Social Work Services in Schools Lela B. Costin,1978

The Domains and Demands of School Social Work Practice Michael S Kelly,2008-04-14

The demands of federal legislation like No Child Left Behind and state requirements for certification are making it increasingly necessary that school social workers demonstrate that they are highly qualified school based mental health and social service professionals who can demonstrate outcomes that impact school bottom line issues

Social Work Services in Schools Daniel Scott Diehl,2003

In the wake of current school reform efforts that focus on public private partnerships social workers have a key role While research has shown that social workers can have positive impacts on students school adjustment evaluations of overall practice models continue to be limited Bronstein Kelly 1998

Therefore the purpose of this dissertation was to evaluate a community school model of social work practice by examining improvements in student related behaviors and reductions in student and family concerns identified by teachers and parents Generally parents and teachers reported improvements in students interpersonal intrapersonal and academic functioning Additionally teachers and parents reported reductions in the intensity of individual student treatment concerns Parents also reported decreased intensity in the concerns identified for their family This evaluation served to extend research related to social work in schools and provided further support for this specialized field of social work practice Findings are discussed in the context of improved school adjustment

Social Work in Schools Linda Openshaw,2012-05-18
