Education in Eastern Europe Nellie Mary Apanasewicz, 1980 Eastern Europe Since 1970 Bulent Gokay, 2015-12-22 From the hardening grip of Soviet domination under Brezhnev to the collapse of communism and its aftermath Bulent Gokay provides the essential introduction to Eastern Europe in the last quarter of the twentieth century The Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia in 1968 spelt the end of reformist communism and the tightening of Soviet control throughout Eastern Europe In spite of this several countries within the Soviet Bloc managed to retain varying degrees of independence over the next two decades Focusing on the struggle towards economic and social modernisation in the region and the competing influences of East and West in a dangerous Cold War Bulent Gokay shows how individual circumstances and diverse national characteristics made a uniform application of the Soviet model impossible and charts the growing resistance to domination and the momentous events which finally toppled Soviet power in the region

Secondary Schools in Eastern Germany Stephanie Wilde, 2003 Russia and Eastern Europe, 1789-1985 Raymond Pearson, 1989 Introducing Comparative Education A. R. Trethewey, 2014-05-18

Introducing Comparative Education aims to familiarize newcomers with comparative education as a field of study and to provide a continuing reference as people become more actively involved with comparative studies and the problems associated with developing them in rigorous and productive ways The purposes and methods of comparative education are also discussed Comprised of eight chapters this book begins by presenting a neat simple and generally accepted definition of comparative education The reader is then introduced to the history and development of comparative education the purposes of comparative education some of the pitfalls in trying to compare education or educational systems across cultural and national boundaries and some of the alternative methods open to those who would like to develop studies in comparative education The approaches associated with Isaac Kandel Nicholas Hans and G Z F Bereday Brian Holmes Edmund King Harold Noah and Max Eckstein are considered The book concludes with a listing of resources for teaching and learning This monograph is intended for students and educators Education in the European Union: Post-2003 Member States Trevor Corner, 2015-07-30 The volume provides a comprehensive reference resource for education in the countries that joined the European Union between the signing of the Treaty of Nice to the present time Bulgaria Croatia Cyprus the Czech Republic Estonia Hungary Latvia Lithuania Malta Poland Romania Slovakia and Slovenia Many of these countries have previously been under the influence of the Soviet Union and are moving through transitional phases towards more western models The chapters in this volume written by regional experts examine the educational heritage of these countries and how these education systems evolved in response to changing national needs European agreements including the Treaty of Nice and The Bologna Process and international evaluations such as the Programme for International Student Assessment PISA The chapters on Cyprus and Malta show the very special circumstances of these two Mediterranean islands and the international influences that have underpinned their developments in education Power and Society in the GDR, 1961-1979 Mary Fulbrook, 2009-05-01 The communist German Democratic Republic founded in 1949 in the Soviet occupied zone of post war Germany is for many people epitomized by the Berlin Wall Soviet tanks and surveillance by the secret security police the Stasi appear to be central But is this really all there is to the GDR's history How did people come to terms with their situation and make new lives behind the Wall When the social history of the GDR in the 1960s and 1970s is explored new patterns become evident A fragile stability emerged in a period characterized by consumer socialism international recognition and détente Growing participation in the micro structures of power and conformity to the unwritten rules of an increasingly predictable system suggest increasing accommodation to dominant norms and conceptions of socialist normality By exploring the ways in which lower level functionaries and people at the grass roots contributed to the formation and transformation of the GDR from industry and agriculture through popular sport and cultural life to the passage of generations and varieties of social experience the contributors collectively develop a more complex approach to the history of East Germany European Political Facts 1918-73 Chris Cook, John Paxton, 1975-06-18
