givest them they gather Thou openoat hand they are filled with good thine 104th Psalm The traveller from the Old World to the New is apt to lose himself in reflection when he should be observing Speculations come in crowds in the wilderness He finds himself philosophizing with every step he takes as luxuriously as by his study fireside or in his rare solitary walk at home In England everything comes complete and finished under notice Each man may be aware of some one process of formation which it is his business to conduct but all else is presented to him in its entirety The statesman knows what it is to compose an act of parliament to proceed from the first perception of the want of it through the gathering together of facts and opinions the selection from these the elaborating adjusting moulding specifying excluding consolidating till it becomes an entire something which he throws down for parliament to find fault with When it is passed the rest of society looks upon it as a whole as a child does upon a table or a doll without being aware of any process of formation The shoemaker thus takes his loaf of bread and the clock that ticks behind his door as if they came down from the clouds as they are in return for so much of his wages and he analyzes nothing but shoes The baker and watchmaker receive their shoes in the same way and analyze nothing but bread and clocks Too many gentlemen and ladies analyze nothing at all If better taught and introduced at an early age into the world of analysis nothing in the whole course of education is probably so striking to their minds They begin a fresh existence from the day when they first obtain a glimpse into this new
