The Index of Middle

English Prose: Handlist XXV Niamh Pattwell, 2024 Handlist to manuscripts in Trinity College Dublin covering all 79 Middle English prose manuscripts and indexing more than 539 separate items The manuscripts in Trinity College Dublin are predominantly from the library of Archbishop James Ussher 1581-1656 A well known bibliophile of the sixteenth century he was also primate of All Ireland and fellow and professor of Trinity College. Following some movement of the collection it was eventually returned to Trinity College after the Restoration at the behest of Charles II. It is a significant collection both in national and international terms with over 600 manuscripts, 79 of which contain Middle English prose. Among the manuscripts in the collection are several Wycliffite Bibles and collections of sermons and tracts, some of them unique copies. The collection also contains writings by Richard Rolle, Walter Hilton, and William Flete, and copies of Thomas Kempis's Imitation of Christ as well as the Pore Caitif and The Cloud of Unknowing, both of which are anonymous. There are several copies of the Brut chronicle, two of which MSS 489 and 505 are illuminated translations of Giraldus Cambrensis's Expugnatio Hibernica and a copy of Robert Bale's Chronicle of London 1189-1461. Also of note are the various collections of recipes, medical, culinary, and alchemical. Dictionary-style items demonstrate the trilingual nature of the Medieval period, with single words being offered in English alongside Anglo-Norman and/or Latin words or as marginal glosses. Fifteenth-century instructions for the coronation of a King or Queen, hidden among some later material, as well as other unidentified heraldic pieces suggest that some of the manuscripts may be associated with the office of the Ulster King of Arms. The current handlist covers 79 manuscripts and indexes more than 539 separate items, offering a significant contribution to the understanding of the cultural world of the Medieval period. Reference Books Bulletin, 1987-1988. Sandy Whiteley, Rbb Editorial Board, 2011-11.

American Reference Books Annual, 1985-1970. Issued in 2 vols. v. 1 General reference, social sciences, history, economics, business. v. 2 Fine arts, humanities, science and engineering. The Index of Middle English Prose, Handlist XII. Ralph Hanna, 1997-09-04. The Index of Middle English Prose is an international collaborative project which will ultimately locate, identify, and record all extant Middle English prose texts composed between c. 1200 and c. 1500 in both manuscript and printed form in medieval and post-medieval versions. The first step towards this goal has been this series of Handlists, each recording the holdings of a major library or group of libraries. Compiled by scholars, Handlists include detailed descriptions of each prose item with identifications, categorisations, and full bibliographical data. Every Handlist will also contain a series of indexes including listings of opening and closing lines, authors, titles, subject matter, and rubrics. For students of the middle ages, Handlists provide essential bibliographical tools and shed light on a wide range of subjects.

The Index of Middle English Prose. Linne R. Mooney, 2007. The Library of Trinity College, Cambridge, contains the largest collection of medieval manuscripts of any college in Great Britain and one of the most important collections in the world. The subjects contained therein cover the whole range of topics usual to medieval manuscripts, with the single bias being that the majority were produced in Britain. Particularly noteworthy are Wycliffite translations of the Bible, sermons, and Wycliffite tracts; three manuscripts containing Nicholas Love's Mirror of the Blessed Life of Ihesu Crist; and major collections of devotional texts. Trinity is also rich in medieval scientific manuscripts, many of which came through Roger Gale's interest in this field. They include a number of large medical manuscripts whose compilers were apparently trying to bring together much of the current knowledge of the day from tracts by such men as John of Arderne and Gilbertus Angelicus with recipes for treatments under a single cover The collection also contains major compilations of alchemical tracts historical and legal material and unique Middle English translations of classical and early medieval texts Finally a number of known Middle English texts not previously thought to be in the Trinity Collection are identified opening new areas for study of Trinity's manuscripts especially the medical and scientific texts which have much to tell of scientific learning in England in the later middle ages LINNE R MOONEY is Associate Professor of English at the University of Maine and a former graduate of the Center for Medieval Studies at Toronto American Book Publishing Record ,2002 The Index of Middle English
