Ostrowska,2012-12-06 This volume contains a selection of papers presented at the International Conference on the Sociology of Medicine held between August 20th and 25th 1973 in Warsaw Jablonna The Conference was organized by the Institute of Philosophy and Sociology of the Polish Academy of Sciences in collaboration with the Research Committee on the Sociology of Medicine of the International Sociological Association The participants included medical sociologists from the United States and from the countries of Western and Eastern Europe including a delegation of general sociologists and physicians and also a group of young medical sociologists from Poland Dr Leo Kaprio Director of the Regional Office for Europe of the World Health Organization together with a member of his staff was also present The Conference was opened by the Deputy Minister of Health and Social Welfare of the Polish People's Republic Dr Ryszard Brzozowski The first Chairman was Prof Jan Szczepanski Vice President of the Polish Academy of Sciences and Director of the Institute of Philosophy and Sociology The first speech was delivered by Prof Jivko Oshavkov from Bulgaria then Vice Chairman of the International Sociological Association The Conference had several objectives which we believe were successfully achieved It was intended first to provide an occasion to bring participants of East and West together and give them a chance to exchange information on the state of medical sociology in different countries Current Catalog ,1971 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Stress, Culture, and Aggression Arnold Stanley Linsky,Ronnet Bachman,Murray Arnold Straus,1995-01-01 Is life in the United States becoming more stressful Are levels of stress related to residence in a particular state or region Is stress in a society associated with aggression In this important book the authors report on a major research project that establishes a link between stress and aggression in the United States They first update the standard State Stress Index which evaluates statistics on business failure unemployment divorce abortion illegitimate birth disaster assistance welfare and school dropout rate for the fifty states Using these current indexes they are able to compare differences among states in the stressfulness of life They then present new data on violence both violence directed at others homicide intrafamily assault and rape and self destructive violence suicide and substance abuse The authors make a compelling case that stress leads to widespread and often lethal aggression In addition they consider cultural norms of various groups within states relating to drinking the use of violence for socially legitimate purposes the status of women and readership of pornography in an effort to explain geographic differences in the manifestations of violence Linsky Bachman and Straus conclude by outlining the policy implications of their findings Pain and Behavioral Medicine Dennis C. Turk,Donald Meichenbaum,Myles Genest,1983-01-01 This immensely practical volume describes the rationale development and utilization of cognitive behavioral techniques in promoting health preventing disease and treating illness with a particular focus on pain management An ideal resource for a wide range of practitioners and researchers the book s coverage of pain management includes theoretical research and clinical issues and includes illustrative case material Homesickness, Cognition and Health Shirley Fisher,2016-12-19 Homesickness is a topic which has been neglected in research It focuses on pre occupation with home family and friends and is further manifest in terms of distress such as depression anxiety obsessionality absent mindedness and physical symptoms It has much in common with agitated depression and is in many ways similar to bereavement and could be described as a form of post traumatic stress syndrome Originally published in 1989 this title will be of considerable interest to those who have counselling or care giving roles An attentional resource model of homesickness experience is developed and the implications for self help and counselling are considered The book will also be of interest to cognitive psychologists since investigation of the cognitive basis of homesickness provides information into the way in which planning processes operate and in this sense there is a contribution to the understanding of cognitive factors in change and transition Sex, Gender and Society Professor Ann Oakley,2015-03-28 What are the differences between the sexes That is the question that Ann Oakley set out to answer in this pioneering study now established as a classic in the field Now newly reissued with a substantial introduction which highlights its continuing relevance this work will continue to inform and shape dialogues around sex and gender for a new generation of scholars and students Global Report on Student Well-Being Alex C. Michalos,2012-12-06 What makes people satisfied or happy with their lives or with particular features of their lives In his attempt to answer these questions the author has applied his Multiple Discrepancies Theory to study the satisfaction and happiness of university undergraduates in 39 countries The project aims to explain global satisfaction and happiness as well as satisfaction in 12 domains health finances family relations paid employment friendships housing living partner recreation activity religion self esteem transportation and education The forthcoming volumes of this survey will present detailed analysis for every domain country and university for whole groups males and females The four volume set presents a thorough picture of the relative satisfaction and happiness of students in the world

A Bibliography of British History, 1914-1989 Keith Robbins, American Historical Association, Royal Historical Society (Great Britain), 1996 Containing over 25 000 entries this unique volume will be absolutely indispensable for all those with an interest in Britain in the twentieth century Accessibly arranged by theme with helpful introductions to each chapter a huge range of topics is covered There is a comprehensive index

Social Stress in The United States Arnold Linsky, Murray Arnold Straus, 1986-10-30 In this pioneering study sociologists develop a State Stress Index that provides a quantitative measure of stress for each state and region in the United States

Sex, Gender and Society Ann Oakley, 2016-12-05 What are the differences between the sexes That is the question that Ann Oakley set out to answer in this pioneering study now established as a classic in the field To answer it she draws on the evidence of biology anthropology sociology and the study of animal behaviour to cut through popular myths and reach the underlying truth She demonstrates conclusively that men and women are not two separate groups rather each individual takes his or her place on a continuous scale She shows how different societies define masculinity and femininity in different and even opposite ways and discusses how far observable differences are based on biology and psychology and how far on cultural conditioning Many books have discussed these vital issues None however have drawn on such an impressively wide range of evidence or discussed it with such clarity and authority Now newly reissued with a substantial introduction which highlights its continuing relevance this work will continue to inform and shape dialogues around sex and gender for a new generation of scholars and students
