The Politics Of Housework:

The Politics of Housework Ellen Malos, 1980 The Politics of Housework Pat Mainardi, 1973 Édouard Vuillard, the Nabis, and the Politics of Domesticity Francesca Berry, 2024-12-12 This ground breaking book is the first to address the feminine and feminist politics of Intimiste art a modernist mode of art making developed in the 1890s by douard Vuillard while associated with the Nabi brotherhood Coined by contemporary critics intimisme encapsulated the shared approach of these artists to depicting intimate settings and themes Vuillard s paintings which are typically small employ bold pigments and economic brushstrokes to depict female figures in tightly composed apartment interiors Those portrayed include his mother and sister just as wives and lovers dominate the art of other Nabis including Maurice Denis and Pierre Bonnard Francesca Berry comparatively analyses the gender politics of Nabi art to reveal real differences Through skilled visual interpretation she argues that Vuillard attempted a profound engagement with the material conditions of feminine domesticity in cooperation with his first and most sustained audience women He did so the author reveals in artworks that explore a complex range of feminine experiences such as sexual initiation stillbirth illicit work and unceasing housework The personal gender politics of Intimiste practice also are foregrounded Vuillard s studio bedroom afforded him access to quotidian femininity But at what risks to his sister s privacy and to his mother s subjectivity Making an artistic project of feminine domesticity also meant entering the field of politics The 1890s was the decade of state legislation and feminist demands with respect to work in the home and women s familial rights Personal in motif and Symbolist in form Berry s extensive historical research reveals these artworks also to have been social and political sometimes even feminist in meaning Transcending the structural repression of domesticity in histories of modernist art this book powerfully overturns residual myths of aesthetic introspection and social retreat that for too long have been attached to Nabi Symbolism The Women's Liberation Movement and the Politics of Class in Britain George Stevenson, 2019-02-21 This is the first study of the British Women s Liberation Movement s relationship with class politics It explores the meaning of class to women s liberationists identities and activism both nationally and regionally using a previously neglected feminist cluster in North East England as a case study Stevenson demonstrates that British feminism was shaped fundamentally by its relationship to synthesis with and rejection of class politics Through these processes feminists recognised how post war changes in the economy and gender roles were reshaping class and the Women s Liberation Movement attempted to remake class politics in response However socio economic and cultural class differences between the women involved linked to occupation education and background remained intractable obstacles causing tensions within groups fragmentations into specific class based groups and the ultimate failure of the movement to coalesce into a coherent coalition with labour politics despite great levels of solidarity around particular struggles Examining regional feminism against the national backdrop The Women s Liberation Movement and the Politics of Class in Britain provides an engaging exploration of the fruitful but challenging relationship between British feminism and class politics in a capitalist society The Politics of Land Reform in Africa Ambreena Manji, 2008-02-29 Across Africa land is being commodified private ownership is replacing communal and customary tenure Farms are turned into collateral for rural credit markets Law reform is at the heart of this revolution The Politics of Land Reform in Africa casts a critical spotlight on this profound change in African land economy The book illuminates the key role of legislators legal consultants and academics in tenure reform These players exert their influence by translating the economic and regulatory interests of the World Bank civil society groups and commercial lenders in to questions of law Drawing on political economy and actor network theory The Politics of Land Reform in Africa is an indispensable contribution to the study of agrarian change in developing countries Canadian Women's Issues Pierson, Ruth Roach, Cohen, Marjorie Griffin, 1993 Preface Acknowledgements 1 The Politics of the Domestic Sphere Documents Ruth Roach Pierson 2 Paid Work Documents Marjorie Griffen Cohen 3 Education and Training Documents Ruth Roach Pierson 4 Feminisms Effect on Economic Policy Documents Marjorie Griffen Cohen 5 Global Issues Documente Ruth Roach Pierson List of Acronyms Permissions Bibliography Index The Politics of Working Life Judy Wajcman, 2005-09-08 How does the politics of working life shape modern organizations Is our desire for meaningful secure work increasingly at odds with corporate behaviour in a globalized economy Does the rise of performance management culture represent an intensification of work or create opportunities for the freewheeling individual career This timely and engaging book by leading authorities in the field adopts the standpoint of the questioning observer It is for those who need an informed account of work that is accessible without being superficial The book is unique in its multi dimensional approach weaving together analysis of individual work experience political processes in organizations and the wider context of the social structuring of markets The book identifies central questions about working experience and answers them in a direct and lively manner It has a strong analytical foundation based on a political economy framework giving particular weight to the contradictory character of organizations These contradictions turn on the competing demands placed on organizations and the different political projects of groups within them This perspective integrates the chapters and permits numerous scholarly debates to be addressed including those on identity projects gender and work power and participation escalation in decision making and the meaning of corporate social responsibility This book is suitable for undergraduate and graduate classes in Organizational Behaviour Business Strategy and the Sociology of Work and Employment It will also appeal to the general reader interested in grappling with the complexity of the changing environment of work The Politics of Parenthood Mary Frances Berry, 1994-03-01 A distinguished scholar presents a landmark historical perspective on parenthood in America This trailblazing book suggests that behind the rhetoric of maternal responsibility are issues of power resources and control Berry's book could be a significant impetus for corporate executives and political leaders conservatives and liberals and mothers and fathers to support parental involvement that is gender free The Washington Post Book World The return of the housewife Emma Casey, 2025-04-08 An illuminating look at the world of cleanfluencers that asks why the burden of housework still falls on women Housework is good for you Housework sparks joy Housework is beautiful Housework is glamorous Housework is key to a happy family Housework shows that you care Housework is women's work Social media is flooded with images of the perfect housewife TikTok and Instagram cleanfluencers produce endless photos and videos of women cleaning tidying and putting things right Figures such as Marie Kondo and Mrs Hinch have placed housework with its promise of a life of love and contentment at the centre of self care and positive thinking And yet housework remains one of the world's most unequal institutions Women especially poorer women and women of colour do most low paid and unpaid domestic labour In The return of the housewife Emma Casey asks why these inequalities matter and why they persist after a century of dramatic advances in women's rights She offers a powerful call to challenge the prevailing myths around housework and the naturally competent woman homemaker
