Social Work And Alzheimers Disease Practice Issues With Victims And Their Families:

Social Work and Alzheimer's Disease Rose Dobrof, 1986 This timely volume describes for all social work professionals and other gerontological professionals new and innovative social work roles with Alzheimer's Disease clients and their families in both hospital and non hospital settings Gerontological Social Work Merl C Hokenstad, Jr, Katherine Kendall, 2014-04-04 In this fascinating book leading international experts in gerontology and social work examine the conditions of older people in their respective native lands Australia Canada West Germany Great Britain Israel Japan the Netherlands and Sweden In response to the need for world wide sharing of information and research on one of the most dramatic developments of the twentieth century in the United States and throughout the western world the aging of the populations these professionals offer an international dimension and cross cultural knowledge to social gerontology and gerontological social work Emphasis is placed on the social service delivery system in each country together with an analysis of social work roles and activities The informative articles include demographic notes the socioeconomic characteristics of older people in each country and the author's forecast of trends issues and future directions These timely reviews of what has worked elsewhere may spark greater creativity among educators and practitioners in social work and gerontology in finding alternative solutions to the many problems professionals face as advocates and service providers for older adults Social work practitioners and educators examine social services for seniors in eight different industrialized countries Each chapter focusing on a different country features a review of the social service delivery system providing information about its historical evolution and current organization a look at home care programs as well as community based and institutionally based services a review of service availability and accessibility with consideration of how social services are coordinated with health care and other human services special attention is given to social work roles within the social service system including an examination of direct service and planning management roles a consideration of the importance and usefulness of social work in service provision for each country a brief analysis of current trends and future directions for gerontological social work and social services for the elderly The cross national perspectives will highlight global trends in the industrial world and illuminate distinctions among countries based upon a particular historical political and cultural context Gerontological Social Work provides a wider base for understanding and evaluating policies and programs in one's own country Each analysis suggests new and different ways of solving problems and providing services Social work professionals worldwide will learn successful methods of enabling the elderly to maintain maximum self sufficiency and participate actively in society thus insuring improved quality of life Mental Health and the Elderly Francis J. Turner, 2010-06-15 The demographic shift to a much older population is having a large impact on social work professionals who have traditionally been the primary caretakers of the elderly As more people are living into advanced old age it is becoming increasingly important to understand and treat the wide range of psychological disorders which may affect them rather than simply attributing the disorders to senescence as was frequently done in the past Mental Health and the Elderly A Social Work Perspective is a comprehensive guide to diagnosis and treatment of the range of disorders affecting the elderly Advancing Gerontological Social Work Education Joanna Mellor, Joann Ivry, 2013-10-23 s your gerontological social work program as comprehensive and as well attended as it could be Advancing Gerontological Social Work Education will help you develop courses that effectively prepare social work students and practitioners to work with the ever increasing older population It clearly presents the rationale for geriatric gerontological preparation and defines the current status of geriatric gerontological education With fascinating case studies detailed curricula and a review of the skills and knowledge competencies necessary for effective geriatric social work practice this book also describes a variety of courses and teaching programs in detail noting the problems that other educators have encountered and offering practical suggestions to help in replicating the programs in other institutions This book is especially useful because it not only examines the issues surrounding and need for increased gerontological education for social workers but because it follows this with specific concrete descriptions of educational approaches and curricula It provides you with both the framework and the specifics to develop your own gerontological social work education program at the graduate or undergraduate level Helpful charts and tables make the information easy to access and understand Advancing Gerontological Social Work Education is divided into three sections each of which will increase your knowledge and understanding of this vital area of social work education The first section examines the historical development of gerontological social work education the CSWE SAGE SW Competencies Project the importance of interdisciplinary teamwork and the educational basis for interdisciplinary team training highlighting organizational context team structure team process and team outcomes ways to increase students interest in this vital area of social work In the second section of this well referenced book you will examine school based initiatives focusing on the development and implementation of the John A Hartford Foundation Geriatric Social Work Initiative the recruitment of students into geriatric social work with an examination of a fellowship program the relationship between the aging population of the United States and the growing demand for geriatric social workers and how that need can be met through graduate level social work training developing a field training rotation model a doctoral fellowship program and its dissertation support mentorship and leadership development The third section of Advancing Gerontological Social Work Education features an empirical study exploring the potential for a limited curriculum module to enhance MSW and BSW students gerontological practice related knowledge attitudes and interest an overview of the history and rationale of service learning in elder care a description of the varied service learning in elder care programs an experiential exercise that was used successfully to assist graduate students in integrating and applying their knowledge about geriatric assessment the results of interviews with MSW students about the appropriateness of their preparation for medical social work with an aged population conducted at the beginning midpoint and end of their field placements a report on incorporating intergenerational service learning into an undergraduate introductory gerontology course the use of the family study which exposes teams of students for 20 weeks to a family that includes an older adult

Services to the Aging and Aged Paul K. Kim, 2021-03-04 This series attempts to address the topic of aging from a wide variety of perspectives and to make available some of the best gerontological thought and writings to researchers professional practitioners and students in the field of aging as well as in other related areas This volume is an invaluable resource for those persons seeking a broad comprehensive coverage of current public policies and service programs for the elderly Besides dealing with present gerontological services it also explores the emerging challenges that these services must face in the future One of the outstanding features of the book is that its contributors include some of the most prominent authorities in the field of gerontology This is an exceptionally important and timely volume and is a much needed addition to the literature on aging

Health Care of the Aged Abraham Monk, 2014-02-04 Focusing on the need for developing new service delivery models for the aged Health Care of the Aged examines fiscal political and social criteria influencing this challenge of the 1990s The aged are caught in the sweeping changes currently occurring in the financing organizing and delivery of human and health care services From various perspectives this new book will help shape the direction for elderly health care program development and implementation With an emphasis on greater long term care in either home community or institutional settings this important book will increase the understanding for a comprehensive effective policy designed to carry the growing number of elderly through this decade and into the next As roles and issues change this valuable book will become increasingly important to those involved in providing services and care to the elderly Health care administrators policymakers social workers physical and occupational therapists and caregivers will benefit from the expertise presented in Health Care of the Aged

Latino Elders and the Twenty-First Century Melvin Delgado, 2021-04-14 Latino Elders and the Twenty First Century Issues and Challenges for Culturally Competent Research and Practice will help social workers researchers and organizations identify and analyze ways of meeting the demands of the increasing number of elderly Latinos Working from conceptual frameworks case studies and examples this book provides you with a demographic picture of Latino elders and investigates the needs of ethnic specific groups Latino Elders and the Twenty First Century will help you develop and create culturally competent intervention methods that take the culture beliefs and situations of Latino elders into consideration Addressing the future challenges to individuals involved in the field of gerontology this book offers you current studies on the assessment of present services for Latino elders how they can be improved and why these individuals may be reluctant to seek financial or medical help Latino Elders and the Twenty First Century will assist you in devising policies and programs aimed at improving services for Latino elders including providing Latino and non Latino staff with an understanding of culturally competent principles such as values knowledge and skills that will help them give attention to individual and cultural needs improving staff development by assessing issues and underlying causes of client problems using the self and other cultural awareness models to help professionals realize their own values attitudes and behaviors examining community resources such as gift shops clothing shops and beauty parlors in Puerto Rican communities that offer interpreter services integration of the lonely and community leadership to the elderly considering family structure and personal identification to facilitate access to health care services minimizing stress of caregivers by fully understanding how they identify their roles within their families evaluating their needs and capacity as caregivers and offering counseling approaches that recognize the dynamics of caregiving examining contributing factors to substance abuse among elders and researching incidence prevalence patterns of use etiology and consequences of this behavior

Latino Elders and the Twenty First Century explores the possibilities of further research in the areas of substance abuse among the elderly and the importance of businesses in ethnic communities to meet the growing needs of clients In order to assist specific groups of Latinos this book examines social and medical needs and services for Dominicans Puerto Ricans and Yaqui elders of Old Pascua

Latino Elders and the Twenty First Century will help you develop culturally sensitive programs for individual clients and diminish barriers to service
