Musical Theatre Theatre Studies Dance and Cultural History They Made Us Happy Andy Propst, 2019-02-01 Betty Comden and Adolph Green were the writers behind such classic stage musicals as On the Town Wonderful Town and Bells Are Ringing and they provided lyrics for such standards as New York New York Just in Time The Party's Over and Make Someone Happy to name just a few. This remarkable duo, the longest running partnership in theatrical history, also penned the screenplays for such cinematic gems as Singin' in the Rain and The Band Wagon. In the process, they worked with such artists as Leonard Bernstein, Gene Kelly, Fred Astaire, Judy Holliday, and Jule Styne. They Made Us Happy is the first book to tell the full story of their careers, lives, and work, starting with their acclaimed appearances as part of the sketch troupe the Revuers and moving through their bi-coastal lives as a pair of Broadway's top writers and two of Hollywood's most valued scribes. The book takes readers on a trip through almost the entirety of the twentieth century, and along the way, there are appearances by the likes of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis, Greta Garbo, and Charlie Chaplin. Author Andy Propst brings both their produced work to life, as well as many of the projects that never made it to the stage or the screen, including an aborted musical version of Thornton Wilder's The Skin of Our Teeth, a bio-pic about director-choreographer Busby Berkeley, and their version of Cole Porter's musical Out of This World. Comden and Green's wit and deft satire inspired laughs during their lives, and their musicals and movies have endured, amusing generation after generation. It's work that will always be making audiences happy. The Star Machine Jeanine Basinger, 2009-01-06 ONE OF THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER'S 100

GREATEST FILM BOOKS OF ALL TIME From one of our most distinguished film scholars comes a rich, penetrating, amusing book about the golden age of movies and how the studios worked to manufacture stars. With revelatory insights and delightful asides, Jeanine Basinger shows us how the studio star machine worked when it worked, how it failed when it didn't, and how irrelevant it could sometimes be. She gives us case studies focusing on big stars groomed into the system: the awesomely beautiful and disillusioned Tyrone Power, the seductive disobedient Lana Turner, and a dazzling cast of others. She anatomizes their careers, showing how their fame happened and what happened to them as a result. Deeply engrossing, full of energy, wit, and wisdom, The Star Machine is destined to become a classic of the film canon. Adventures in Theater History:
