Novelistic Love in the Platonic Tradition Jennie Wang, 1997 The love story is an integral part of many novels What is its narrative status How does it function and why In this original study of Socratic love stories from Plato through Fielding and Faulkner to the Postmodernists Jennie Wang proposes a new narrative theory in the study of the novel which deconstructs the mimesis of love stories and reconstructs their historicity Wang claims that in the Platonic tradition the construction of love stories is often a dramatization of the author's historical vision philosophical speculations cultural criticism or political ideology Novelistic love functions as a literary medium a power of free speech that enables the novelist to speak unspeakable truths and include excluded subjects Wang's work will be of interest to both philosophers and scholars of American literature and postmodernism

Postmodernizing the Holocaust Marta Tomczok, 2024-01-22 Marta Tomczok presents all Polish postmodern novels about the Holocaust starting with The First Splendor by Leopold Buczkowski and ending with The Suspected Dybbuk by Andrzej Bart She also presents their rich relationships with selected foreign language prose which intensified especially at the turn of the 20th and 21st centuries The culmination of the entire trend is a discussion around two novels Tworzy by Marek Bie czyk and Fly Trap Factory by Andrzej Bart which reveals the aestheticizing and post memorial profile of Polish postmodernization and its advantage over the historiosophical trend This monograph is not only the first such collection of post Holocaust postmodern novels but also the first comprehensive study of postmodernism in the literature about the Holocaust which thanks to comparative analysis tries to analyze and explain the circumstances of the appearance and later disappearance of this trend from cultural landscape of the world and Poland

Smiles on Washington Square Raymond Federman, 1995 In this his fifth novel in English and its first paperback edition the acclaimed French born writer and poet Raymond Federman has given us the bittersweet tale of Moinous and Sucette who fall in love across a smile in Washington Square Smiles on Washington Square is a charming and complex novel With the masterful ease of a tightrope walker Federman plays with our sense of time and space as he creates with extraordinary compassion a tale that makes us see our own vulnerability and worthiness Stylistically his links to Beckett are evident in the stripped down prose the remarkable symbolism and word games and in his focus on the downtrodden and inarticulate cast aways of an industrialized world Ultimately Smiles on Washington Square is a book that teaches us there is no easy story no safe entrance no line of action not fraught with obstacles and humiliation but finally in the face of the inevitable disappointment of the human condition Federman shows us how sweet possibility is

Narrative Innovation and Cultural Rewriting in the Cold War Era and After M. Cornis-Pope, 2016-04-30 Narrative Innovation and Cultural Rewriting undertakes a systematic study of postmodernism's responses to the polarized ideologies of the postwar period that have held cultures hostage to a confrontation between rival ideologies abroad and a clash between champions of uniformity and disruptive others at home Considering a broad range of narrative projects and approaches from polysystemic fiction to surfiction postmodern feminism and multicultural postcolonial fiction this book highlights their solutions to ontological division real vs imaginary worldly and other worldly sociocultural oppositions of race class gender and narratological dualities imitation vs invention realism vs formalism A thorough rereading of the best experimental work published in the US since the mid 1960s reveals the fact that innovative fiction has been from the beginning concerned with redefining the relationship between history and fiction narrative and cultural articulation Stepping back from traditional polarizations innovative novelists have tried to envision an alternative history of irreducible particularities excluded middles and creative intercrossings
