The Goddessjustice:

Evil and the Justice of God N. T. Wright, 2012-01-03 This is a fascinating analysis and response to the fundamental questions that face any believer today Sadly becoming daily more topical this book explores all aspects of evil our contemporary and theological understanding and the ways in which evil presents itself in society today Fully grounded in the bible Evil and the Justice of God is sparkling erudite provocative and particularly relevant in the wake of new global terror attacks Accounts of cruelty death and terrorism hit us every day We are forced to ask fundamental questions about God and the nature of evil which demand a theological resolution that is mature profound and never glib N T Wright explores these pivotal questions with a fresh and engaging approach combining the virtues of detailed scholarship with an accessible style He neither ducks the awkward nor avoids the unpalatable but instead offers a new often surprising perspective in his search for a meaningful response to the problem of evil The Rt Revd Tom Wright Bishop of Durham is that rare breed of teacher who can reach people of all levels of understanding despite working not at the coalface but largely as an academic theologian Daily Telegraph

Living the Justice of the Triune God David N. Power, Michael Downey, 2012-02-01 This groundbreaking book is distinctive for the explicit attention it gives to the communal intersubjective cultural and linguistic embodiment of the workings of God in the world It emphasizes not simply acting justly but living with in and from the justice of the triune God by which we are justified Finally it offers an important sacramental and liturgical grounding to the Christian understanding of both justice and the triune God David N Power and Michael Downey make clear to contemporary believers why a spiritual and sacramental life that is ordered by its trinitarian orientation must include the desire for justice In short it is an ethic of social justice that springs from contemplation of the Divine Trinity in the world

The God of Peace John Dear, 2005-03-08 The God of peace is never glorified by human violence Thomas Merton The God of Peace John Dear's classic theology of nonviolence broke new ground when it was first published as a breakthrough toward a new understanding of scripture theology social concerns and churches issues from the perspective of Gospel nonviolence in the tradition of Mahatma Gandhi Martin Luther King Jr and Dorothy Day This ground breaking study begins not just with the culture of violence but the nonviolence of God and the revolutionary nonviolence of Jesus From the start John Dear explores traditional areas of theology such as Christology Trinitarian Theology anthropology sin redemption theodicy salvation ecclesiology eschatology spirituality liturgy Catholic social teaching the just war theory feminism liberation theology and the consistent ethic of life This text will help university and theology students pursuing the theology and spirituality of nonviolence as well as ordinary Christians and activists interested in the crucial connection between war and violence and God and nonviolence

Resurrecting Justice Douglas Harink, 2020-09-29 Theologian Douglas Harink invites readers to rediscover Romans as a treatise on justice tracing Paul's thinking on this theme through a sequential reading of the book and finding in each passage facets of the gospel's primary claim that God accomplishes justice in the death and resurrection of Jesus Messiah

The Truth of the Gospel

Demonstrated from the Character of God, Manifested in the Atonement. In a Letter to Mr. Richard Carlile ... Second Edition, Much Enlarged Alexander CARSON, 1826 Waiting for God, Justice, and Rush-Hour Traffic Dennis Okholm, 2025-06-12

Patience is an indispensable Christian virtue but is often neglected. Often it is thought to be passive inactivity but nothing could be farther from the truth. Christian patience is creatively active. It has been so in the church's mission in God's response to fallen humanity in the cross-shaped life of those who are waiting for justice and even in the believer's experience of God's silence. Okholm delves into these facets of patience, illustrating them with the experiences of those who have practiced the creative activity of patience and concluding with strategies to cultivate the virtue in our lives. Dialogues on the Ethics of Capital Punishment Dale Jacquette, 2009-02-04 One in the series New Dialogues in Philosophy edited by the author himself, Dale Jacquette presents a fictional dialogue over a three-day period on the ethical complexities of capital punishment. Jacquette moves his readers from outlining basic issues in matters of life and death to questions of justice and compassion with a concluding dialogue on the conditional and unconditional right to life. Jacquette's characters talk plainly and thoughtfully about the death penalty, and readers are left to determine for themselves how best to think about the morality of putting people to death. The Love of God Christopher W. Morgan, 2016-09-30 Our understanding of the love of God has been tragically distorted. The comfortable sentimentalized version we commonly encounter today is far from the biblical depiction of God's love. Featuring contributions from well-known evangelical scholars, this multi-disciplinary study presents the biblical view of the love of God from the perspectives of systematic theology, biblical theology, apologetics, pastoral theology, and ethics. The contributors, including D. A. Carson, Andreas J. K.stenberger, Raymond C. Ortlund Jr, Robert L. Plummer, and many others, address a variety of issues related to how God's love is expressed in the Old and New Testaments, the Trinity, apologetics, Christian living, social justice, and more. This addition to the Theology in Community series will promote clear, sound thinking about what Scripture means when it declares that God is love. Part of the Theology in Community series.

Monotheism, Power, Justice Millard C. Lind, 2015-07-29 Since the mid-sixties, a steady stream of essays and addresses has come from the pen and heart of Millard Lind. Millard began his teaching career at the Associated Mennonite Biblical Seminaries in 1959. During the early years of his teaching, a major portion of Millard's scholarly energies went toward the refinement of his doctoral dissertation in order to be published. Its final form appeared in the Herald Press book Yahweh Is a Warrior. This book represents a landmark in studies on the topic of Yahweh's warfare as presented in the Hebrew Scriptures. It has numerous critical reviews and has generally stood the test of the scholarly picking and pruning. Alongside this major work, Millard has turned out numerous essays, some playing a supportive role to his Yahweh Is a Warrior thesis but many pioneering in new directions as well. As the four divisions in the table of contents indicate, these essays represent work in at least four areas of probing in the Hebrew Scriptures: method, aspects of law, justice and power, war and economics, and worship, mission, and community. This range of investigation and productivity indicates the holistic perspective of Millard's scholarly concern and theological reflection In part it also testifies to Millard s role as a churchman since some of these investigations grew out of specific requests of various groups or congregations to address a particular issue From the Foreword by William Swartley The Two Cities of God Carl E. Braaten,Robert W. Jenson,1997 The chapters of this book offer informed perspectives on a theology of the world exploring the question How does should the church relate to the secular world The standard dogma of the 1960s was Let the world set the agenda Such a perspective has often caused the American church merely to reflect rather than to inform and lead the society in which it lives Surely say the authors of this volume it must be the other way around Contributors Robert Benne Robert W Jenson Carl E Braaten Gilbert Meilaender Christopher R Seitz Anthony Ugolnik George Weigel Robert L Wilken God and Human Responsibility Rufus Burrow,2003 Walker took seriously God s expectation that justice be done in righteous ways and that persons respect the humanity and dignity of self and others fundamental claims of the Hebrew Prophets Justice and Truth Shall Meet Albert Nolan,Mary O'Driscoll,2024-08-01 This is a reprint of book originally published in the 1980s but its message is still as relevant today as it was when it was first published In this book two Dominicans Albert Nolan OP and Mary O Driscoll OP write on biblical and theological themes of justice and truth from a Dominican perspective On truth Mary O Driscoll writes that it is evident that when we look at Dominic or Catherine or any of our great Dominican brothers and sisters all of these responded to truth not merely with their intellects but with their whole beings and that the greatest Dominicans have always been those who have combined the pursuit of speculative truth with that of existential truth who have known how to maintain these two dimensions of the search for truth not in conflict but as complementing one another While on justice Albert Nolan writes that justice is first and foremost an attribute of God God is just not only because God is fair and honest in all of God s dealings with human beings but also because all God s activity is a matter of putting right what is wrong in the world and all God s laws and commandments are simply demanding that justice be done In fact justice is the distinguishing characteristic of the God of the Bible Both authors were vocal critics of the apartheid regime What they wrote in the 1980s regarding race poverty injustice and inequality the fruit of many years of study and theological reflection remains of relevance for today

God, Evidences, and Creation: Who God Is and Reasons for Believing David Pratte,2019-12-25 A study of Bible teaching about the nature of God evidences for God Jesus and the Bible including a careful study of creation vs evolution Topics studied are God s power wisdom love and holiness The providence of God The number of individuals in the Godhead The Deity of Jesus The Holy Spirit and spiritual gifts Fulfilled prophecy miracles and the resurrection The significance of the Bible doctrine of creation The consequences of evolution Humanism compared to the Bible The length of the days of creation

Discovering the God Who Is R. C. Sproul,2008-02-01 The minister gently guided my mother away from the grave to a waiting car I moved behind them in a grim stupor I was confused I was hurt I was angry One question pierced my soul Who are you God And why do you do the things you do Thus began R C Sproul s search for ultimate truth and a personal encounter with the living God In Discovering the God Who Is readers will journey with Sproul to discover for themselves the magnificence of God's character and being his power and personality Sproul asks the questions many of us wonder about God Is the Bible the Word of God What is righteousness What is the difference between a moral and a legal right How does God create something from nothing Does God change his mind Sproul communicates deep truths in a fresh and easy to understand style Join R C Sproul as he shares his passion for God and excites the reader to dig deep and know the God who is alive who is real who relates to each one of us in our lives

Towards a Contextualized Conceptualization of Social Justice for Post-Apartheid Namibia Basilius M. Kasera, 2024-05-31 The search for justice beyond the basic political understanding is profoundly theological and ethical In this work Dr Basilius M Kasera analyses the meaning of justice in post apartheid Namibia from a biblical perspective He argues that notions of justice carry no meaning unless they emanate from the community of the affected Every group of people by virtue of being God's image bearers are able to assess their own context and provide befitting solutions However this kind of agency has not been afforded to the post apartheid Namibian society which continues to operate on borrowed models of justice While extrapolating on Allan Boesak's beneficial theological concepts of justice Dr Kasera encourages theologians and Christians at large to participate in the creation of meaningful effective and transformative policies programmes practices systems and justice institutions

You Shall Not Condemn Jennifer M. McBride, 2022-06-13 This book tells the story of Kelly Gissendaner the only woman on Georgia's death row until her execution in 2015 and highlights the role theological studies played in her faith and in advocacy efforts on her behalf Central to the book is the written correspondence between Kelly and German theologian Jurgen Moltmann known internationally as the theologian of hope After reading Moltmann's work in a course taught by McBride at the prison Kelly began a five year correspondence with him When Kelly was denied clemency a local and international advocacy movement arose that was rooted in her theological studies and friendship with him The advocacy campaign challenged Christians who supported the death penalty to re-examine basic truths of Christian faith As it was unfolding the story of Kelly's transformation changed people's minds not only about her case but also about the death penalty itself Weaving together powerful storytelling and theological expertise McBride recounts that story again here with an aim toward abolition and offers practical ways that readers may enter the work

Sinners in the Hands of a Loving God Brian Zahnd, 2017-08-15 Pastor Brian Zahnd began to question the theology of a wrathful God who delights in punishing sinners and has started to explore the real nature of Jesus and His Father The book isn't only an interesting look at the context of some modern theological ideas it's also offers some profound insight into God's love and eternal plan Relevant Magazine Named one of the Top 10 Books of 2017 God is wrath Or God is Love In his famous sermon Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God Puritan revivalist Jonathan Edwards shaped predominating American theology with a vision of God as angry violent and retributive Three centuries later Brian Zahnd was both mesmerized and terrified by Edwards's wrathful God Haunted by fear that crippled his relationship with God Zahnd spent years praying for a divine experience of hell What Zahnd experienced instead was the Father's love revealed perfectly through Jesus Christ for all prodigal sons and daughters In Sinners in the Hands of a Loving God Zahnd asks important questions like Is seeing God primarily as wrathful towards sinners true or biblical Is fearing God a normal expected behavior And where might the natural implications of this theological framework lead us Thoughtfully wrestling with subjects like Old Testament genocide the crucifixion of Jesus eternal punishment in hell and the final judgment in Revelation Zahnd maintains that the summit of divine revelation for sinners is not God's wrath but God is love

Old Testament Ethics for the People of God Christopher J. H. Wright, 2013-01-30 Nothing confuses Christian ethics quite like the Old Testament Christopher Wright examines a theological social and economic framework for Old Testament ethics exploring themes in relation to contemporary issues economics the land and the poor politics and a world of nations law and justice society and culture and the way of the individual

Understanding God's Love Ronald Greib, 1997 Ronald Greib has undertaken a study of how God is misunderstood and misrepresented showing how false ideas of God neutralize His power and authority and lead people into the worship of false deities of their own manufacture
