Cabell,2013-08-05 James Herbert reigned supreme as Britain's undisputed master of horror before his death in March 2013. But his legacy lives on in this fully authorised work. Craig Cabell examines the story behind horror writing's most darkly brilliant mind. For almost 40 years Herbert was Britain's most popular horror author. With sales of over 50 million copies he carved a niche in quality bestselling fiction all of his own. Famous for his Rats trilogy and The Fog he broke away from the cut and thrust populist horror novels of the 1970s and 80s to more thought provoking works featuring the scientific reasoning behind the manifestations of the ghosts and spirits in which he truly believed. Books such as Others Once and The Secret of Crickley Hall bear testament to his growth as a writer and his continuing desire to chill his readers. Craig Cabell's exploration into the dark sinister world of James Herbert is given incredible depth thanks to a series of over a dozen exclusive candid interviews. Drawing striking parallels between Herbert's career and the events of his life this work sheds light on the personal demons which drove the boy from London's East End to become the pre eminent horror writer of his generation. Cabell a friend and confidant of Herbert's until the very end shares personal correspondence and reminiscences including one of Herbert's previously unpublished pieces entitled To Ye All to complete a portrait of one of the most iconic authors of the 20th Century. Prepare to be gripped by the utterly absorbing last chapter in the life of the Master of Chills The Magic Cottage James Herbert,2011-05-11 Step inside The Magic Cottage another chilling classic from the Master of Horror James Herbert. A cottage was found in the heart of the forest. It was charming maybe a little run down but so peaceful a magical haven for creativity and love. But the cottage had an alternative side the bad magic. What happened there was horrendous beyond belief Knowledges in Publics Lorraine Locke,Simon Locke,2013-10-30 This book presents a series of cutting edge research studies in the field of public understanding of science with particular focus on aspects of informal science education. In addition to providing up to date overviews of current thinking about how best to conceptualise the field it offers a range of primary research studies examining informal public venues of science and mediations of scientific knowledge and representation. With contributions from some leading international researchers the book provides discussions and case studies addressing the USA UK and Europe Africa and India offering insight and assessment of key issues on a global footing. Challenging extant notions of science public relations in terms of deficiency engagement and knowledge transfer the book taken as a whole argues for approaches that take seriously the multiplicity of publics and that recognise the centrality of social relations and social contexts to forms of knowledge and ways of knowing The Best New Horror 6 Stephen Jones,2013-11-28 The Best New Horror has established itself as the world's premier annual showcasing the talents of the very best writers working in the horror and dark fantasy field today.
