

WHAT IS VOLUNTARY HEALTH AGENCY?

- Any nonprofit, nongovernmental agency, governed by lay or professional individuals and organized on a national, state, or local level, whose primary purpose is health related.
- This term applies to agencies supported mainly by voluntary public contributions.
- These agencies are usually engaged in programs of service, education, and research related to a particular disability or group of diseases and disabilities.
- The term can also be applied to such agencies as nonprofit hospitals, visiting nurse associations, and other local service organizations that have both lay and professional governing boards and are supported by both voluntary contributions and charges and fees for service provided.
