L'An v [i.e. cinq] de la révolution algérienne Frantz Fanon, 1962

Transforming Family Jocelyn Frelier, 2022-11 One of the lasting legacies of colonialism is the assumption that families should conform to a kinship arrangement built on normative nuclear individuality based models An alternate understanding of familial aspiration is one cultivated across national borders and cultures and beyond the constraints of diasporas This alternate understanding which imagines a category of trans families relies on decolonial and queer intellectual thought to mobilize or transform power across borders In Transforming Family Jocelyn Frelier examines a selection of novels penned by francophone authors in France Morocco and Algeria including Azouz Begag Nina Bouraoui Fouad Laroui Le la Sebbar Le la Slimani and Abdellah Ta a Each novel contributes a unique argument about this alternate understanding of family questioning how family relates to race gender class embodiment and intersectionality Arguing that trans families are always already queer Frelier opens up new spaces of agency for both family units and individuals who seek representation and fulfilling futures The novels analyzed in Transforming Family as well as the families they depict resist classification and delink the legacies of colonialism from contemporary modes of being As a result these novels create trans identities for their protagonists and contribute to a scholarly understanding of the becoming trans of cultural production As international political debates related to migration the family unit and the global migrant crisis surge Frelier destabilizes governmental criteria for the regrouping of families by turning to a set of definitions found in the cultural production of members of the francophone North African diaspora

Dissident Writings of Arab Women Brinda J. Mehta, 2014-03-14

Dissident Writings of Arab Women Voices Against Violence analyzes the links between creative dissidence and inscriptions of violence in the writings of a selected group of postcolonial Arab women The female authors destabilize essentialist framings of Arab identity through a series of reflective interrogations and contesting literary genres that include novels short stories poetry docudramas interviews and testimonials Rejecting a purist literature for literature s sake ethic they embrace a dissident poetics of feminist critique and creative resistance as they engage in multiple and intergenerational border crossings in terms of geography subject matter language and transnationality This book thus examines the ways in which the women s writings provide the blueprint for social justice by voicing protest and stimulating critical thought particularly in instances of social oppression structural violence and political transition Providing an interdisciplinary approach which goes beyond narrow definitions of literature as aesthetic praxis to include literature s added value as a social historical political and cultural palimpsest this book will be a useful resource for students and scholars of North African Studies Postcolonial Studies Francophone Studies and Feminist Studies Bourdieu and Sayad Against Empire Amín Pérez,2023-12-11

Pierre Bourdieu and Abdelmalek Sayad met in their twenties in the midst of the Algerian war of independence From their first meeting a strong intellectual friendship was born between the French philosopher and the activist from the colony nourished by the same desire to understand the world in order to change it The work of both men was driven by the necessity of putting knowledge to use whether by unveiling the relations of domination that structured life in Algeria or by opening emancipatory perspectives for the Algerian people Colonies were of course a customary site of ethnographic work but Bourdieu and Sayad refused to sacrifice scientific rigor to political expediency even as Algeria descended deeper into war Indeed the act of understanding as a political commitment to the transformation of society lay at the heart of their project Based on extensive interviews and deep archival work Am n P rez rediscovers the anticolonial origins of the pathbreaking social thought of these brilliant thinkers Bourdieu and Sayad he argues forged another way of doing politics laying the foundations of a revolutionary pedagogy not just for anticolonial liberation but for true social emancipation Frantz Fanon Renate Zahar,1974 Analysis of Fanon s major theories with a special emphasis on his work on alienation Past Imperfect Pierre-Philippe Fraiture,2021 This book offers an interdisciplinary exploration of anti colonial thought in its existential Marxist religious and ethnophilosophical manifestations Past Imperfect directly employs time in its different guises history historiography memory temporality and historicity as a tool to understand the decolonization of the humanities in Francophone Africa in the immediate post WW2 era Frantz Fanon Azzedine Haddour,2025-06-20 Haddour is a foremost interpreter of Fanon and here sheds important new light on this critical giant of the twentieth century challenging the assumptions of many postcolonial readers Judith Still Emeritus Professor University of Nottingham Few works have more creatively and comprehensively explored Fanon s perspective on gender relations the family and women s resistance to sexual violence Outstanding Peter Hudis author of Frantz Fanon Philosopher of the Barricades A meticulously researched analysis Jane Hiddleston author of Frantz Fanon Literature and Invention Frantz Fanon 1925 1961 was a visionary thinker whose legacy continues to shape conversations on identity power and resistance Here leading Fanon scholar Azzedine Haddour explores themes of gender revolutionary struggle and decolonisation in the first comprehensive study of Fanon s lesser known work Studies in a Dying Colonialism 1959 Drawing on archival material the author explores the historical developments that determined the colonial consensus and the social transformation prompted by the Algerian liberation struggle Haddour engages with the biopolitics of French colonialism to support Fanon's claim that the medical establishment acted in complicity with colonialism He recounts various assimilationist laws that resulted in the gendering of colonial space and shows how the wars alter the perception of the colonised population through modern Western technologies like the radio In an era where global struggles for independence and self determination persist this book is a fascinating new journey into the mind of a groundbreaking philosopher and icon of revolution Azzedine Haddour is Professor in Francophone and Comparative Literature at University College London He is the author of Frantz Fanon Postcolonialism and the Ethics of Difference and Colonial Myths History and Narrative editor of The Fanon Reader and translator of a collection of Sartre's essays Colonialism and Neocolonialism
