The Presence Of Montaigne In The Lettres Persanes:

The Presence of Montaigne in the Lettres Persanes John M. Bomer, 1988 The Presence of Montaigne in the Lettres Persanes John Meeks Bomer, 1970 Sensual Philosophy Alan Levine, 2001-01-01 Almost since their publication the writings of Michel de Montaigne 1533-1592 have provided rich fodder for the work of scholars in myriad disciplines. Philosophers have considered Montaigne's views on skepticism; historians have examined his views on the Indians; deconstructionists and literary scholars have examined Montaigne's view of the self; and political scientists have touched on his arguments for toleration. However, because each of these projects has been done largely in isolation, most scholars have failed to see the relationships between the various aspects of Montaigne's thought. Alan Levine in Sensual Philosophy unites Montaigne's thought for the first time ably and convincingly, demonstrating the significant role Montaigne played in establishing the liberal ethos in the West. In exploring Montaigne's grounding for liberalism, Levine considers Montaigne's conceptualization of skepticism and its relationship to toleration. He argues that Montaigne's theories of self ground his idea of toleration without leaving it open to the corrosive charges of relativism and nihilism. Levine also articulates the importance of Montaigne's thought for contemporary conceptions of personal freedom, individuality, subjectivity, and self-creation by bringing him into dialogue with modern and postmodern political theorists such as Heidegger, Nietzsche, and Richard Rorty. This lively book persuades those who might be tempted by postmodernism that they should turn to Montaigne instead.

Persian Letters Montesquieu, 2014-09-03 A classic work of the European Enlightenment and one of the most popular if scandalous in its day, the Persian Letters captures in an engaging epistolary format the transformational spirit of the era. Amid an ongoing tale rife with sex, violence, and wit, the work addresses a diverse range of topics from human nature and the origins of society to the nature and role of religious belief, the role of women, statecraft, justice, morality, and human identity. With skill and artistry, Raymond MacKenzie's stunning new translation accurately reflects the mood and character of the work. In his richly conceived Introduction, MacKenzie seamlessly weaves together an overview of the period with details of Montesquieu's life, including the influences that inspired the Persian Letters, the character and power of the book, and its reception. This edition also includes a Calendar of the Persian Letters, a Bibliography of Works in English, and a Bibliography of Works in French. Related texts provide insight into the legacy of the Persian Letters. They include selections from works by George Lyttelton, Voltaire, Oliver Goldsmith, and Maria Edgeworth. Traveling Back Susan McWilliams, 2014-03 What does it mean to think globally? Susan McWilliams argues that to understand politics in our new world, we should revisit one of the oldest themes in political theory: travel. This title uncovers the rich travel story tradition of political theorizing and shows how it helps to answer today's toughest political questions. Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1973 French Studies, 1947 An Evaluation of Montesquieu's Lettres Persanes Based on His Essai Sur Le Gout Hilde Lynn Louise Herkstroeter, 1975 French Forum, 1990 Viewing Europe from the Outside Syrine

Chafic Hout, 1997 Viewing Europe from the Outside reexamines the narrative portrayal of cultural encounters between East and West in English and French Orientalist discourse. It focuses in particular on the eighteenth century satirical travel account and the nineteenth century literary travelogue. Through a close reading of five texts it defines the monological, dialogical and parodic uses of the Other as three forms of encounters that both provide structure for and participate in a self-reflective culture critique.
