The Geography Of Desire:

The Geography of Desire Robert Boswell, 1989 Geography of Desire Robert Boswell, 1990-11-01 Geography of Desire Random House, 1997-05-01 Poetic Castles in Spain Diego Saglia, 2021-12-28 British culture of the Romantic period is distinguished by a protracted and varied interest in things Spanish The climax in the publication of fictional and especially poetical narratives on Spain corresponds with the intense phase of Anglo Iberian exchanges delimited by the Peninsular War 1808 14 on the one hand and the Spanish experiment of a constitutional monarchy that lasted from 1820 until 1823 on the other Although current scholarship has uncovered and reconstructed several foreign maps of British Romanticism from the Orient to the South Seas exotic European geographies have not received much attention Spain in particular is one of the most neglected of these imaginary Romantic geographies even if between the 1800s and the 1820s and beyond it was a site of wars and invasions the object of foreign economic interests relating to its American colonies and a geopolitical area crucial to the European balance designed by the post Waterloo Vienna settlement This study considers the various ways in which Spain figured in Romantic narrative verse recovering the discursive materials employed in fictional representation and assessing the relevance of this activity in the context of the dominant themes and preoccupations in contemporary British culture The texts examined here include medievalizing and chivalric fictions Orientalist adventures set in Islamic Granada and modern day tales of the anti Napoleonic campaign in the Peninsula Recovering some of the outstanding works and issues elaborated by British Romanticism through the cultural geography of Spain this study shows that the Iberian country was an inexhaustible source of imaginative materials for British culture at a time when its imperial boundaries were expanding and its geopolitical influence was increasing in Europe and overseas Becoming of the Body Amaleena Damle, 2014-04-09 No detailed description available for The Becoming of the Body The Art of City Making Charles Landry, 2012-05-16 City making is an art not a formula The skills required to re enchant the city are far wider than the conventional ones like architecture engineering and land use planning There is no simplistic ten point plan but strong principles can help send good city making on its way The vision for 21st century cities must be to be the most imaginative cities for the world rather than in the world This one change of word from in to for gives city making an ethical foundation and value base It helps cities become places of solidarity where the relations between the individual the group outsiders to the city and the planet are in better alignment Following the widespread success of The Creative City this new book aided by international case studies explains how to reassess urban potential so that cities can strengthen their identity and adapt to the changing global terms of trade and mass migration It explores the deeper fault lines paradoxes and strategic dilemmas that make creating the good city so difficult Learning Desire Sharon Todd, 2013-10-31 What role can desire play in pedagogical interaction In Learning Desire contributors from the fields of education cultural studies psychoanalysis and literary theory explore the many ways desire intersects with knowledge recognition fantasy and embodiment and what this can mean for transformative pedagogical practice While acknowledging the productive and destructive force desire can have on the learning experience the authors offer engaging innovative modes of thinking about teaching and thinking about desire as an education tool This volume rooted in theory is one also geared towards practice in taking a fresh look at the limits and possibilities of a transformative pedagogy it will also give teachers and students new languages for articulating their experiences in the classroom and beyond The Plausible World B. Westphal,2016-04-30 In The Plausible World the intersections of literature and cartography enable readers to understand that place is anything but purely geographic a plausible world is created as a strategy to fill the void Innovative in his approach Westphal challenges the view that perceptions and representations of space are stable or straightforward The Geography of Desire David Jenkins,1992 your contentment desire hostility sluggishness worry and doubt and how you can take your first steps to overcoming them Combining traditional wisdom with contemporary psychology and using examples from his psychotherapy practice Abblett uses the hurdles as a frame for engaging you in a process of contemplating your own life and learning to lean into your experience rather than merely repeating bad habits By doing this you can break free from the hurdles and live more mindfully effectively and compassionately Space and Place in Children's Literature, 1789 to the Present Asst Prof Maria Sachiko Cecire, Dr Hannah Field, Dr Kavita Mudan Finn, Dr Malini Roy, 2015-03-28 Focusing on questions of space and locale in children's literature this collection explores how metaphorical and physical space can create landscapes of power knowledge and identity in texts from the early nineteenth century to the present The contributors who include Philip Pullman discussing his relationship to space and locale analyze works from a range of sources and traditions by Sylvia Plath Gloria Anzald a Jenny Robson C S Lewis and Elizabeth Knox among others Boys Abducted Abdulhamit Arvas, 2025-03-14 In Boys Abducted Abdulhamit Arvas explores the history of abducted boys in English and Ottoman literary and visual culture to examine the relationships between homoeroticism race and empire in the early modern period The popular literary trope of the abducted beautiful boy often eroticized as an exotic object of desire intersects with the historical phenomenon of vulnerable youths who were captured and exchanged within the global traffic in bodies Arvas offers a queer historicist analysis of a wide array of Ottoman and English texts and genres ranging from poetry drama and travelogue to chronicles maps and visual arts He shows how the boy in these representations crosses boundaries between nations and empires embodying the tensions and dissonances between the aestheticized eroticism of literary and cultural representations and the violent history of abductions conversions and enslavements In so doing Arvas presents complex parallels and connections between the two societies highlighting the circulation of sexual and racial discourses in imperial imaginings to uncover discursive formations and formulations of sexuality race and empire Bulletin .1914 The Quarterly Journal of Education Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge (Great Britain), 1832 The Quarterly Journal of Education ,1832
