Socialist History Journal:

Socialist History, 1993 Socialist History, 2005 Contested Legacies Kevin Morgan, 2002 French Early Socialists 1790s-1870s Pamela Pilbeam, 2025-03-05 This new edition is an updated assessment of the ideas and strategies of early French socialists incorporating recent research which observes the practical and scientific nature of socialist proposals The second edition provides increased coverage of women s contributions including the important roles of activists like Flora Tristan and Jeanne Deroin socialist women s newspapers schools run by women and the demand for suffrage in 1848 There is also further emphasis on socialist experiments in France s new colony Algeria and on transnational connections particularly with Owen in Britain and Fourierist communities in North America Association still figures prominently as the solution to the social and economic problems created by modernisation and capitalist exploitation It took a variety of forms from Fourier s proposal that private finance create profit sharing communities to Leroux s practical cooperative venture at Boussac through Blanc and Consid rant s demands for state initiative to set up worker alternatives to capitalism The democratic republic of 1848 gave socialists the opportunity to engage in politics and despite the setbacks of the Second Empire socialists were set on a parliamentary route in which they still have a presence French Early Socialists 1790s 1870s is an engaging resource for students and scholars in histories of France politics and gender Women's History: Britain, 1850-1945 June Purvis, 2008 History's Memory Ellen Fitzpatrick, 2004-10-25 This reinterpretation of a century of American historical writing challenges the notion that the politics of the recent past alone explains the politics of history Fitzpatrick offers a wise historical perspective on today s heated debates and reclaims the long line of historians who tilled the rich and diverse soil of our past A Global History of Modern Historiography Georg G Iggers, Q. Edward Wang, Supriya Mukherjee, 2013-09-13 So far histories of historiography have concentrated almost exclusively on the West This is the first book to offer a history of modern historiography from a global perspective Tracing the transformation of historical writings over the past two and half centuries the book portrays the transformation of historical writings under the effect of professionalization which served as a model not only for Western but also for much of non Western historical studies At the same time it critically examines the reactions in post modern and post colonial thought to established conceptions of scientific historiography A main theme of the book is how historians in the non Western world not only adopted or adapted Western ideas but also explored different approaches rooted in their own cultures Men of the World Jeff Hearn, 2015-07-14 Men of the World will be seized upon by academics and activists facing up to the persistence proliferation and transnationalization of patriarchies Cynthia Cockburn City University London and University of Warwick This is an important thought provoking and incredibly timely book from one of the leading scholars in the field of men and masculinities I cannot praise this wonderful book highly enough Richard Collier Newcastle University In this lively and engaging new book Hearn looks back over nearly 40 years in feminist framed studies of men and masculinities and also forward to the futuristic scenarios through which gender power is currently evolving in transpatriarchal contexts Terrell Carver University of Bristol What have men and globalization got to do with each other How are men shaping and being shaped by globalization How is globalization gendered Why do many books on globalization fail to discuss gender relations And why do many of those that do omit an explicit and developed analysis of men and gender relations Men of the World brings together autobiographical reflections and memories on changing personal locations contemporary empirical studies on major power processes and up to date theoretical development It considers the implications of debates on globalization for analyzing men and the implications of debates on men and masculinities for globalization transnational change and transnational patriarchies as part of engagement and critique focused on the global North Specific chapters address diverse transnational issues transnational bodies and emotions in violence violation and militarism transnational organizing across states big business global finance and activism transnational movements in the environment migration and information and communication technologies and sexualities and finally challenges to the gender category of men An essential read for students and researchers of gender sexuality masculinity intersectionality and globalization across the social sciences Jeff Hearn is Guest Faculty Research Professor Gender Studies rebro University Sweden Professor of Management and Organization Hanken School of Economics Finland Professor of Sociology University of Huddersfield UK

French Socialists Before Marx Pamela M. Pilbeam, 2000 How to put socialism into practice was as fundamental a concern for nineteenth century socialists as it has been for their successors In French Socialists before Marx Pamela Pilbeam explores the development of and changes in socialist ideas revealing how the Fourierists of the 1830s and 1840s changed Fourier's ideas on the family and sexuality preferring public works programs to model communities She focuses on the practical contributions of early socialists including the efforts of working women to run schools worker associations and newspapers
