Theologies of Childhood and the Children of Africa Jan Grobbelaar, Gert Breed, Alfred Brunsdon, Marcia J. Bunge, Sam Ndogo, Hannes (J.J.) Knoetze, Nico Vorster, 2016-12-31 The purpose of this book is to combine perspectives of scholars from Africa on Child Theologies from a variety of theological sub disciplines to provide some theological and ministerial perspectives on this topic The book disseminates original research and new developments in this study field especially as relevant to the African context In the process it addresses also the global need to hear voices from Africa in this academic field It wants to convey the importance of considering Africa s children in theologising The different chapters represent diverse methodologies but the central and common focus is to approach the subject from the viewpoint of Africa s children The individual authors varied theological sub disciplinary dispositions contribute to the unique and distinct character of the book Almost all chapters are theoretical orientated with less empirical research although some of the chapters refer to empirical research which the authors have done in the past Most of the academic literature in the field of Theologies of Childhood is from American or British European origin The African context is fairly absent in this discourse although it is the youngest continent and presents unique and relevant challenges This book was written by theological scholars from Africa focussing on Africa s children It addresses not only theoretical challenges in this field but also provides theological perspectives for ministry with children and for important social change Written from a variety of theological sub disciplines the book is aimed at scholars across theological sub disciplines especially those theological scholars interested in the intersections between theology childhood studies and African cultural or social themes It addresses themes and provide insights that is also relevant for specialist leaders and professionals in this field No part of the book was plagiarised from another publication or published elsewhere before

The Spirit and the Salvation of the Urban Poor Brandon Kertson, 2019-11-15 Poverty What is it good for Absolutely nothing Still poverty is an ever present reality even in so called first world nations like the United States If the Holy Spirit is the member of the Trinity that is ever present in our world perhaps the Spirit can be a resource to address poverty In this pneumatological theology of poverty Brandon Kertson explores the current state of poverty in the United States arguing its complexities also require complex answers demanding a pneumatological approach that has yet to be offered Using Renewal theology and pneumatology Kertson develops a pneumatological four fold gospel based on Jesus pneumatic declaration of Luke 4 He explores how the Spirit addresses poverty through Jesus and the historic and global church and how we can begin to address poverty through the Spirit today The Spirit as savior baptizer healer and entelechy of the kingdom lays the foundation for a holistic response to the complex problem of poverty in our country

Promise Unfulfilled Rolland McCune, 2017-07-17 The New Evangelicalism was conceived if not born with the formation of the National Association of Evangelicals in 1942 This new group was in the main led by younger professing fundamentalist scholars and leaders who had become dissatisfied with their heritage and wanted to carve out some evangelical middle ground between fundamentalism and neo orthodoxy This book is an analysis of the break away movement in terms of the issues ideas and practices that led to its beginning its expansion to an apogee in the 1970s its subsequent loss of biblical and doctrinal stability and its slide toward virtual irrelevancy in a postmodern world culture of the 21st century The twenty five chapters are grouped under nine main sections Historical Antecedents the Formation of the New Evangelicalism Ecumenism Ecclesiastical Separation The Bible and Authority Apologetics Social Involvement Doctrinal Storms and Evaluations and Prospects It will be a valuable addition to the pastor s library and a strategic resource for theological education in Bible colleges and seminaries Synoptic Problems John S.

Kloppenborg,2014-07-02 This volume contains a collection of twenty one essays of John S Kloppenborg with four foci conceptual and methodological issues in the Synoptic Problem the Sayings Gospel Q the Gospel of Mark and the Parables of Jesus Kloppenborg a major contributor to the Synoptic Problem is especially interested in how one constructs synoptic hypotheses always aware of the many gaps in our knowledge the presence of competing hypotheses and the theological and historical entailments in any given hypothesis Common to the essays in the remaining three sections is the insistence that the literature thought and practices of the early Jesus movement must be treated with a deep awareness of their social literary and intellectual contexts The context of the early Jesus movement is illumined not simply by resort to the literary and historical sources produced by Greek and Roman elites but more importantly by data gathered from documentary sources available in non literary papyri Preaching the Sermon on Themount , The Bible, Justice, and Public Theology

David J. Neville,2014-10-09 Public theology is a developing field of discourse concerned to address matters of pressing public concern in theological perspective for the common good Themes of ecology poverty human rights and especially justice feature prominently in its discourse Although justice is also a prominent theme in the Bible there is no single perspective on what constitutes justice in the Bible and no single view on how biblical perspectives on justice should contribute to contemporary discussion regarding the meaning and implementation of justice Informed and inspired by Christopher Marshall s landmark work on Compassionate Justice Cascade Books 2012 in dialogue with Jesus parables of the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son this collection of studies addresses various interrelations between the Bible justice and public theology Marshall himself proposes that certain parables of Jesus are paradigmatic for public theology and some contributors respond to different dimensions of his treatment of the parables of the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son in terms of restorative justice Other contributors by contrast examine broader related concerns such as justice in biblical theological and philosophical perspective the hermeneutics of engagement for justice the relation between feminist theology and restorative justice biblical resources for public theology and popular culture as both a conversation partner with and a medium for public theology Religion, Morality, and Community in Post-Soviet Societies Mark D. Steinberg,Catherine Wanner,2008-11-13 This collection reveals the presence and power of religious belief and practice in public life after the demise of Soviet socialism Based on recent research and interdisciplinary methodologies Religion Morality and Community in Post Soviet Societies examines how religious organizations and individuals engage the changing and troubled environment in which they live which presents expanded civil freedom but much everyday uncertainty unhappiness injustice and suffering Page 4 of cover Living Countertestimony Walter Brueggemann,2012-01-01 This volume invites readers to get up close and personal with one of the most respected and beloved writers of the last four decades Carolyn J Sharp has transcribed numerous table conversations between Walter Brueggemann and his colleagues and former students in addition to several of his addresses and sermons from both academic and congregational settings The result is the essential Brueggemann readers will learn about his views on scholarship faith and the church get insights into his contagious charisma grace and charity and appreciate the candid reflections on the fears uncertainties and difficulties he faced over the course of his career Anyone interested in Brueggemann s work and thoughts will be gifted with thought provoking inspirational reading from within these pages

Twelve Hundred Questions and Answers on the Bible M. H. MYERS (and (J. H.) D.D.),1845 Primal Religion and the Bible Gillian M. Bediako,1997-08-01 This important study of the published and unpublished writings of Scotland s most brilliant and controversial nineteenth century theologian focuses on his concern to situate biblical religion within the context of the primal religions of Israel s neighbours The book explores the implications of the relationship between the Christian faith and primal religion Robertson Smith has still a contribution to make to contemporary discussion of the phenomenology of the Christian faith and Christian responses to religious pluralism Bible Society Record ,1899

Jesus Christ as Logos Incarnate and Resurrected Nana (Ancestor) Rudolf K. Gaisie,2020-10-16 This book seeks to demonstrate the significance of Ancestor Christology in African Christianity for christological developments in World Christianity Ancestor Christology has developed in the process of an African conversion story of appropriating the mystery of Christ Eph 3 4 in the category of ancestors Logos Christology in early Christian history developed as an intricate byproduct in the conversion process of turning Hellenistic ideas towards the direction of Christ A F Walls Hellenistic Christian writers and modern African Christian writers thus share some things in common and when their efforts are examined within the conversion process framework there are discernible modes of engagement The mode of Logos Christology that one finds in Origen for example is an innovative application of the understanding of Jesus Christ as Logos incarnate a new key but not discontinuous with the Johannine suggestive mode or the clarificatory mode of Justin Martyr African Ancestor Christology is at the threshold of an innovative mode and the argument this book makes is that this strand of African Christology should be pursued in the indigenous languages aided by respective translated Bibles a suggested way is a Logos Ancestor Nanas m discourse in Akan Christianity Encyclopedia of Religion and Society William H.
