The Gay Archipelago Sexuality And Nation In Indonesia:

The Gay Archipelago Tom Boellstorff, 2005-10-17 The Gay Archipelago is the first book length exploration of the lives of gay men in Indonesia the world's fourth most populous nation and home to more Muslims than any other country Based on a range of field methods it explores how Indonesian gay and lesbian identities are shaped by nationalism and globalization Yet the case of gay and lesbian Indonesians also compels us to ask more fundamental questions about how we decide when two things are the same or different The book thus examines the possibilities of an archipelagic perspective on sameness and difference Tom Boellstorff examines the history of homosexuality in Indonesia and then turns to how gay and lesbian identities are lived in everyday Indonesian life from questions of love desire and romance to the places where gay men and lesbian women meet He also explores the roles of mass media the state and marriage in gay and lesbian identities The Gay Archipelago is unusual in taking the whole nation state of Indonesia as its subject rather than the ethnic groups usually studied by anthropologists It is by looking at the nation in cultural terms not just political terms that identities like those of gay and lesbian Indonesians become visible and understandable In doing so this book addresses questions of sexuality mass media nationalism and modernity with implications throughout Southeast Asia and beyond

Sex and Sexualities in Contemporary Indonesia Linda Rae Bennett, Sharyn Graham Davies, 2014-12-05 Winner of the 2015 Ruth Benedict Prize for Outstanding Edited Volume Sex sexuality and sexual relationships are hotly debated in Indonesia triggering complex and often passionate responses This innovative volume explores these issues in a variety of ways It highlights historical and newer forms of sexual diversity as well as the social responses they provoke It critiques differing representations of sexuality pointing to the multiplicity of discourses within which sexuality and the sexual are understood in modern day Indonesia Placing sexuality centre stage and locating it within the specific historical context of the Reformasi era this landmark volume explores understandings and practices across a wide variety of sites focusing in on a diverse group of Indonesian actors and the contested meanings that sexuality carries Beginning with a substantive introduction and concluding with a scholarly reflection on key issues the volume is framed around the four themes of sexual politics health diversity and representations It seeks both to present new empirical findings as well as to add to existing theoretical analysis This work fills an important gap in our understanding of the evolution and contemporary dynamics of Indonesian sexualities It will be of interest to scholars and academics from disciplines including gender and sexuality studies global health sexual and reproductive health anthropology sociology and Asian studies

Burton Adolescents in Contemporary Indonesia Lyn Parker,Pam Nilan,2013-07-18 The youth demographic is a large and growing cohort in Indonesia and adolescents embody the currents of social change Throughout the twentieth century they were significant agents of social protest leading to social and political transformation This book looks at the importance of adolescents in contemporary Indonesia and how they are spearheading not just globalisation and a growing consumer youth culture but also the Islamisation movement The book explores both the inner worlds and social selves of Indonesian adolescents It presents an in depth knowledge of Indonesian society and culture in various parts of Indonesia and discusses national patterns and trends Grounded in two field sites the book enables an analysis of young people s local ethnic and religious identities and their commitment to the Indonesian nation state It goes on to look at the physical age bracket of youth the definitions used by the Indonesian state and other agencies and the perceptions of youth themselves about adolescence and adulthood Providing a comprehensive study of young people in contemporary Indonesia the book addresses gender relations the importance of education for youth and youth engagement with popular culture and the moral issue concerning the sexual propriety of young people It is a useful contribution for students and academics of Asian Studies Sociology and Cultural Studies

Public Discourses About Homosexuality and Religion in Europe and Beyond Marco Derks,Mariecke van den Berg,2020-10-01 This volume addresses three things many people do not discuss candidly with strangers or mere acquaintances God sex and politics These can easily become topics of fierce debate particularly when taken together as has been the case with same sex marriage legislation the Vatican s criticism of gender ideology or the repeatedly asserted claim that Islam homosexuality and gender equality are essentially incompatible This volume investigates what is at stake in these constructions of religion and homosexuality in public discourses Starting with the Netherlands as a special case study it proceeds with contributions on other predominantly postsecular countries in central northern and southern Europe as well as several postcommunist and postcolonial countries beyond Europe Combining contemporary and historical perspectives and approaches from both the humanities and the social sciences the contributors explore how national and European identities are constructed and contested in debates on religion and homosexuality Chapter 2 and Chapter 8 of this book are available open access under a CC BY 4.0 license at link.springer.com Queer Singapore Audrey Yue, Jun Zubillaga-Pow, 2012-10-01 Singapore remains one of the few countries in Asia that has yet to decriminalize homosexuality Yet it has also been hailed by many as one of the emerging gay capitals of Asia This book accounts for the rise of mediated queer cultures in Singapore's current milieu of illiberal citizenship This collection analyses how contemporary queer Singapore has emerged against a contradictory backdrop of sexual repression and cultural liberalisation Using the innovative framework of illiberal pragmatism established and emergent local scholars and activists provide expansive coverage of the impact of homosexuality on Singapore's media cultures and political economy including law religion the military literature theatre photography cinema social media and queer commerce It shows how new LGBT subjectivities have been fashioned through the governance of illiberal pragmatism how pragmatism is appropriated as a form of social and critical democratic action and how cultural citizenship is forged through a logic of queer complicity that complicates the flows of oppositional resistance and grassroots appropriation A Coincidence of Desires Tom Boellstorff, 2007-04-25 An anthropological examination of non normative male sexuality outside of the West using Indonesia as a case study The Sexual Politics of Asylum Calogero Giametta, 2017-03-27 Today within neoliberal democracies gender and sexuality provisions give people the opportunity of being granted social and legal protection But how does the asylum system intervene within claimants' understandings of themselves and in what ways does this affect their livelihoods in the country of arrival The Sexual Politics of Asylum emerges from a 2 year long ethnography which explores the experiences of 60 gender and sexual minority refugees in the UK Bringing previously unheard stories to the forefront this enlightening volume challenges dominant notions about the construction of sexuality and gender as an instrument for claiming rights in a world shaped by postcolonial relations Giametta first examines why the migratory experience of the studied migrants is located within a set of humanitarian inflected discourses that privilege suffering and trauma This is then followed by an assessment of the respondents' biographical accounts which consequently uncovers how being situated in liminal socio political and legal interstices produces precarious forms of life Whilst the topic of asylum for gender and sexual minorities has attracted wide media coverage over the past decade there persists a lack of academic attention to the complex experiences of these refugees As such this timely book will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students interested in human rights sociology anthropology migration sexuality gender and cultural studies as well as people working within the refugee granting process Sexualities in World Politics Manuela Lavinas Picq, Markus Thiel, 2015-05-15 As LGBTQ claims acquire global relevance how do sexual politics impact the study of International Relations This book argues that LGBTQ perspectives are not only an inherent part of world politics but can also influence IR theory making LGBTQ politics have simultaneously gained international prominence in the past decade achieving significant policy change and provoked cultural resistance and policy pushbacks Sexuality politics more so than gender based theories arrived late on the theoretical scene in part because sexuality and gender studies initially highlighted post structuralist thinking which was hardly accepted in mainstream political science This book responds to a call for a more empirically motivated but also critical scholarship on this subject It offers comparative case studies from regional cultural and theoretical peripheries to identify ways of rethinking IR Further it aims to add to critical theory broadening the knowledge about previously unrecognized perspectives in an accessible manner Being aware of preoccupations with the de queering disciplining nature of theory establishment in the social sciences we critically reconsider IR concepts from a particular LGBTQ vantage point and infuse them with queer thinking Considering the relative dearth of contemporary mainstream IR theorizing authors ask what contribution LGBTQ politics can provide for conceiving the political subject as well as the international structure in which activism is embedded This book will be of interest to students and scholars of gender politics cultural studies and international relations theory

Contentious Belonging Greg Fealy, Ronit Ricci, 2019-05-27 Contention has surrounded the status of minorities throughout Indonesian history Two broad polarities are evident one inclusive of minorities regarding them as part of the nation s rich complexity and a manifestation of its Unity in Diversity motto the other exclusive viewing with suspicion or disdain those communities or groups that differ from the perceived majority State and community attitudes towards minorities have fluctuated over time Some periods have been notable for the acceptance of minorities and protection of their rights while others have been marked by anti minority discrimination marginalisation and sometimes violence This book explores the complex historical and contemporary dimensions of Indonesia s religious ethnic LGBT and disability minorities from a range of perspectives including historical legal political cultural discursive and social It addresses fundamental questions about Indonesia s tolerance and acceptance of difference and examines the extent to which diversity is embraced or suppressed

Sexuality, Gender and Power Anna G. Jónasdóttir, Valerie Bryson, Kathleen B. Jones, 2011 Including studies of the sexual self and sexual subjectivities socio political processes of normativization and social structures of sexuality and gender in national and transnational contexts this book offers a view of sexuality as a broad and complex dimension of historically changing social cultural and human material reality EBL

Politics of Knowledge Saw Swee-Hock, 2003-08-01 The publication of this book comprising chapters written by distinguished scholars is a timely recognition that these days we are bombarded by suggestions that knowledge is power that we are operating in a knowledge economy and that the greatest driver for financial growth and national development is the knowledge industry There are more sources of knowledge available to a wider range of the world s population than ever before The Internet has made the dissemination of knowledge possible in ways not contemplated fifty years ago National boundaries are crossed with consummate ease Knowledge is not like other assets It can be accessed rapidly and used by thousands often millions of people This makes knowledge as an asset that generated much of the wealth in the early development of most nations And different countries and regions need different strategies to support and promote the growth of their knowledge economies These call for nationally and regionally based approaches and they entail new dynamics and challenges in wealth creation legal regulation national and social organization and the protection of environmental and natural resources Post-Tsunami Reconstruction in Indonesia Marjaana

Jauhola,2013-06-26 This book offers a critical analysis of gender mainstreaming initiatives in the post tsunami context in Indonesia Aiming to challenge the terms of the debate in gender mainstreaming and disaster reconstruction efforts Jauhola offers an important contribution for the discussion of what feminisms and disasters could be The work provides an in depth analysis of three governmental practices of gender mainstreaming the use of the concept pair sex gender the use of gender analysis and the use of project management tools and local subversion that challenges the potential normative violence of gender mainstreaming Providing feminist intersectional reading of gender mainstreaming the book aims to illustrate that this framework does not lack political alternatives but rather it offers an alternative focus for feminism and for the re conceptualisation of political and provides tools for practitioners of aid aiming to come to grips with the complexity of gender equality policy agenda and its potential violent social consequences in global politics Drawing on extensive field research in Aceh this text is one of the first book length studies and thus provides a significant addition to Indonesian literatures on intersectional analysis of gender religion heteronormativity and feminist subversive practice It is a vital resource for those interested in understanding global interconnections of localised disaster and conflict reconstruction New Intimacies, Old

Desires Oishik Sircar,Dipika Jain,2017-06-21 In the last 15 years queer movements in many parts of the world have helped secure the rights of queer people These moments have been accompanied by the brutal rise of crony capitalism the violent consequences of the war on terror the hyper juridification of politics the financialization managerialization of social movements and the medicalization of non heteronormative identities practices How do we critically read the celebratory global proliferation of queer rights in these neoliberal times This volume responds to the complicated moment in the history of queer struggles by analysing laws state policies and cultures of activism to show how new intimacies between queer sexuality and neoliberalism that celebrate modernity and the birth of the liberated sexual citizen are in fact reproducing the old colonial desire of civilizing the native By paying particular attention to the problematics of race religion and class this volume engages in a rigorous self reflexive critique of global queer politics and its engagements confrontations and negotiations with modernity and its investments in liberalism legalism and militarism with the objective of queering the ethics of our queer politics Published by Zubaan Name, Shame and Blame Christine Stewart,2014-12-02 Papua New Guinea is one of the many former British Commonwealth colonies which maintain the criminalisation of the sexual activities of two groups despite the fact that the sex takes place between consenting adults in private sellers of sex and males who have sex with males The English common law system was imposed on the colonies with little regard for the social regulation and belief systems of the colonised and in most instances was retained and developed post Independence regardless of the infringements of human rights involved Now the HIV pandemic has thrown a spotlight not altogether welcome on the sexual activities of these two groups In Papua New Guinea a growing body of behavioural research has focused on such matters as individual sexual partnering condom use and awareness of HIV My work however has a different purpose I chose the terms in the title to highlight a nexus which I believe exists between the criminal law and negative attitudes of society At an international level the argument has been put that decriminalising sex work and sodomy will facilitate HIV epidemic management reducing the stigma and discrimination these groups encounter and making them easier to reach I undertook my research therefore with the aim of gaining deeper understanding of the effects the current situation of criminalisation might have on the social lives of these criminalised people today in the country generally and in Port Moresby the capital in particular and whether these effects might provide evidence to support the argument for law reform This is a rich and well researched study of the legal social and moral issues surrounding the criminalisation of two forms of consensual sex A very impressive piece of work it is extensively documented relies on a wide range of material and makes a clear and coherent argument about the place of law in producing identities and exclusions The attention to change over time and the complexity of the ways in which sexual behaviour is enacted and punished is a particular strength of the book Professor Sally Engle Merry Anthropology Law and Society New York University This book is an exceptional contribution to our knowledge of the nexus between the criminal law and negative attitudes of society and what effects criminalization has on the social lives of prostitutes and males who have sex with males and whether these effects might provide evidence to support the argument for law reform The author s experience of Papua New Guinea allows her to comment in depth on such matters as the United Nations human rights approach to the HIV epidemic and their call to decriminalize all sexual acts between consenting adults She shows that criminal laws with the help of the normative discourse of religion and media underpin and legitimize high levels of stigma discrimination and abuse of prostitutes and males who have sex with males The quality of the writing and general presentation are exceptional Laura Zimmer Tamakoshi Truman State University retired

Gender and Power in Early Childhood Education in Indonesia Vina Adriany, 2024-08-01 Adriany explores gender discourses in early childhood education in Indonesia as well as how teachers and children are engaged in the process of constructing negotiating and resisting dominant gender discourses in kindergartens Using an ethnographic approach Adriany explores how both the teachers and children are doing and undoing their gender She adopts feminist poststructuralist and postcolonial theories through her research and in that context views gender as something fluid and unfixed The book also investigates the methodological aspect where the authors have both an inside and outside perspective Each chapter aims to present and complicate the taken for granted practices in kindergartens that relate to how gender and power are constructed The findings of this book show the extent to which early childhood education becomes a space for the teachers and children to construct negotiate as well as resist dominant gender discourses in kindergartens Offering insights into local and global contexts that shape gender values in early years this book will be a valuable reference for researchers scholars and students in early childhood education gender studies and comparative education Marriage, Gender and Islam in Indonesia Maria Platt, 2017-05-12 Marriage is central to Indonesia's social fabric and critical in defining socially legitimate relationships This book offers a rich anthropological account of Muslim Indonesian women's experiences of courtship love marital discord and separation polygamy divorce and remarriage By applying a new approach to theorising marital experiences as playing out across a dynamic marital continuum it expands static and dichotomous understandings of marriage and divorce It offers new insights on how local modalities of Islam shape gender relations and are actively negotiated by women in pursuing their marital desires The book draws upon ethnographic case studies from the eastern Indonesian island of Lombok where early marriage divorce and remarriage are common place for Muslim women In this context up to 70 per cent of marriages are legitimated through Islamic ceremonies and remain unregistered with the state While these unregistered marriages are legally valid within the communities in which they occur such unions exclude women from accessing the marital rights theoretically enshrined in Indonesian marriage law A key contribution of this book lies in its exploration of legal plurality in relation to Indonesian marriage which involves investigating the salience of Islamic law local customary law and state law for women's varied marital trajectories The Made-Up State Benjamin Hegarty, 2022-12-15 In The Made Up State Benjamin Hegarty contends that waria who compose one of Indonesia's trans feminine populations have cultivated a distinctive way of captivating the affective material and spatial experiences of belonging to a modern public sphere Combining historical and ethnographic research Hegarty traces the participation of waria in visual and bodily technologies ranging from psychiatry and medical transsexuality to photography and feminine beauty The concept of development deployed by the modern Indonesian state relies on naturalizing the binary of male and female As historical brokers between gender as a technological system of classifying human difference and state citizenship waria shaped the contours of modern selfhood even while being positioned as nonconforming within it The Made Up State illuminates waria as part of the social and technological format of state rule which has given rise to new possibilities for seeing and being seen as a citizen in postcolonial Indonesia The Islamist Threat in Southeast Asia John Thayer Sidel, 2007 In recent years a steady stream of reportage and commentary has spotlighted a dangerous Islamist threat in Southeast Asia This study by contrast offers a very different account In descriptive terms this study suggests that such an alarmist picture is highly overdrawn and it traces instead a pattern of marked decline demobilization and disentanglement from state power in recent years for Islamist forces in Southeast Asia This trend is evident both in the disappointments experienced in recent years by previously ascendant Islamist forces in Indonesia and Malaysia and in the diminished position of Muslim power brokers in southern Thailand and the Philippines after more than a decade of cooperation with non Muslim politicians in Manila and Bangkok In explanatory terms moreover this study shows the significance of social and political context A fuller appreciation of aggression by anti Islamists and non Muslims and of the insecurity weakness and fractiousness of Islamist forces themselves helps to explain the nature extent and limitations of Islamist violence aggression and assertiveness This overarching alternative framework not only provides a very different explanation for the Islamist threat in Southeast Asia but also suggests very different policy implications from those offered by specialists on terrorism working on the region
