The Globe and Mail Report on Business, Canada Company Handbook ,1996 The Cultural Industries in Canada Michael Dorland, 1996 Contents Part I Print Industries Book Publishing Rowland Lorimer Periodical Publishing Lon Dubinsky Newspaper Publishing Christopher Dornan Part II Sound Industries Sound Recording The Myth of the Good Corporate Citizen Murray Dobbin, 2003-04 This book is a classic for anyone who wants to understand the forces of globalization and their impact on the economy on politics and on social life with a Canadian orientation International Handbook of Educational Change Andy Hargreaves, A. Lieberman, M. Fullan, D.W. Hopkins, 1998-05-31 The International Handbook of Educational Change is a state of the art collection of the most important ideas and evidence of educational change The book brings together some of the most influential thinkers and writers on educational change It deals with issues like educational innovation reform restructuring culture building inspection school review and change management It asks why some people resist change and what their resistance means It looks at how men and women older teachers and younger teachers experience change differently It looks at the positive aspects of change but does not hesitate to raise uncomfortable questions about many aspects of educational change either It looks critically and controversially at the social economic cultural and political forces that are driving educational change School leaders system administration teacher leaders consultants facilitators educational researchers staff developers and change agents of all kinds will find this book an indispensable resource for guiding them to both classic and cutting edge understandings of educational change no other work provides as comprehensive coverage of the field of educational change The Canadian Family in Crisis John F. Conway, 2003-08 In this book sociology professor John F Conway looks at families past present and future and examines the changing nature of family Figures from the first decade of the new milennium tell us that one marriage in two may well end in divorce Conway considers the implications of divorce the impact of social changes on men women and children and suggests how these issues might be better addressed through family policy The new edition addresses the harsh new reality facing Canadian families especially those most vulnerable as a result of the crisis of the family The Canadian Family in Crisis is the first book to examine the drastic changes in the Canadian family over the last thirty years Management Crisis and Business Revolution John Harte, 2017-07-05 Management Crisis and Business Revolution describes the enormous gap between business theories on the one hand and the realities of the workplace and uncertainties of the marketplace on the other In place of reasoned management and disciplined organization John Harte depicts daily disorder vagueness and confusion instead of the logical processes of classroom case histories with rational solutions He provides tales of an abundance of irrational judgments personal foibles and business follies Once a top operational manager with multinational organizations Harte applies his hands on knowledge of the business world to a realistic examination of workplace conditions He describes methodically how to handle human limitations in the average business enterprise as well as how to develop

management strengths. The author observed superior and inferior management firsthand and therefore witnessed the painful demise of many companies some of which in his opinion could have been saved With thirty years experience to draw on he analyzes why so many businesses and products fail while others succeed He examines the amazing progress of Japan and other Pacific Asian countries explains the decline of German Canadian British and French management practices and provides strategies for the marketplace The business sectors described in this all encompassing book include high technology fast moving packaged consumer goods like detergents manufacturing and retailing consumer durables like furniture and appliances soft goods fashion products service sector industries manufacturing wholesaling and retail trade and a whole range of new service industries Harte stresses that while management and trade are timeless dedication in the West has declined The challenge is how to manage change by innovating and replacing senile customs systems and institutions with more progressive ones suited to the new business environment This unusually tough The Pursuit of Division Martin Loney, 1998 The topic of equity policies and identity politics in Canada is at the forefront of public and media discussion and Martin Loney adds fuel to the fire In The Pursuit of Division he provides a provocative critique of recent government policies with respect to race gender and preferential hiring exposing the suspect methods of so called progressive thinkers in their pursuit of the politics of difference Propaganda and the Ethics of Persuasion Randal Marlin, 2002-08-02 This book aims to develop a sophisticated understanding of propaganda It begins with a brief history of early Western propaganda including Ancient Greek classical theories of rhetoric and the art of persuasion and traces its development through the Christian era the rise of the nation state World War I Nazism and Communism The core of the book examines the ethical implications of various forms of persuasion not only hate propaganda but also insidious elements of more generally acceptable communication such as advertising public relations and government information setting these in the context of freedom of expression Propaganda and the Ethics of Persuasion examines the art of persuasion but it also hopes to establish a self defense resistance to propaganda As Jacques Ellul warned in 1980 any new technology enters into an already existing class system and can be expected to develop in a way favourable to the dominant interests of that system The merger of AOL and Time Warner confirms the likelihood of corporate interests dominating the future of the Internet but the Internet has also opened up new possibilities for a politically effective counter culture as was demonstrated at the meeting of the World Trade Organization in Seattle in late 1999 and numerous similar gatherings since Whose Canada? Environmental Regulations and Corporate Strategy Alan M. Rugman, John J. Kirton, Julie A. Soloway, 1999 International agreements and environmental regulations are important constraints in today s business context By analyzing development and case studies within NAFTA North American Free Trade Agreement the authors demonstrate how firms can develop strategies which utilize international trade and environment regimes to open up international markets

Concentrated Corporate Ownership Randall K. Morck, 2007-12-01 Standard economic models assume that many small investors own firms This is so in most large U S firms but wealthy individuals or families generally hold controlling blocks in smaller U S firms and in all firms in most other countries Given this the lack of theoretical and empirical work on tightly held firms is surprising What corporate governance problems arise in tightly held firms How do these differ from corporate governance problems in widely held firms How do control blocks arise and how are they maintained How does concentrated ownership affect economic growth How should we regulate tightly held firms Drawing together leading scholars from law economics and finance this volume examines the economic and legal issues of concentrated ownership and their impact on a Universities for Sale Neil Tudiver, Canadian Association of University Teachers, 1999 In the shifting global economy 1990s Canadian universities experienced an aggressive campaign of corporatization Universities for Sale offers suggestions on how to resist corporatization Neil Tudiver shows how scholarly independence has in recent years been eroded to a point of crisis Left unchecked corporations play a larger and larger role in deciding which fields of study survive and which will disappear He looks at how professors defend free inquiry against the pressures of economic expediency Universities for Sale is a penetrating analysis of the ongoing issue of corporate influence on Canada's universities Who's Who of Canadian Women, 1999-2000 Gillian Holmes, 1999-06-01 Who s Who of Canadian Women is a guide to the most powerfuland innovative women in Canada Celebrating the talents and achievement of over 3 700 women Who s Who of Canadian Women includes women from all over Canada in all fields including agriculture academia law business politics journalism religion sports and entertainment Each biography includes such information as personal data education career history current employment affiliations interests and honours A special comment section reveals personal thoughts goals and achievements of the profiled individual Entries are indexed by employment of affilitation for easy reference Published every two years Who of Canadian Women selects its biographees on merit alone This collection is an essential resource for all those interested in the achievements of Canadian women The Making of the Mosaic Ninette Kelley, M. Trebilcock, 2010-10-02 Immigration policy is a subject of intense political and public debate In this second edition of the widely recognized and authoritative work The Making of the Mosaic Ninette Kelley and Michael Trebilcock have thoroughly revised and updated their examination of the ideas interests institutions and rhetoric that have shaped Canada's immigration history Beginning their study in the pre

Confederation period the authors interpret major episodes in the evolution of Canadian immigration policy including the massive deportations of the First World War and Depression eras as well as the Japanese Canadian internment camps during World War Two New chapters provide perspective on immigration in a post 9 11 world where security concerns and a demand for temporary foreign workers play a defining role in immigration policy reform A comprehensive and important work The Making of the Mosaic clarifies the attitudes underlying each phase and juncture of immigration history providing vital perspective on the central issues of immigration policy that continue to confront us today Canadian Welfare State Patricia Marie Evans, Gerda R. Wekerle, 1997-01-01 Explains not only how women are affected by changes in policy and programming but how they can take an active role in shaping these changes International Disputes and Cultural Ideas in the Canadian Arctic Danita Catherine Burke, 2017-08-22 This book explores the Canadian relationship with its portion of the Arctic region which revolves around the dramatic split between the appearance of absent minded governance bordering on indifference toward the region and the raging nationalism during moments of actual and perceived challenge toward the sovereignty of the imagined Canadian Arctic region Canada's nationalistic relationship with the Arctic region is often discussed as a reactionary phenomenon to the Americanization of Canada and the product of government propaganda As this book illustrates however the complexity and evolution of the Canadian relationship with the Arctic region and its implication for Canada's approach toward international relations requires a more in depth exploration Please be aware than an error has been noted for Table 1 1 on page 71 In this table the sub category Inuit is mislabelled It should read Native Indians and Inuit as the data presented represents this Canadian census sub category which calculated all indigenous peoples and Inuit peoples together Perspectives on the New Economics and Regulation of Telecommunications Institute for Research on Public Policy, 1996 This volume is a compilation of papers reflecting many of the issues related to telecommunications that are being debated today and are likely to continue to be addressed in the next few years The papers examine the ways in which economic and technological forces are changing the regulation of telecommunications and the characteristics of the industry itself After an introduction on issues such as the information highway industry consolidation market integration and constraints on new policies the papers cover such topics as the changes in Canadian telecommunications and their economics the role of telecommunications in productivity and competition the business network concept as an alternative governance structure competition policy convergence of technologies separation of infrastructure from services European telecommunications policy and the historical context in which Canada has handled Public Enterprise in an Era of Change University of Regina. earlier transformations of a technological nature Canadian Plains Research Center, 1998 On 6 December 1996 the public consultation committee Talking About Saskatchewan Crowns TASC and the University of Regina held a one day conference to examine the historic role of Saskatchewan Crown corporations and the future of public enterprise in a new world economy. The conference brought together renowned
