The Primacy Of Christ:

A Primer on the Absolute Primacy of Christ Maximilian Mary Dean, 2006-01-01 Scotus Teachings on Christ made simple This volume by Fr Dean FI is an excellent introductory summary of the well known Franciscan thesis The Primacy of Christ Briefly stated it is a thesis central to the doctrine and life of the Franciscan Order in particular and that of the Holy Church in general regarding the operation of God in the economy of salvation Economic Trinity The thesis stipulates the centrality of Christ in this Trinitarian operation as it presupposes the hierarchized ordering in the motive of the divine will The uniqueness of this volume is the author's attempt to explain in simple language this theological doctrine for the non professional theologians

The Primacy of Christ in the Light of the Incarnation Martin Bodewig, 1981* The Theology of the Primacy of Christ According to St. Thomas and Its Scriptural Foundations Thomas R. Potvin, 1973 The Primacy of Christ Eric Wood, 2015 The Dome of Eden Stephen H. Webb, 2010-01-01 What would biology look like if it took the problem of natural evil seriously This book argues that biological descriptions of evolution are inherently moral just as the biblical story of creation has biological implications A complete account of evolution will therefore require theological input The Dome of Eden does not try to harmonize evolution and creation Harmonizers typically begin with Darwinism and then try to add just enough religion to make evolution more palatable or they begin with Genesis and pry open the creation account just wide enough to let in a little bit of evolution By contrast Stephen Webb provides a theory of how evolution and theology fit together and he argues that this kind of theory is required by the internal demands of both theology and biology The Dome of Eden also develops a theological account of evolution that is distinct from the intelligent design movement Webb shows how intelligent design properly discerns the inescapable dimension of purpose in nature but like Darwinism itself fails to make sense of the problem of natural evil Finally this book draws on the work of Karl Barth to advance a new reading of the Genesis narrative and the theology of Duns Scotus to provide the necessary metaphysical foundation for evolutionary thought

The Incarnation as God's First Intention Edwin Chr. van Driel, 2025-10-21 In The Incarnation as God's First Intention Edwin Chr van Driel advocates a transformative perspective on the incarnation proposing that God's decision to become incarnate was not a response to human sin but was instead God's first and foundational intention Engaging the historical and theological roots of this supralapsarian before the fall Christology van Driel a leading scholar on the topic invites readers to reconsider long held views on God's engagement with creation With clarity and depth van Driel unpacks how understanding the incarnation as God's original purpose reshapes the doctrines of creation election salvation and eschatology His insights offer a fresh framework for the church's mission in today's world suggesting that God's presence with us is not merely a remedy for human fallenness but rather God's first intention and ultimate goal for creation Written for students theologians and all who seek a deeper understanding of God's relation to the world this book challenges readers to see the incarnation God's dwelling among us as God's central purpose The Christ's Faith Michael Allen, 2011-11-03 The Christ's Faith coheres with orthodox Christology and Reformation soteriology and needs to be affirmed to properly confirm the true humanity of the incarnate Son Without addressing the interpretation of the Pauline phrase pistis christou this study offers a theological rationale for an exegetical possibility and enriches a dogmatic account of the humanity of the Christ The coherence of the Christ's faith is shown in two ways First the objection of Thomas Aquinas is refuted by demonstrating that faith is fitting for the incarnate Son Second a theological ontology is offered which affirms divine perfection and transcendence in qualitative fashion undergirding a Chalcedonian and Reformed Christology Thus the humanity of the Christ may be construed as a fallen human nature assumed by the person of the Word and sanctified by the Holy Spirit The dogmatic location of The Christ's Faith is sketched by suggesting its potential function within three influential theological systems Thomas Aquinas federal theology and Karl Barth Furthermore the soteriological role of the doctrine is demonstrated by showing the theological necessity of faith for valid obedience before God A treatise on the government of the Church Edward Barwick, 1811 The Parker Society... Parker Society (Great Britain), 1848
