The Murmuring Stories of the Priestly School David Frankel, 2014-09-03 This book deals with the stories of Israelite complaint or murmuring in the wilderness found in the books of Exodus and Numbers that were composed and edited by the priesthood of ancient Israel It discusses the significance of the theme of rebellion and complaint for the ancient priests and analyses the part they played in the development of the theme in the Pentateuch After a general introduction on the theme of murmuring and on the Priestly School the book goes on to analyze four major priestly texts the manna story Exodus 16 the story of the Scouts Numbers 13 14 the story of the rebellions surrounding the figure of Korah Numbers 16 17 and the story of the Waters of Merivah Numbers 20 The significance of the book is two fold First it develops a methodology that allows one to discriminate between early priestly narrative materials and later priestly editorial supplementation Second the work demonstrates the antiquity of the priestly narrative lore in the Pentateuch and the significant role which the priests played in creating and developing major narrative traditions in ancient Israel

Eclipse of Action Richard Halpern, 2017-03-13 According to traditional accounts the history of tragedy is itself tragic following a miraculous birth in fifth century Athens and a brilliant resurgence in the early modern period tragic drama then falls into a marked decline While disputing the notion that tragedy has died this wide ranging study argues that it faces an unprecedented challenge in modern times from an unexpected quarter political economy Since Aristotle tragedy has been seen as uniquely exhibiting the importance of action for human happiness Beginning with Adam Smith however political economy has claimed that the source of happiness is primarily production Eclipse of Action examines the tense relations between action and production doing and making in playwrights from Aeschylus Marlowe Shakespeare and Milton to Beckett Arthur Miller and Sarah Kane Richard Halpern places these figures in conversation with works by Aristotle Smith Hegel Marx Hannah Arendt Georges Bataille and others in order to trace the long history of the ways in which economic thought and tragic drama interact

MacDonald,2008-10-01 div In this provocative challenge to prevailing views of New Testament sources Dennis R MacDonald argues that the origins of passages in the book of Acts are to be found not in early Christian legends but in the epics of Homer MacDonald focuses on four passages in the book of Acts examines their potential parallels in the Iliad and concludes that the author of Acts composed them using famous scenes in Homer s work as a model Tracing the influence of passages from the Iliad on subsequent ancient literature MacDonald shows how the story generated a vibrant mimetic literary tradition long before Luke composed the Acts Luke could have expected educated readers to recognize his transformation of these tales and to see that the Christian God and heroes were superior to Homeric gods and heroes Building upon and extending the analytic methods of his earlier book The Homeric Epics and the Gospel of Mark MacDonald opens an original and promising appreciation not only of Acts but also of the composition of early Christian narrative in general DIV
