Social Science Research and Women in the Arab World Unesco,1984 Contains eight studies by women specialists from Algeria Egypt Iraq Libyan Arab Jamahiriya Morocco Saudi Arabia Tunisia and Sudan      Social Science Research in the Arab World and Beyond Mark Tessler,2022-10-04 This book presents and discusses the logic and method of social science research adapted mainly for instruction at Arab universities and for research in Arab countries but with applicability beyond the region It illustrates major concepts and methods pertaining to research with examples of previous studies carried out in the Arab world and with exercises using Arab Barometer and other datasets The book situates itself between a regular methods textbook and an annotated list of major concepts and methods and includes an introduction three chapters and four appendices      Social Science Research and Women in the Arab World Unesco,1984 Contains eight studies by women specialists from Algeria Egypt Iraq Libyan Arab Jamahiriya Morocco Saudi Arabia Tunisia and Sudan      Administration and Development in the Arab World Jamil Jreisat,Zaki R. Ghosheh,2016-03-22 This book first published in 1986 examines the literature on administration human resources and development in the Arab world It emphasizes contemporary societies and their internal dynamics the least known and most critical aspects of Arabic studies      The Contemporary Study of the Arab World Earl L. Sullivan,Jacqueline S. Ismael,1991 The contributors discuss issues central to the debate about the proper study of Arabs and Islam methodological perspectives on the study of the Arab World urban studies women s studies economics and economic policy foreign policy and strategic studies      Islam, Gender, & Social Change Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad,John L. Esposito,1998 The essays collected in this book place this issue in its historical context and offer case studies of Muslim societies from North Africa to Southeast Asia These fascinating studies shed light on the impact of the Islamic resurgence on gender issues in Iran Egypt Jordan Pakistan Oman Bahrain the Philippines and Kuwait Taken together the essays reveal the wide variety that exists among Muslim societies and believers and the complexity of the issues under consideration      Unesco List of Documents and Publications Unesco,1982      Research for Development in the Middle East and North Africa International Development Research Centre (Canada),2000 Research for Development in the Middle East and North Africa      Unesco and Social Sciences S. P. Agrawal,J. C. Aggarwal,1988      Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East, A Bibliography, Volume 1 Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East 1965-1987 Strijp,2021-12-06 During the last two decades the number of anthropologists conducting research in the Middle East has increased considerably Together they have produced an abundance of valuable studies often based on prolonged periods of ethnographic fieldwork This bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of their results published between 1965 and 1987 It refers to studies published in English French and German Geographically the bibliography covers the area from Mauritania in the West to Afghanistan in the East and from Turkey in the North to the Arab Peninsula and Northern Sudan in the South The majority of studies inserted has been written by anthropologists Besides a considerable number of studies related to anthropology but published by non anthropologists has been integrated as well The majority of the monographs and volumes has been annotated Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East, 1992 During the last two decades the number of anthropological studies on the Middle East has increased exponentially This partially annotated bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of studies written in English French and German and covers the period from 1965 to 1987 Women and Development Prof. Jamal Sanad Al-Suwaidi, 2020-01-01 His Excellency Prof Jamal Sanad Al Suwaidi Director General of the Emirates Center for Strategic Studies and Research has published a new book titled Women and Development which addresses over four chapters major issues relevant to Arab Islamic thought regarding women and their role in development His Excellency believes that women s problems are in fact society s problems and these problems will not be solved without the involvement of government and private organizations and society as a whole Improving the status of women and promoting their participation in development is the concern of the entire country The author puts forth arguments proving the unsustainable rhetoric voiced by regressive political Islam which sought through selective interpretation of Islamic texts to impose restrictions on the freedom of women and their participation in the development process The author also provides practical responses to urgent questions regarding the status of women in Islam such as their access to education and presence in labor markets in relation to men In this regard the author refers to statistics and survey data as well as analytical readings of the circumstances involving women s rights in GCC countries In the last chapter the author explores the status of women in the United Arab Emirates as they set a role model for Gulf and Arab women This model was shaped by the late Sheikh Zayed bin Sultan Al Nahyan may God rest his soul in peace through his open and insightful thought and implemented through effective policies and programs Social and Gender Inequality in Oman Khalid M. Al-Azri, 2013 Looking at the social political and legal changes in Oman since 1970 this book challenges the Islamic and tribal traditional cultural norms relating to marriage divorce and women s rights which guide social and legal practice in the modern Omani state The book argues that despite the establishment of legal instruments guaranteeing equality for all citizens the fact that the state depends upon Islamic and tribal elites for its legitimacy invalidates these guarantees in practice Two particular features of the legal and cultural regulation of marriage and marital rights are focused on the perceived requirement for kafa aor equality in marriage between so called high and low socio economic status peoples is examined and the institution of talaq which grants greater rights to men than to women in appeals for divorce This book addresses highly complex subjects with great rigor in terms of empirical research and engagement with theory sociological and political as well as theological and legal It is an interesting investigation of the divisions of authority between the state Islam and tribal norms highlighting barriers to reform in both Oman and wider Islamic society and advocating the removal of such obstacles Area Studies and Social Science Mark Tessler, Jodi Nachtwey, Anne Banda, 1999-05-22 The volume edited by Mark Tessler addresses a set of critical issues confronting all social scientists whose field of inquiry is extra American Tessler and his contributors succeed admirably in their goal American Historical Review How should scholars construct knowledge about politics economics and international relations in major world regions According to the contributors to this lively volume the conflicting approaches of regional specialists and discipline oriented social scientists must be combined to provide a firm foundation for studying the contemporary politics of the Middle East Contributors are Lisa Anderson Anne Banda Laurie A Brand Laura Zittrain Eisenberg John P Entelis Clement M Henry Magda Kandil Baghat Korany Jodi Nachtwey Augustus Richard Norton and Mark Tessler Social Science Research and Women in the Arab World, 1984 Thinking International Relations

Differently Arlene Tickner, David L. Blaney, 2013-03-01 A host of voices has risen to challenge Western core dominance of the field of International Relations IR and yet intellectual production about world politics continues to be highly skewed This book is the second volume in a trilogy of titles that tries to put the international back into IR by showing how knowledge is actually produced around the world The book examines how concepts that are central to the analysis of international relations are conceived in diverse parts of the world both within the disciplinary boundaries of IR and beyond them Adopting a thematic structure scholars from around the world issues that include security the state authority and sovereignty globalization secularism and religion and the international an idea that is central to discourses about world politics but which in given geocultural locations does not necessarily look the same By mapping global variation in the concepts used by scholars to think about international relations the work brings to light important differences in non Western approaches and the potential implications of such differences for the IR discipline and the study of world politics in general This is essential reading for anyone who is concerned about the history development and future of International Relations Women and the Political Process in Twentieth-Century Iran Parvin Paidar, 1997-07-24 In a challenging and authoritative analysis of the role of Iranian women in the political process Parvin Paidar considers the ways they have been affected by the evolutionary and revolutionary transformations of twentieth century Iran In so doing she demonstrates how political reorganisation has of necessity redefined the position of women and that contrary to the view of conventional scholarship gender issues are fundamental to the political process in contemporary Iran The implications of the study bear on the broader issues of women in the Middle East and the developing countries generally Social Change And Family Processes Majid

Al-haj, 2019-07-09 In this book Majid Al Haj analyzes the structure of family kinship groups the role of women and fertility among several Arab subcommunities in Israel He combines historical materials anthropological evidence and several major surveys in tracing family and demographic patterns in a developing Arab community This study is the first to compare Moslems Christians and Druze over time in the same community and to integrate issues of modernization and population for minorities Particular attention is given to the analysis of internal refugees among Moslems the separation of structural from cultural determinants of family patterns and the distinction between behavior and norms associated with family lifestyles This volume represents a fascinating case study of an Arab town in the transition to modernity under the conditions of changing layers of minority status in Israeli society Moreover the author addresses broader issues of modernization and demographic change characterizing the Middle East and other developing areas of the world where minority ethnic conflict and population processes are intertwined Languages of Dress in the Middle East Bruce Ingham,Nancy

Lindisfarne-Tapper,2014-06-03 Considers how the languages of dress in the region connect with other social practices and with political and religious conformity in particular Treating cases as diverse as practices of veiling in Oman and dress reform laws in Turkey these ethnographic studies extend from Malta to the ME and Caucasus The Handbook of Marriage in the Arab World Ahmed Aref,Md Mizanur Rahman,2024-11-30 This open access handbook combines multiple theoretical and practical approaches for enabling a nuanced understanding of the phenomenon of marriage in the Arab world Adopting a holistic interdisciplinary approach it provides a framework for the contextual and macro factors surrounding and affecting marriage in the Arab countries It looks at the different types of marriage whether traditional or new to the Arab world and takes a detailed examination of the dialectic of marriage and age It considers the dynamics surrounding delayed marriages early marriages celibacy marriage costs and age gaps between spouses In addition it examines marital relations vis vis a diverse array of sub topics including marital and emotional satisfaction and violence It also looks at the relationship between work and marriage and explores how women s work affects their family relationships and intimacy Finally it offers a rich analysis of two core marriage related issues in the modern Arab world migration and its positive negative impacts on the institution of marriage and marriage in the context of war and conflict as present in several areas within the Arab region A sociological magnum opus for social science students and researchers in areas of marriage studies gender studies family studies the sociology of work peace and conflict studies human migration and economics it is also relevant to policymakers politicians social workers and human rights and migration activists working in the Arab world and beyond
