

THE GOD EXPERIENCE

These Essays in Hope edited by Joseph P. Whelan, S.J. bring together eleven of today's most provocative theologians and theologians. They examine faith and unbelief inside and outside the Christian community. They explore the religious experience, man's awareness of God, the presence of God but his moral presence, the religious ground, the religious experience, the religious hope. Their quest is interdenominational, interdenominational, interdenominational religious experience and they attempt to put it into words.
