Iberia and the Mediterranean World of the Middle Ages, Volume II Kagay, Padilla, Paul Chevedden, 2021-09-20 Brill s series The Medieval Mediterranean has established itself as the main forum for studies exploring all aspects of the Mediterranean world during a period of 1000 years In the medieval period the Mediterranean experienced a multiplicity of developments in social political and economic structures and in populations religions and cultures The centuries between the Late Roman world of the fourth and fifth century and the early modern Braudelian Mediterranean of the sixteenth century were characterised by sweeping changes including the establishment of post Roman kingdoms in the west the emergence of Slav societies in the Balkans the struggle between Christians and Muslims in Spain and the movement of crusaders Founded in 1993 The Medieval Mediterranean series reflects the complexity of this period with a wide variety of high quality scholarly works from broad surveys to diachronic studies of particular areas or cities investigations of individual themes or issues conference proceedings text editions and fully annotated translations Top specialists in a range of fields have contributed to the series and the volumes which have appeared so far have been warmly welcomed by reviewers This series is indispensable for readers with interests in the history of later antiquity the Middle Ages Byzantium Islam the Balkans and the Black Sea area Publication schedule At present 3 volumes of around 350 pages each are published in the series each year The vast majority of the books in the series are in the English language although works of outstanding quality in French or German may also be included Volumes contain illustrations and maps where appropriate Making Agreements in Medieval Catalonia Adam J. Kosto, 2001-05-03 This study examines the role of written agreements in eleventh and twelfth century Catalonia and how they determined the social and political order By tracing the fate of these agreements or convenientiae from their first appearance to the late twelfth century it is possible to demonstrate the remarkable stability of the fluid structures which they engendered in what is generally thought of as feudal society The process of documentary change reveals the true nature and pace of the transformation of the year 1000 Analysis of the convenientia as an instrument of power and its interaction with oral practices contributes to a deeper understanding of the role of the written word in medieval societies Finally a broad historiographical context establishes the significance of this study of Catalonia for a more general appreciation of the medieval Mediterranean world Trusting Records H. MacNeil,2013-03-09 A trustworthy record is one that is both an accurate statement of facts and a genuine manifestation of those facts Record trustworthiness thus has two qualitative dimensions reliability and authenticity Reliability means that the record is capable of standing for the facts to which it attests while authenticity means that the record is what it claims to be This study explores the evolution of the principles and methods for determining record trustworthiness from antiquity to the digital age and from the perspectives of law and history It also examines recent efforts undertaken by researchers in the field of archival science to develop methods for ensuring the trustworthiness of records created and maintained in electronic systems Audience The target audience for this study is legal scholars working in the field of evidence law historians working in the field of historical methodology and recordkeeping professionals records managers information technology specialists archivists working on the design and implementation of contemporary organizational recordkeeping systems Journal of Medieval Military History John France,Kelly DeVries,Clifford J. Rogers,2019-05-17 This volume focuses on two of the most vibrant areas of research in the field Crusader studies and the warfare of the Late Middle Ages embracing a diversity of approaches Chapters look at the battle of Tell Bashir 1108 in the context of Saljuq politics the defenses of Altit castle one of the Templars strongest fortifications from an archaeological perspective the involvement of the Military Orders in secular conflicts particularly in Europe and how royal women affected and were affected by the wars of Castile and the Crown of Aragon in the fourteenth century Fencing competitions are used to explore masculinity and status in Strasbourg from the late Middle Ages into the early modern period and key aspects of the actual conduct of warfare in the fifteenth century come under detailed scrutiny the role of cavalry in turning the Hundred Years War in favour of the French and the logistical and procurement difficulties and methods involved in fielding a Florentine army in 1498 The volume is completed with a translation and discussion of Guillaume Guiart s rich description of a French royal army on the march and in camp at the start of the fourteenth century Contributors Fabrizio Ansani Drew Bolinger Oliver Dupuis Ehud Galili Michael Harbinson Donald J Kagay Michael Livingston Ken Mondschein Helen J Nicholson Avraham Ronen Andrew L J Villalon Maimonides Review of Philosophy and Religion Volume 3, 2024 ,2024-09-09 The Maimonides Review of Philosophy and Religion is an annual collection of double blind peer reviewed articles that seeks to provide a broad international arena for an intellectual exchange of ideas between the disciplines of philosophy theology religion cultural history and literature and to showcase their multifarious junctures within the framework of Jewish studies Contributions to the Review place special thematic emphasis on scepticism within Jewish thought and its links to other religious traditions and secular worldviews The Review is interested in the tension at the heart of matters of reason and faith rationalism and mysticism theory and practice narrativity and normativity doubt and dogma

Conflict in Fourteenth-Century Iberia Donald J. Kagay, L.J. Andrew Villalon, 2021-06-17 In Conflict in Fourteenth Century Iberia Kagay and Villalon trace the complicated economic military political and social background of the relationship of Iberia's two greatest Christian states of the fourteenth century Castile and the Crown of Aragon and their rulers Pedro I r 1350 1366 69 and Pere III r 1336 1387 Besides chapters discussing the War of the Two Pedros 1356 1366 and the Castilian Civil War 1366 1369 the authors provide extended treatments of the strategical and tactical elements of the conflicts the parliamentary diplomatic and governmental developments that occurred because of the conflicts as well as their social and political aftermaths This work along with authors earlier book on the battle of Nájera 1367 provides a much needed review of Iberia's violent fourteenth century

Iberia and the Mediterranean World of the Middle Ages, Volume I: Proceedings from Kalamazoo Simon, 2021-09-20 Eighteen studies many based on archival evidence or new methodologies some proceeding from novel angles explore the history and culture of Iberia Italy and the Mediterranean World in the Middle Ages The studies were originally presented at the 27th International Congress of Medieval Studies at Kalamazoo in 1992 and have been collected in honor of Robert I Burns S J the distinguished medievalist and historian of Mediterranean Spain Most of the studies mirror the honoree's scholarly interests Muslim Christian Jewish relations in medieval Iberia the economy and society of the Mediterranean World religious polemic and ecclesiastical history and medieval personalities and institutions Ten of the studies concern aspects of cultural symbiosis or inter religious relations in a pluri ethnic society and at least an equal number relate to the literary and social history of the Catalan speaking lands of Mediterranean Spain

Europe and the Islamic World John Tolan, Henry Laurens, Gilles Veinstein, 2012-11-25 A sweeping history of Islam and the West from the seventh century to today Europe and the Islamic World sheds much needed light on the shared roots of Islamic and Western cultures and on the richness of their inextricably intertwined histories refuting once and for all the misguided notion of a clash of civilizations between the Muslim world and Europe In this landmark book three eminent historians bring to life the complex and tumultuous relations between Genoans and Tunisians Alexandrians and the people of Constantinople Catalans and Maghrebis the myriad groups and individuals whose stories reflect the common cultural intellectual and religious heritage of Europe and Islam Since the seventh century when the armies of Constantinople and Medina fought for control of Syria and Palestine there has been ongoing contact between the Muslim world and the West This sweeping history vividly recounts the wars and the crusades the alliances and diplomacy commerce and the slave trade technology transfers and the intellectual and artistic exchanges Here readers are given an unparalleled introduction to key periods and events including the Muslim conquests the collapse of the Byzantine Empire the commercial revolution of the medieval Mediterranean the intellectual and cultural achievements of Muslim Spain the crusades and Spanish reconquest the rise of the Ottomans and their conquest of a third of Europe European colonization and decolonization and the challenges and promise of this entwined legacy today As provocative as it is groundbreaking this book describes this shared history in all its richness and diversity revealing how ongoing encounters between Europe and Islam have profoundly shaped both
