Social Space For Domestic Animals:

Social Space for Domestic Animals R. Zayan, 1985-11-30 Social space in farm animals was the subject of the seminar held in Brussels on January 10-11 1985 at the Commission of the European Communities C E C Directorate General for Agriculture As part of the work of the Division for the Coordination of Agricultural Research the seminar was organized in the context of the various problems bearing relevance to animal welfare Also one of its main purposes was to present experimental results which were obtained in various laboratories working in a CEC research programme on social space particularly on the spatial requirements of laying hens in battery cages These results are presented in section II of the proceedings and section III offers similar results in other domestic animals such as pigs dairy cows and sheep These contributions have focused on the problems raised by density selected as a major variable among those present in current farm animal housing In contrast to other books devoted to welfare and stress of farm livestock the present one emphasizes the relation between spatial measures group size and floor area per animal and social behaviour or social structure in domestic animals The second objective of the seminar was to provide and discuss available information from experiments on social space in laboratory species and in domestic animals observed in non intensive environments The Domestic Cat

Dog's Best Friend? John Sorenson, Atsuko Matsuoka, 2019-11-14 In almost 40 per cent of households in North America dogs are kept as companion animals Dogs may be man's best friends but what are humans to dogs If these animals loyalty and unconditional love have won our hearts why do we so often view closely related wild canids such as foxes wolves and coyotes as pests predatory killers and demons Re-examining the complexity and contradictions of human attitudes towards these animals Dog's Best Friend looks at how our relationships with canids have shaped and also been transformed by different political and economic contexts Journeying from ancient Greek and Roman societies to Japan's Edo period to eighteenth century England essays explore how dogs are welcomed as family consumed in Asian food markets and used in Western laboratories Contributors provide glimpses of the lives of street dogs and humans in Bali India Taiwan and Turkey and illuminate historical and current interactions in Western societies The book delves into the fantasies and fears that play out in stereotypes of coyotes and wolves while also acknowledging that events such as the Wolf Howl in Canada's Algonquin Park indicate the emergence of new popular perspectives on canids Questioning where canids belong how they should be treated and what rights they should have Dog's Best Friend reconsiders the concept of justice and whether it can be extended beyond the limit of the human species
