The Politics of Patronage in Africa Roger K. Tangri, 1999 This is a survey of the influence of political factors on economic performance throughout Africa with case studies drawn from Ghana Zambia and Uganda It is a comparative study of the difficulties in developing a private enterprise economy

The Politics of Patronage in Africa Roger K. Tangri, The Politics of Patronage in Africa Roger Tangri, 1999 The Politics of Patronage in Africa , Neopatrimonialism in Africa and Beyond Daniel C. Bach, Mamoudou Gazibo, 2013-03-01 Neopatrimonialism a system whereby rulers use state resources for personal benefit and to secure the loyalty of clients in the general population is central to any teaching or conceptualisation of contemporary African politics This book is a theoretical and comparative study of neopatrimonialism in Africa and across world regions Although such practices are widespread in other parts of the world the African neopatrimonial state has also become a global prototype of the anti developmental state This volume calls for a reappraisal of the genesis and interpretations of the concepts of patrimonialism and neopatrimonialism Expert contributors consider recent debates in Africa through the study of democracy clientelism the big man syndrome Kenya the rise of godfatherism Nigeria warlordism Liberia and the neopatrimonial state on a day to day basis Niger They discuss patrimonialism and neopatrimonialism from Latin America to Europe Central Asia and Asia Pacific to weave a comparative analysis of the interplay between public policies and private interest Neopatrimonialism in Africa and Beyond is an important and timely volume that will be of interest to students and scholars of international politics African studies sociology and international development

The Politics of Trade and Industrial Policy in Africa Charles Chukwuma Soludo, Michael Osita Ogbu, Ha-Joon Chang, 2004 This book maps the process and political economy of policy making in Africa It s focus on trade and industrial policy makes it unique and it will appeal to students and academics in economics political economy political science and African studies Detailed case studies help the reader to understand how the process and motivation behind policy decisions can vary from country to country depending on the form of government ethnicity and nationality and other social factors

The Politics of Elite Corruption in Africa Roger Tangri, Andrew M Mwenda, 2013-08-21 This book considers the causes of high level state corruption as well as the political constraints of countering corruption in Africa It examines elite corruption in government as well as in the political and military spheres of state activity and focuses on illegal behaviour on the part of state and non state actors in decision making Situating corruption and anti corruption within a political framework this book analyses the motivations opportunities and relative autonomy of state elites to manipulate state decision making for personal and political ends Based on detailed case studies in Uganda the authors focus on corruption in the privatization process military procurement foreign business bribery illegal political funding and electoral malpractice The book examines why anti corruption institutions and international donors have been constrained in confronting this executive abuse of power and discusses the wider relevance of Uganda s experience for understanding elite corruption and anti corruption efforts in other African countries The Politics of Elite Corruption in Africa will be of interest to students and scholars of African politics African political economy development studies corruption and government The Politics of Heritage in Africa Derek R. Peterson, Kodzo Gavua, Ciraj Rassool, 2015-03-02 Heritage work has had a uniquely wide currency in Africa's politics Secure within the pages of books encoded in legal statutes encased in glass display cases and enacted in the panoply of court ritual the artefacts produced by the heritage domain have become a resource for government administration a library for traditionalists and a marketable source of value for cultural entrepreneurs The Politics of Heritage in Africa draws together disparate fields of study history archaeology linguistics the performing arts and cinema to show how the lifeways of the past were made into capital a store of authentic knowledge that political and cultural entrepreneurs could draw from This book shows African heritage to be a mode of political organisation a means by which the relics of the past are shored up reconstructed and revalued as commodities as tradition as morality or as patrimony The Politics of Economic Power in Southern Africa Ronald T. Libby, 2014-07-14 This book questions the notion that South Africa can exert effective political leverage over its economically dependent neighbors while itself remaining free of regional influences Originally published in 1987 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Politics of Opposition in Contemporary Africa Adebayo O.
