Clack,2000-08-30 From the Middle Ages to the close of the 17th century alchemy was fundamental to Western culture as scores of experimenters sought to change lead into gold Though its significance declined with the rise of chemistry alchemy continued to captivate the imagination of writers and its images still appear in modern creative works This book examines the literary representation of alchemical theory and the metaphor of alchemical regeneration in the works of Edward Taylor Edgar Allan Poe Nathaniel Hawthorne and Margaret Fuller While Taylor used alchemical metaphors to illustrate the redeeming grace of God upon the soul these same metaphors were used by Poe Hawthorne and Fuller to depict a broader concept of redemption These later writers used alchemical imagery to describe both the regeneration of the individual and the possible transformation of society For Poe alchemy became a metaphor for the transforming power of imagination for Hawthorne it became a means of representing the redeeming power of love for Fuller it figured the reconciliation of gender opposites Thus these four American writers incorporated the idea of regeneration in their works and the tropes and metaphors of the medieval alchemists provided a fascinating way of imagining the transformative process The Golden Earth and Other Folk Tales Michael West,1969 The Golden Dream, Or, Adventures in the Far West Robert Michael

Ballantyne,1883 The Golden Earth Arthur Pound,1935 Common Property, the Golden Age, and Empire in Acts 2:42-47 and 4:32-35 Joshua Noble,2020-10-15 Joshua Noble focuses on the rapid appearance and disappearance in Acts 2 and 4 of the motif that early believers hold all their property in common and argues that these descriptions function as allusions to the Golden Age myth Noble suggests Luke s claims that the believers had all things in common and that no one claimed private ownership of any possessions a motif that does not appear in any biblical source rather calls to mind Greek and Roman traditions that the earliest humans lived in utopian conditions when no one possessed any private property but all things were common By analyzing sources from Greek Latin Jewish and Christian traditions and reading Acts 2 42 47 and 4 32 35 as Golden Age allusions Noble illustrates how Luke s use of the motif of common property is significant for understanding his attitude toward the Roman Empire Noble suggests that Luke s appeal to this myth accomplishes two things it characterizes the coming of the Spirit as marking the beginning of a new age the start of a universal restoration that will find its completion at the Second Coming of Christ and it creates a contrast between Christ who has actually brought about this restoration and the emperors of Rome who were serially credited with inaugurating a new Golden Age The Golden Chain of Homer Gregory S. Hamilton,2012-09-26 The Aurea Catena Homeri written in German by Dr Anton Josef Kirchweyer was first printed in 1723 though it was distributed in a handwritten format prior to that time It is said to be one of the most important books ever created giving insight into alchemy the idea that all creation no matter what its nature is closely interconnected that a deeply secret connection pervades all of nature that one thing relates to the next and things depend upon each other In The Golden Chain of Homer editors Gregory S Hamilton and Philip N Wheeler provide an English translation of Aurea Catena Homeri complete with frequent detailed footnotes and extensive commentary that offers a detailed analysis and insight into Kirchwegers work considered a masterpiece of alchemical literature The Golden Chain of Homer shows Kirchwegers book in a new enlightening way Through this translation it becomes easier to understand alchemical principles and unveil the mysteries that shroud the science of alchemy The Golden Bough James George Frazer, 1912

Return of the Golden Age Edward F. Malkowski, 2013-12-17 The truth behind ancient myths and the return of the celestial conditions for a Golden Age of peace and abundance Reveals the events preserved in myth that launched humanity into 12 000 years of struggle selfishness and false beliefs Explores how we can initiate a new Golden Age through ancient Egyptian teachings on the creative power of our imaginations Explains how our world system of economics which benefits a few at the expense of the many arose as a reaction to global catastrophe in prehistory Since the beginning of recorded history humanity has been in a continuous struggle over land and resources It continues today despite the abundance we have created through scientific innovation and technology Why such a struggle for resources exists has never been explained Neither has the human drive to own accumulate and hoard Edward Malkowski reveals that the answer lies in recognizing the reality behind humanity s earliest myths He shows that the opportunity is at hand to transcend these inherited selfish traits and return to a Golden Age of peace and abundance Malkowski explores the hidden meaning behind stories such as the Epic of Gilgamesh Plato s Atlantis and myths of a new sky and a new sun of great floods and the death of the gods and of the preceding Golden Age He connects these myths to a real extinction event that occurred 12 000 years ago He explains how the survivors our ancestors were catapulted from utopia into a world of scarcity scarring the collective mind of humanity and initiating the struggle for resources in an attempt to regain our lost paradise He shows how our world system of economics focused on ownership and based on the false belief of separateness benefitting a few at the expense of the many arose as a reaction to this catastrophe Drawing on the pre catastrophe teachings preserved by the ancient Egyptians Malkowski reveals that we are returning to a celestial configuration parallel to that of the past Golden Age Through our collective DNA memory and the creative power of our imaginations we can end our 12 000 year quest to regain paradise lost and launch a new Golden Age of unity abundance and equality for all humanity The Golden West , 1920
