The Gunny:

Gunny's Rules R. Lee Ermey, 2013-10-28 Put down your sissy drink with its umbrella get off your backside and square yourself away Get fit get a job and get yourself some self respect America's favorite most in your face sarge is going to show you how to get squared away like a Marine R Lee Gunny Ermey of The History Channel's Mail Call takes time out from telling viewers all about military technology to tell readers all about life Men today are facing a crisis of emasculation Gunny is here to tell you how to fight back and save your dignity by taking control of your own damn life First he teaches you how to get fit stay fit and defend yourself Then he teaches you how to conduct yourself the way real men do with assertiveness but also with wisdom and courtesy Finally Gunny motivates you to use your new fitness and new attitude to live life like a man of honor to work hard reach for high goals and set an example with your life Gunny's Rules is the ultimate guide for anyone who wants to live life like one of the toughest of the tough like a Marine The Politics of Home Rosemary Marangoly George, 1999-10-29 A groundbreaking move beyond the first generation of postcolonial criticism Nancy Armstrong Brown University Vietnam Rough Riders Frank McAdams, 2013-03-12 Black smoke drifted about the scene The first thing I noticed was the huge crater yawning next to the damaged truck In the Vietnam War American rough riders drove trucks through hostile territory delivering supplies equipment ammunition weapons fuel and reinforcements to troops fighting on the war's ever shifting front lines But all too often the convoys themselves became the front lines Frank McAdams a Marine Corps lieutenant learned that the hard way during a tour of duty that began right after the 1968 Tet Offensive and the siege at Khe Sanh In this compelling memoir he recounts his personal battles not only with a dangerous enemy but also with an incompetent superior and a sometimes indifferent military bureaucracy A decidedly different take on the Vietnam experience his chronicle focuses on the ambush prone truck convoys that snaked their way through dangerous terrain in narrow mountain passes and overgrown jungles When an ambush occurred strong leadership and quick thinking were required of officers like McAdams to protect both the convoy's mission and the lives of its men McAdams describes convoys he led through hot zones like the notorious Ambush Alley stretching from Danang through Hai Van Pass to Phu Bai in the north and the provincial area in the south known as the Arizona that surrounded the villages of Phu Loc and An Hoa He also highlights the fierce three day firefight that ensnared him and his men near the Song Cau Du River at Hoa Vang and provides a particularly gripping account of the fighting at Thuong Duc McAdams deals frankly with his fraught dealings with a commanding officer whose ineptness and treatment of his troops made the CO fear for his own life And he writes movingly of his wife's love and encouragement in the face of an emotionally tough separation and also of his difficulty in re engaging with life stateside Fast paced and compulsively readable his book offers an insightful look at a largely neglected aspect of the Vietnam War while reminding us of how frequently the crucible of war reveals one's true character My Life in Service Dean Serz, 2013-11-21 This is the story of a not so good bullied student who joins the Navy and finds a home and a new life during a troubled time in American History It begins in grade school where the boy is forced to fight and run for his survival from bigger older students and class mates The boys troubles continues when he is placed in special education classes and not allowed to take part in school sports It follows the boy into the Navy and his career that follows From boot camp to A school the hospitals Fleet Marine Force training then Vietnam His duty stations and assignments for the next 29 years and beyond There are funny sad and spiritual events From a lost human being to a productive citizen who has seen more than anyone should have had to
