cell Ethan Court he whispered to the black hidden walls Ethan Court And then Times Square Tiffany's Bretano's Staten Island The Yankee Stadium pop corn whisky sours Greenwich Village Presently he noticed that the sound of his voice was different and after that he scarcely spoke The horrible lethargy of inaction closed around him Occasionally though less often now he was taken before Japanese officers who questioned him He was somewhere in Occupied China he knew but since his plane had been forced down he had been shunted for a long distance by a roundabout route He guessed that this was a temporary headquarters probably on the site of some old Chinese town and he suspected that it was in the hill country His savage captors told him nothing of course They just asked questions How much could he disclose in the way of military information the Japanese did not know Hard pressed they were overlooking no bets His stubbornness enraged them The commander of the post a disappointed samurai of a politically unpopular family gradually came to believe that a feud existed between Court and himself It became a contest between the Japanese officer and the American entirely passive on one side ruthlessly active on the other Time dragged on while bombers roared in increasing numbers over Japan and the brown hordes sullenly withdrew from Burma and Thailand and the islands north of Borneo This headquarters was isolated but in a strategic spot The commander saw the tides of war rage past him and recede The radio gave him no comfort The Emperor of Japan was silent upon his throne A transfer required time In enforced idleness the Nipponese commander devoted himself to breaking the will of the American Torture failed and so he tried an ancient Japanese trick opium It was mixed in Court's food and after a while the craving grew in him The Jap officer kept his prisoner saturated with the drug Court's mind dulled
