Genital Cutting and Transnational Sisterhood Stanlie Myrise James, Claire C. Robertson, 2002 Extrait de la couverture This book is a much needed response to the ethnocentric and arrogant Western perceptions surrounding female genital cutting FGC often referred to as either female genital mutilation or female circumcision but including a variety of practices of varying history severity geographical distribution and consequences In five provocative essays the contributors to this timely volume challenge representations of FCG In doing so they interweave a range of perspectives including history human rights law Balancing feminist ideals with culturally conscious approaches they dispel sensationalized and widely accepted concepts about FGC that influence Western media law and feminism thought

Difficult Dialogues about Twenty-First-Century Girls Donna Marie Johnson, Alice E. Ginsberg, 2015-10-09 Introduces new conceptual frameworks for girls studies Presenting cutting edge research from transnational scholars and activists Difficult Dialogues about Twenty First Century Girls introduces original methodologies and girl centered program design to the field of girls studies The editors pair progressive girls studies research on topics such as differential privilege voice cultural values and access to material resources with provocative questions in order to further the thinking about issues that are often marginalized or overlooked in feminist domains In addition the book serves as a manual for educators and activists designed to promote critical discussions that are accessible and includes a final dialogue with contemporary scholars about their work and the current direction of the field Humanists in the Hood:

Unapologetically Black, Feminist, and Heretical Sikivu Hutchinson, 2020-04-07 Feminism and atheism are dirty words that Americans across the political spectrum love to debate and hate Throw them into a blender and you have a toxic brew that supposedly defies decency respectability and Americana Add an unapologetically Black critique to the mix and it's a deal breaking social taboo Putting gender at the center of the equation progressive Religious Nones of color are spearheading an anti racist social justice humanism that disrupts the colorblind ethos of European American atheist and humanist agendas which focus principally on church state separation These critical interventions build on the lived experiences and social histories of segregated Black and Latinx communities that are increasingly under economic siege In this context Hutchinson makes a valuable and necessary call for social justice change in a polarized climate where Black women's political power has become a galvanizing national force Culturally Responsive Literacy Instruction Dorothy J. O'Shea, Festus E.
