A Social History of Modern Art, Volume 2 Albert Boime, 1993-05-15 In this second volume Albert Boime continues his work on the social history of Western art in the Modern epoch This volume offers a major critique and revisionist interpretation of Western European culture history and society from Napoleon's seizure of power to 1815 Boime argues that Napoleon manipulated the production of images as well as information generally in order to maintain his political hegemony He examines the works of French painters such as Jacques Louis David and Jean Auguste Dominique Ingres to illustrate how the art of the time helped to further the emperor's propagandistic goals He also explores the work of contemporaneous English genre painters Spain's Francisco de Goya the German Romantics Philipp Otto Runge and Caspar David Friedrich and the emergence of a national Italian art Heavily illustrated this volume is an invaluable social history of modern art during the Napoleonic era Stimulating and informative this volume will become a valuable resource for faculty and undergraduates R W Liscombe Choice

Harris,2005 Studying the art writing and critique of the three leading art writers of the latter 20th century with focus on canonical modern artists Harris brings us this study which assesses the development of modern art writing      A Companion to Modern Art Pam Meecham,2018-02-13 A Companion to Modern Art presents a series of original essays by international and interdisciplinary authors who offer a comprehensive overview of the origins and evolution of artistic works movements approaches influences and legacies of Modern Art Presents a contemporary debate and dialogue rather than a seamless consensus on Modern Art Aims for reader accessibility by highlighting a plurality of approaches and voices in the field Presents Modern Art s foundational philosophic ideas and practices as well as the complexities of key artists such as Cezanne and Picasso and those who straddled the modern and contemporary Looks at the historical reception of Modern Art in addition to the latest insights of art historians curators and critics to artists educators and more      The New Art History Jonathan Harris,2002-09-11 The New Art History provides a comprehensive introduction to the fundamental changes which have occurred in both the institutions and practice of art history over the last thirty years Jonathan Harris examines and accounts for the new approaches to the study of art which have been grouped loosely under the term the new art history He distinguishes between these and earlier forms of radical or critical analysis explores the influence of other disciplines and traditions on art history and relates art historical ideas and values to social change Structured around an examination of key texts by major contemporary critics including Tim Clarke Griselda Pollock Fred Orton Albert Boime Alan Wallach and Laura Mulvey each chapter discusses a key moment in the discipline of art history tracing the development and interaction of Marxist feminist and psychoanalytic critical theories Individual chapters include Capitalist Modernity the Nation State and Visual Representation Feminism Art and Art History Subjects Identities and Visual Ideology Structures and Meanings in Art and Society The Representation of Sexuality      Contemporary Art and the Home Colin Painter,2020-05-26 The home is for many people the location for their most intense relationships with visual things Because they are constructed through the objects we choose domestic spaces are deeply revealing of a range of cultural issues How is our interpretation of an object affected by the domestic environment in which it is placed Why choose a stainless steel teapot over a leopard print one How do the images hanging on the walls of our homes arrive there In placing contemporary art in the context of the ordinary home this book embarks on the contentious topic of whether high art impacts on ordinary people What is the size and nature of the audience for contemporary art in Britain Do people really visit more art galleries than attend football matches What is the significance of the home in relation to such questions Indeed what constitutes art in the home This book carefully unpicks these questions as well as the troubled relationship between the home as a place of comfort and reassurance and the often unsettling and challenging images offered by contemporary art Within the art world the home has been addressed as a subject and even used as a temporary gallery and a space for installations and yet it is not common for works by today's avant garde artists to be conceived and marketed to participate in the domestic lives that most people live. Handsomely illustrated, this book unites contemporary art, craft and design with sociology, anthropology and cultural studies to provide an unusual and forthright addition to ongoing art and culture debates. Modern Art and the Life of a Culture Jonathan A.

Anderson, William A. Dyrness, 2016-05-23 In 1970 Hans Rookmaaker published Modern Art and the Death of a Culture, a groundbreaking work that considered the role of the Christian artist in society. This book situates the development of 20th and 21st century Chinese art in such fundamental contexts as Chinese politics and social change and is ideally suited for readers to understand the particularities of Chinese art that are distinct from Western art history. Such an approach is appropriate to the understanding of the development of modern Chinese art which differs from both the Western approach to art history and the approach to traditional Chinese art which is limited to the combining of ink and brush heritage and ideological traditions. Based on the scale and influence of historical works, considering the specificity of the term involving fine art in China and the scope of influence of the phenomenon of fine art in the cultural field, this book's study of the phenomena of painting, sculpture, photography, video and mixed media art follows two linear time lines of historical relevance: 1949-1978 and 1978 to the present. Special attention is paid to the development of modern and contemporary art after 1978.
