The Politics Of Reconciliation Zimbabwe's First Decade:

The Politics of Reconciliation Victor De Waal, 1990 Making History in Mugabe's Zimbabwe Blessing-Miles Tendi, 2010

The crisis that has engulfed Zimbabwe since 2000 is not simply a struggle against dictatorship. It is also a struggle over ideas and deep seated historical issues still unresolved from the independence process that both Robert Mugabe's ZANU PF regime and Morgan Tsvangirai's MDC are vying first to define and then to address. This book traces the role of politicians and public intellectuals in media, civil society and the academy in producing and disseminating a politically usable historical narrative concerning ideas about patriotism, race, land, human rights and sovereignty. It raises pressing questions about the role of contemporary African intellectuals in the making of democratic societies. In so doing, the book adds a new and rich dimension to the study of African politics which is often diluted by the neglect of ideas. Reconciliation and Religio-political Non-conformism in Zimbabwe Joram Tarusarira, 2016-05-20

Religio-political organisations in Zimbabwe play an important role in advocating democratisation and reconciliation against acquiescent, silenced or co-opted mainstream churches. Reconciliation and Religio-political Non-conformism in Zimbabwe analyses activities of religious organisations that deviate from the position of mainline churches and the political elites with regard to religious participation in political matters against a background of political conflict and violence. Drawing on detailed case studies of the Zimbabwe Christian Alliance (ZCA), Churches in Manicaland (CiM) and Grace to Heal (GtH), this book provocatively argues that in the face of an unsatisfactory religious and political culture, religio-political non-conformists emerge seeking to introduce a new ethos even in the face of negative sanctions from dominant religious and political systems. Mugabe and the Politics of Security in Zimbabwe Abiodun Alao, 2012

How President Robert Mugabe manipulated Zimbabwe's security policy to exploit past problems for present gain. Zimbabwe's First Decade of Political Independence, 1990 The Politics of the Thatcher Revolution G. Fry, 2015-12-04

The Thatcher era was the most dramatic period in British politics since the 1940s. As Conservative Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher proved to be the Iron Lady at home and abroad, this book analyzes the politics of the Thatcher era in an incisive and challenging manner. Hidden Dimensions of Operation Murambatsvina, The Maurice Taonezvhi Vambe, 2008

In his introduction to The Hidden Dimensions, Maurice Vambe argues that the treatment of people as human dirt demands the notion of citizenship in Zimbabwe be rethought. The Politics of Memory Alexandra Barahona De Brito, Carmen Gonzalez Enriquez, Paloma Aguilar, 2001-04-05

One of the most important political and ethical questions faced during a political transition from authoritarian or totalitarian to democratic rule is how to deal with legacies of repression. Indeed, some of the most fundamental questions regarding law, morality and politics are raised at such times as societies look back to understand how they lost their moral and political compass, failing to contain violence and promote the values of tolerance and peace. The Politics of Memory sheds light on this important aspect of transitional politics, assessing how Portugal, Spain, the countries of Central and Eastern Europe and Germany after reunification, Russia, the Southern Cone of

Latin America and Central America as well as South Africa have confronted legacies of repression The book examines the presence or absence of three types of official efforts to come to terms with the past truth commissions trials and amnesties and purges In addition it looks at unofficial initiatives emerging from within society usually involving human rights organisations HROs churches or political parties Where relevant it also examines the politics of memory whereby societies re work the past in an effort to come to terms with it both during the transitions and long after official transitional policies have been implemented or forgotten The book also assesses the significance of forms of reckoning with the past for a process of democratization or democratic deepening It also focuses on the role of international actors in such processes as external players are becoming increasingly influential in shaping national policy where human rights are concerned The

Zimbabwe African People's Union, 1961-87 Eliakim M. Sibanda, 2005 This book is an exploration of the political history of insurgency in Southern Rhodesia During the early years of its struggle ZAPU employed non violent means to try and achieve its goal for majority rule and a non racial society Because of the belligerency of the White settler regime ZAPU added the armed resistance to its strategy and went on to build a formidable army Problems escalated and alliances were built and dissolved until tired of being hunted down and butchered the ZAPU leadership decided to merge its party with the ruling party in December 1987

Healing the Wounds of Gukurahundi in Zimbabwe Dumisani Ngwenya, 2017-12-14 This book is based on a participatory action research project carried out with a group of former Zimbabwe People's revolutionary Army ZPRA which was the armed wing of the Zimbabwe African People's Union ZAPU which was led by the late Joshua Nkomo ZPRA was the primary target of Gukurahundi a pogrom by the Mugabe government which left an estimated 20 000 civilians dead and countless others tortured in the early 1980s in Matebeleland Zimbabwe It has been almost 30 years since the violence ended but there has never been an official healing and reconciliation programme or truth commission into the atrocities The government chose the path of amnesia by granting a blanket amnesty to all involved The regime has enforced a culture of silence over the event through repression and intimidation The book is a culmination of a two year journey by the group and the author of an exploration of group based self healing approaches to the pain caused by the violence of Gukurahundi
