Hick, Heather I. Peters, Tammy Corner, Tracy London, 2009-09-25 Using concrete examples this optimistic book illustrates the ways in which structural social work theory is being successfully implemented in social work practice By providing examples of what does work in structural social work practice it offers hope to others that this work is not only possible but that it is happening it is effective and the rest of us can do it too Advancing Social Justice Through Clinical Practice Etiony Aldarondo, 2007 There is a healthy development in the human service professions these days At community clinics private practices and universities around the country mental health professionals and service providers are working with increased awareness of the toxic effects of social inequities in the lives of people they aim to help. Quietly by acting out their beliefs on justice and equality, clinicians are redressing the balance between professing our craft as clinicians and professing our humanity as citizens. Advancing Social Justice Through Clinical Practice is a comprehensive volume that bridges the gap between the psychosocial realities of clients and the dominant clinical practices. It offers an array of conceptual and practical innovations to address both individual suffering and social inequities fueling this suffering. This is an empowering tool and a must read for mental health professionals. The accessible writing style also makes it ideal for teachers and students in the field. The book opens with a discussion of the historical ethical and experiential foundations for the development of social justice based practice. Parts II and III present conceptual frameworks, strategies and techniques used by social justice oriented practitioners. The final section discusses various ways to develop the skills and competencies required of mental health professionals aspiring to be both agents of individual and social transformation. Filled with hope, critical analysis and uncommon clinical wisdom, this is a book like no other in the field.
