Social History African Environments Ecology History:

Social History & African Environments William Beinart, JoAnn McGregor, 2003 This collection represents some of the finest studies to date The general topics include African environmental ideas and practices colonial science the state and African responses and settlers and Africans culture and nature The contributors are Emmanuel Kreike Karen Middleton Innocent Pikirayi Terence Ranger JoAnn McGregor Helen Tilley Grace Garswell John McCracken Ingrid Yngstrom David Bunn Sandra Swart Robert J Gordon and Jane Carruthers

A Companion to Global Environmental History J. R. McNeill, Erin Stewart Mauldin, 2015-05-04 The Companion to Global Environmental History offers multiple points of entry into the history and historiography of this dynamic and fast growing field to provide an essential road map to past developments current controversies and future developments for specialists and newcomers alike Combines temporal geographic thematic and contextual approaches from prehistory to the present day Explores environmental thought and action around the world to give readers a cultural intellectual and political context for engagement with the environment in modern times Brings together environmental historians from around the world including scholars from South Africa Brazil Germany and China

The Environment and World History Edmund Burke III, Kenneth Pomeranz, 2009-04-08 Since around 1500 C E humans have shaped the global environment in ways that were previously unimaginable Bringing together leading environmental historians and world historians this book offers an overview of global environmental history throughout this remarkable 500 year period In eleven essays the contributors examine the connections between environmental change and other major topics of early modern and modern world history population growth commercialization imperialism industrialization the fossil fuel revolution and more Rather than attributing environmental change largely to European science technology and capitalism the essays illuminate a series of culturally distinctive yet often parallel developments arising in many parts of the world leading to intensified exploitation of land and water The wide range of regional studies including some in Russia China the Middle East India Southeast Asia Latin America Southern Africa and Western Europe together with the book's broader thematic essays makes The Environment and World History ideal for courses that seek to incorporate the environment and environmental change more fully into a truly integrative understanding of world history

Environment and Identity Politics in Colonial Africa Emmanuel Mbah, 2016-12-08 Economic political and ethnic favoritism are common themes in the historiography of colonial Africa Land ownership and control and the abilities of the respective landscapes to sustain Africa's growing population have created recurrent identity crises throughout Africa The chapters discuss the recurrent environmental issues the problems of contested ownership of land autochthonism as well as the blending of different cultures in a restricted area Also highlighted is a neglected aspect of the history of Fulani migrations in West Africa the colonial extension of the Fulani into the Southern

Cameroons African American Behavior in the Social Environment J. Camille Hall, Stan L. Bowie, 2013-10-18 An essential text to help to understand human behavior and the processes that guide human adaptation Social workers and therapists need to assess the full range of aspects of their client problems such as socioeconomic status academic achievement parental incarceration psychopathology and other risks African American Behavior in the Social Environment New Perspectives explores the latest empirical and theoretical findings of human behavior and resiliency in African American individuals families and communities Leading scholars provide unique insights into African American mental health gender relations family interactions and dynamics inequality poverty the balance between work and family and nontraditional families This important text discusses in detail the importance of understanding the processes that guide human adaptation and understanding the dynamics of how particular ethnic groups cultures and people use resources to adapt to certain circumstances that can be useful in assessment and treatment African American Behavior in the Social Environment New Perspectives presents the analysis and research of several individuals in order to provide an understanding of how the concept of protective factors racial identity and racial socialization has been approached the direction their insights have taken them and the results of exploring the dynamics of African American behavior in relationship to environments Research discussed in African American Behavior in the Social Environment New Perspectives include socioeconomic status health disparity the impact of having incarcerated parents academic achievement gap kinship ties leadership development race identity and socialization suicide among African American adolescents Black churches impact in HIV AIDS prevention culturally relevant mental health services gender and sexuality issues policy and practice and much more African American Behavior in the Social Environment New Perspectives is an invaluable resource for counselors marriage and family therapists educators and students in African American studies Globalization, Environmental Change, and Social History Peter Boomgaard, Marjolein 't Hart, 2011-02-24 Throughout all ages the activities of mankind have weighed heavily upon the environment In turn changes in that environment have favoured the rise of certain social groups and limited the actions of others Despite this environmental history has remained a blind spot for most social and economic historians This is to be regretted as the various and unequal effects of environmental change often explain the strengths and weaknesses of certain social groups irrespective of their being defined along the lines of class gender and ethnicity This volume brings together the expertise of social and environmental historians in an effort to assess the extent to which transnational agents changed socioecological space as a consequence of globalization since the Late Middle Ages Environment, Power, and Injustice Nancy J. Jacobs, 2003-06-26 Sample Text The Oxford Handbook of Environmental History Andrew C. Isenberg, 2017 The Oxford Handbook of Environmental History draws on a wealth of new scholarship to offer diverse perspectives on the state of the field African Environmental Crisis Gufu Oba, 2020-03-13 This book explores how and why the idea of the African environmental crisis developed and persisted through colonial and post colonial periods and why it has been so influential in development discourse From the beginnings of imperial administration the idea of the desiccation of African environments grew in popularity but this crisis discourse was dominated by the imposition of imperial scientific knowledge neglecting indigenous knowledge and experience African Environmental Crisis provides a synthesis of more than one and a half century s research on peasant agriculture and pastoral rangeland development in terms of soil erosion control animal husbandry grazing schemes large scale agricultural schemes social and administrative science research and vector disease and pest controls Drawing on comparative socio ecological perspectives of African peoples across the East African colonies and post independent states this book refutes the hypothesis that African peoples were responsible for environmental degradation Instead Gufu Oba argues that flawed imperial assumptions and short term research projects generated an inaccurate view of the environment in Africa This book s discussion of the history of science for development provides researchers across environmental studies agronomy African history and development studies with a lens through which to understand the underlying assumptions behind development projects in Africa The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Racism and Human Ecology Katharina Loeber, 2019-01-21 The apartheid era in South Africa lasted more than 40 years It was marked by political repression and the attempt to create a homogeneous white South Africa which meant excluding the non white majority population The establishment and maintenance of white supremacy in South Africa by colonialism and since 1948 grand apartheid was not only the result of racist regulations and laws but also followed a scientific logic to justify the resettlement and expulsion of South African blacks The history of South Africa from 1948 to 1994 can also be seen as the history of a major society spanning project an attempt to build a modern state on the basis of racial segregation This work investigates the factors that make it possible to stabilize a policy based on virtually impossible prerequisites over four decades Ethnic categorization territorial planning and environmental protection measures
