The German Presence In Queensland Over The Last 150 Years:

Our Multicultural Heritage, 1788-1945 National Library of Australia, 1995 Remembering German-Australian Colonial Entanglements Lars Eckstein, Andrew Wright Hurley, 2020-05-21 Remembering German Australian Colonial Entanglements emphatically promotes a critical and nuanced understanding of the complex entanglement of German colonial actors and activities within Australian colonial institutions and different imperial ideologies Case studies ranging from the German reception of James Cook's voyages through to the legacies of 19th and 20th century settler colonialism foreground the highly ambiguous roles played by explorers missionaries intellectuals and other individuals as well as by objects and things that travelled between worlds ancestral human remains rare animal skins songs and even military tanks The chapters foreground the complex relationship between science religion art and exploitation displacement and annihilation Contributors trace how these entanglements have been commemorated or forgotten over time by Germans settler Australians and Indigenous people Bringing to light a critical understanding of the German involvement in the Australian colonial project Remembering German Australian Colonial Entanglements will be of great interest to scholars of colonialism postcolonialism German Studies and Indigenous Studies But for the editors substantial new introductory chapter these contributions originally appeared in a special issue of Postcolonial Studies

Karl Langer, 2021-12-30 Despite a European training and an early career working with Peter Behrens a migration from Vienna to the Australian state of Queensland positioned the architect Karl Langer 1903-1969 at the very edge of both European and Australian modernism Confronted by tropical heat and glare the economics of affordable housing fiercely proud and regional architectural practices and a suspicion of the foreign Langer moulded the European language of international modernism to the unique climatic and social conditions of tropical Australia This book will tell Langer's story through a series of edited essays focused on key themes and projects Published as part of the Bloomsbury Studies in Modern Architecture series which brings to light the work of significant yet overlooked modernist architects it is both an examination of an architect's work and international legacy and also a case study in the trans global dissemination of design ideas Studying the architect's built and proposed work both regional and metropolitan the scale and reach of Langer's practice will be considered for the first time showing how given his continued influence on the contemporary culture of tropical design Langer has been unjustly ignored by the historiography of both Australian and Modernist architecture to date

Muslims In Australia Nahid Kabir, 2013-01-11 Muslims in Australia investigates the basis of Australian society's fear of Muslims by tracing their history since the Afghan settlement in 1860 The author investigates how events such as September 11 and Bali terrorist attacks reinforce suspicion and fear giving an insight into what it means to be a Muslim in contemporary Australia and how the actions of militant Islamic groups have impacted upon Muslims in general in Western society

An Environmental History of Australian Rainforests until 1939 Warwick Frost, 2020-06-10 This book provides a comprehensive environmental history of how Australia's rainforests developed the influence of Aborigines and pioneers farmers and loggers and of efforts to protect rainforests to help us better understand current issues and debates surrounding their conservation and use While interest in rainforests and the movement for their conservation are often mistakenly portrayed as features of the last few decades the debate over human usage of rainforests stretches well back into the nineteenth century In the modern world rainforests are generally considered the most attractive of the ecosystems being seen as lush vibrant immense mysterious spiritual and romantic Rainforests hold a special place both providing a direct link to Gondwanaland and the dinosaurs and today being the home of endangered species and highly rich in biodiversity They are also a critical part of Australia s heritage Indeed large areas of Australian rainforests are now covered by World Heritage Listing However they also represent a dissonant heritage What exactly constitutes rainforest how it should be managed and used and how much should be protected are all issues which remain hotly contested Debates around rainforests are particularly dominated by the contradiction of competing views and uses seeing rainforests either as untapped resources for agriculture and forestry versus valuing and preserving them as attractive and sublime natural wonders Australia fits into this global story as a prime example but is also of interest for its aspects that are exceptional including the intensity of clearing at certain periods and for its place in the early development of national parks This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of Environmental History Australian History and Comparative History

Environmental History and Ecology of Moreton Bay Daryl McPhee, 2017-08-01 The south east Queensland region is currently experiencing the most rapid urbanisation in Australia This growth in human population industry and infrastructure puts pressure on the unique and diverse natural environment of Moreton Bay Much loved by locals and holiday goers Moreton Bay is also an important biogeographic region because its coral reefs seagrass beds mangroves and saltmarshes provide a supportive environment for both tropical and temperate species The bay supports a large number of species of global conservation significance including marine turtles dugongs dolphins whales and migratory shorebirds which use the area for feeding or breeding Environmental History and Ecology of Moreton Bay provides an interdisciplinary examination of Moreton Bay increasing understanding of existing and emerging pressures on the region and how these may be mitigated and managed With chapters on the bay s human uses by Aboriginal peoples and later settlers its geology water quality marine habitats and animal communities and commercial and recreational fisheries this book will be of value to students in the marine sciences environmental consultants policy makers and recreational fishers

Queensland Lords Janet Spillman, 2015-09-10 Edward and Eliza Lord came to Moreton Bay in 1844 arriving as the remote convict outpost was opened up for free settlement Members of Lancashire merchant families they had invested their inheritances in NSW lands and a Sydney merchant firm just before the drought and crash of 1841 They moved north to rebuild their fortunes settling at Kangaroo Point before moving to the Darling Downs to start new commercial interests Although financial success continued to elude them the Lord family contributed to the settlement of colonial Queensland Edward and Eliza s great great grand daughter Janet Spillman explores the way Queensland moulded the Lord family's lives and the way family members contributed to the colony's development Ludwig Leichhardt's Ghosts Andrew Wright Hurley, 2018 A fascinating cultural studies account of the afterlife of Leichhardt revealing both German entanglement in British colonialism in Australia and in a broader sense what happens when we maintain an open stance to the ghosts of the past Architecture in Brisbane Graham De Gruchy, 1988 This is a reprint of the edition which was first printed in 1988 Fighting Words Raymond Evans, 1999 With an open heart and inquiring intellect Raymond Evans sets out to uncover a past not studied in the school books of his youth Growing up in the 1950s he lived in a community devoid of Aboriginal presence It was an enclave of Welsh migrant families with all the rituals and traditions of a faraway Home His evolving historical consciousness was fired by the need to connect with these shadowy absences and to engage with his adopted homeland Interwoven with his personal journey is a revealing selection of race relations histories which cover a wide arena from the Aboriginal European conflicts of colonial Queensland to the anti Chinese riots of 1888 and civilian internment during World War I Evans also moves beyond frontier conflict into the long period of repressive government control of Aboriginal lives In writing on race gender and labour relations he illustrates how selective history can be by omitting the contribution of Aboriginal labourers men and women These form a critical bridge to understanding the complexities of race relations today German-Australian Cultural Relations Since 1945 Manfred Jurgensen, 1995 These essays and papers constitute a first comprehensive and authoritative stock taking of German Australian relations since the end of the Second World War Studies by scholars diplomats artists and public servants address themselves to a wide range of subjects including German Australian Political Relations Foreign Policy Perspectives on the Australia Germany Partnership German Migration to Australia German born Artists and Academics on the Fifth Continent The Reception of Aboriginal Art in Germany German Australian Academic Relations Comparisons of the Political Economies of Germany and Australia German Business and Business German in Australia Images of Australia in German Cinema and a Critical Review of the Role and Future of Germanistik at Australian Universities Captured Lives Peter Monteath, 2018-08-01 Captured Lives peers behind the barbed wire drawn around people deemed threats to Australia's security during the two world wars Civilians from enemy nations even if born in Australia were subjects of suspicion and locked away in internment camps Prisoners of war were shipped from the other side of the world and shut away in camps in country Australia No matter how unjust their internment or how severe the privations most internees and POWs worked out ways to relieve their discomfort physical and mental and their boredom Internees devoted their time to creative pursuits like theatre musical ensembles art and photography while others involved themselves in sporting activities gardening or studying Captured Lives mentions over 30 of the main camps that were spread across Australia during the two world wars Included are sketches watercolours and photographs made by internees serve as references of the conditions and life in the camps from an insider's perspective Parliamentary Papers Queensland. Parliament. Legislative Assembly, 1988 Combatting Totalitarianism John A. Moses, 2024-05-16 St Paul the apostle to the gentiles has bequeathed guidelines for both personal and political behavior to individual citizens and to states that have retained their relevance to humanity to this day. However his statement in Romans 13 that the powers that be are ordained of God has been interpreted in conflicting ways especially since the time of Martin Luther in sixteenth century Germany. Luther's occasional insistence that the ruler had to be obeyed unquestionably led to a political culture in Prussia Germany that was systematized by the philosopher G W F Hegel 1770 1831. His teachings gave rise to the disastrous ultra authoritarian regimes of both Marxist Leninism left wing Hegelianism and National Socialism right wing Hegelianism. The author of this book being equipped with a long training in Prusso German history has explained how this happened and why both Imperial Germany and the Nazi Third Reich unleashed expansionist wars and justified them with ideologies that were both hostile to Western European and transatlantic democratic parliamentary values. The author's familiarity with the contemporary history of both the liberal parliamentary West Germany and the authoritarian communist East Germany has enabled him to portray the internecine German debate that was largely influenced by the remarkable ministry of the martyred Lutheran pastor Dietrich Bonhoeffer.

The Fifth Column in World War II Robert Loeffel, 2015-07-21 Alarming levels of fear and suspicion developed in Australia following the German victories in Europe of 1940. It was believed the Nazis had prepared an army of subversives a Fifth Column to undermine the war effort. These suspicions plagued the Australian home front for much of the war.

Russia and the Fifth Continent John McNair, Thomas Ray Poole, 1992

Currency Companion to Music and Dance in Australia John Whiteoak, 2003 This publication is unique in its comprehensiveness and recognition of cultural diversity and a broad notion of community. The ALS Guide to Australian Writers Martin Duwell, Laurie Hergenhan, 1992 Alphabetically organised chronological listing of the primary works of each author as well as selected critical biographical and historical articles and reviews and interviews. Material is drawn from the series Annual Bibliographies of Studies in Australian Literature published in Australian Literary Studies between 1964 and 1991.

German Images in Australian Literature from the 1940s to the 1980s Irmtraud Petersson, 1990 This cross cultural study examines German Australian relations by tracing patterns of representation in Australian writing. The imagological approach enables comparisons to be made among a wide range of texts and of authors as diverse as Martin Boyd Dymphna Cusack Thomas Keneally David Martin E O Schlunke Patrick White. The most common German images and stereotypes found are those associated with rural environment and romantic imagination on the one hand and with savagery and barbarity represented by Nazism on the other. The significance of such images often links up with Australian perception of the Old World and its cultural legacy thus being part of the process of Australian self definition and self understanding.
