative Responses to Children and Families; Child Maltreatment: Causes, Consequences and Responses; Alternate Care as an Approach to Safeguarding Children and Young People; Intervention; Therapeutic Responses to Vulnerable Children; Youth and Families; Child and Family Social Work in the Global Context and comprising 52 newly written chapters by experts in the field, it provides a foundational overview of the field of child and family social work including defining concepts, sentinel historical milestones and the scope of practice. It also identifies developments in auxiliary fields such as neuroscience, psychology, education, health, poverty and media. By illustrating diverse research endeavours in parenting, maltreatment prevention, child protection and substitutive interventions including foster care, residential care, adoption and juvenile corrections and elaborating child welfare research methods, measures and impacts on practice, it analyses evidence-based interventions and policies in early intervention, child protection, child placement, adoption and advocacy. It will be required reading for anyone working in social work and child protection.

Ethical Research with Children Sarah Richards, Jessica Clark, Allison Boggis, 2015-10-26 An increasing interest in children's lives has tested the ethical and practical limits of research. Rather than making tricky ethical decisions transparent, researchers tend to gloss over stories that do not fit with sanitized narratives. This book aims to fill this gap by making explicit the lived experiences of research with children.

Understanding Children's Personal Lives and Relationships Hayley Davies, 2016-04-29 Informed by ethnographic research with children, Davies offers new sociological insights into children's personal relationships as well as closely examining methodological approaches to researching with children and researching relationships.

Critical Children's Rights Studies Valeria Llobet, Didier Reynaert, Afua Twum-Danso Imoh, Wouter Vandenhoe, 2025-06-13 The field of children's rights studies is well established and largely dominated by a top-down approach that considers these rights as objective standards requiring implementation in practice or policy. This book argues for a critical perspective which views the area as contested terrain with conflicting normative foundations and traditions. The collection brings together established and rising scholars whose work has been central to not only challenging mainstream children's rights discourses but also provides alternative pathways to conceptualizing children's rights. It moves beyond critiques of these dominant discourses and sets out the emerging paradigm of Critical Children's Rights Studies, drawing on contexts in both the Global North and Global South. It proposes new pathways and subjects these to scrutiny, illuminating the importance of contextual situatedness and acknowledging the need to consider researchers' own positionality when outlining their stance on children's rights. Containing both empirical and theoretical scholarship, the book
