Robyn Horner, 2009-08-25 Rethinking God as Gift is situated at the intersection of philosophy critical theory and theology The first sustained study of the work of Jean Luc Marion in English it offers a unique perspective on contemporary questions and their theological relevance Taking its point of departure from the problem of the gift as articulated by Jacques Derrida who argues that the conditions of possibility of the gift are also its conditions of impossibility Horner pursues a series of questions concerning the nature of thought the viability of phenomenology and most urgently the possibility of grace For Marion phenomenology as the thought of the given offers a path for philosophy to proceed without being implicated in metaphysics His retrieval of several important insights of Edmund Husserl along with his reading of Martin Heidegger and Emmanuel Levinas enables him to work out a phenomenology where even impossible phenomena such as revelation and the gift might be examined In this important confrontation between Marion and Derrida issues vital to the negotiation of postmodern concerns in philosophy and theology emerge with vigour The careful elucidation of those issues in an interdisciplinary context and the snapshot it provides of the state of contemporary debate make Rethinking God as Gift an important contribution to theological and philosophical discussion On Bataille Leslie Anne Boldt-Irons,1995-01-01 Essays on the French writer and critic Georges Bataille that examine his thought in relation to Hegel Nietzsche and Derrida The Bipolar Guide to the Gift Arlen Rundvall,2009-09-11 When you are diagnosed with Bipolar Disorder you could use a coach and all the advantages that you can find Bipolar is a serious illness that requires an integrated approach to solving the enigma This is an informal guide that pulls no punches and talks about everything from sexual promiscuity to manic spending to delusions of grandeur Over twenty years I have learned to lessen its power over my existence It can become less of an illness and over time more of an opportunity We need to look at bipolar in new ways to get different results Having a reassuring friend who s been there makes the difference I teach many basic easy to learn approaches A recent test reader who was in the mire of illness described the book as a bridge out she returns to The Bipolar Guide to review the principles that helped her to live I strive in this book to take alternative approaches to work through the negative illness traits to plug into the gift side I have been through the highs and the lows of manic depression and have embraced the advantages and continue to live an enhanced life I promote responsibility in this book there are no excuses just potential You can harness bipolar to serve you it is a tough break in of the wild horse but it is possible We need to look at bipolar in new ways People need friendly assurance and prodding to surmount the challenges of bipolar This is a bold responsible approach to living successfully with Bipolar Disorder Two decades of tough manic depression lessons are passed to you This informal guide will be your friend and coach to assist you in finding your own way we need to learn new approaches to attain different results in our lives Given Time Jacques Derrida,1992-11-15 Is giving possible Is it possible to give without immediately entering into a circle of exchange that turns the gift into a debt to be returned This question leads Jacques Derrida to make out an irresolvable paradox at what seems the most fundamental level of the gift s meaning for the gift to be received as a gift it must not appear as such since its mere appearance as gift puts it in the cycle of repayment and debt Derrida reads the relation of time to gift through a number of texts Heidegger s Time and Being Mauss s The Gift as well as essays by Benveniste and Levi Strauss that assume Mauss s legacy It is however a short tale by Baudelaire Counterfeit Money that guides Derrida s analyses throughout At stake in his reading of the tale to which the second half of this book is devoted are the conditions of gift and forgiveness as essentially bound up with the movement of dissemination a concept that Derrida has been working out for many years For both readers of Baudelaire and students of literary theory this work will prove indispensable The Allure of Decadent Thinking Carl Olson,2013-03-07 The use of postmodern thought to approach the study of religion threatens to call into question the values and representational mode of thinking typical of the field Religious studies with a radical scepticism grounded in an embrace of decadence by postmodern thinkers has the potential to undermine subvert and distort the study of religion making it difficult to understand the subject if such an approach is uncritically adopted by scholars seeking new ways to study it

The Allure of Decadent Thinking Carl Olson, 2013-01-22 Carl Olson offers a compelling and provocative argument against the application of postmodern thought to Religious Studies showing how such radically skeptical thinking undermines subverts and distorts the study of religion

Philosophy of Communication Briankle G. Chang, Garnet C. Butchart, 2012-08-10 Classical modern and contemporary philosophical writings that address the fundamental concepts of communication To philosophize is to communicate philosophically From its inception philosophy has communicated forcefully Socrates Plato and Aristotle talk a lot and talk ardently Because philosophy and communication have belonged together from the beginning and because philosophy comes into its own and solidifies its stance through communication it is logical that we subject communication to philosophical investigation This collection of key works of classical modern and contemporary philosophers brings communication back into philosophy's orbit It is the first anthology to gather in a single volume foundational works that address the core questions concepts and problems of communication in philosophical terms The editors have chosen thirty two selections from the work of Plato Leibniz Hegel Husserl Heidegger Wittgenstein Benjamin Lacan Derrida Sloterdijk and others They have organized these texts thematically rather than historically in seven sections consciousness intersubjective understanding language writing and context difference and subjectivity gift and exchange and communicability and community Taken together these texts not only lay the foundation for establishing communication as a distinct philosophical topic but also provide an outline of what philosophy of communication might look like

Nietzsche's Animal Philosophy Vanessa Lemm, 2009-08-25 Lemm consolidates her reputation as one of Nietzsche's most original attentive and lively readers The Journal of Nietzsche Studies This book explores the significance of human animality in the philosophy of Friedrich Nietzsche and provides the first systematic treatment of the animal theme in Nietzsche's body of work Vanessa Lemm argues that the animal is neither a random theme nor a metaphorical device in Nietzsche's thought Instead it stands at the center of his renewal of the practice and meaning of philosophy itself Lemm provides an original contribution to ongoing debates on the essence of humanism and its future At the center of this new interpretation stands Nietzsche's thesis that animal life and its potential for truth history and morality depends on a continuous antagonism between forgetfulness animality and memory humanity This relationship accounts for the emergence of humanity out of animality as a function of the antagonism between civilization and culture By taking the antagonism of culture and civilization to be fundamental for Nietzsche's conception of humanity and its becoming Lemm gives a new entry point into the political significance of Nietzsche's thought The opposition between civilization and culture allows for the possibility that politics is more than a set of civilizational techniques that seek to manipulate dominate and exclude the animality of the human animal By seeing the deep seated connections of politics with culture Nietzsche orients politics beyond the domination over life and instead offers the animality of the human being a positive creative role in the organization of life This book will appeal not only to those interested in Nietzsche but to anyone interested in the theme of the animal in philosophy literature cultural studies and the arts as well as those interested in the relation between biological life and politics The Gifting Logos E. Johanna Hartelius,2020-09-08 The Gifting Logos Expertise in the Digital Commons provides an extensive analysis of knowledge and creativity in twenty first century networked culture Analyzing massive projects like the Wayback Machine the Internet Archive and the Creative Commons licenses The Gifting Logos responds to a fundamental question What does it mean to know something and to make something With the idea of a gifting logos Hartelius integrates three habits of a rhetorical epistemology the invention of cultural materials such as text images and software the imbuing or encoding of the materials with the creator s experience and the constitution and dissemination of the materials as gifts A Poetics of Forgiveness J. Scott,2010-03-29 Despite recent interest in forgiveness and reconciliation relatively little research has been conducted on forgiveness in literary studies A Poetics of Forgiveness explores the profound links between creativity and forgiveness and argues that creative production and interpretation can play a vital role in practices of forgiveness Developing a model of poetic forgiveness through the work of Julia Kristeva Jacques Derrida and Kelly Oliver A Poetics of Forgiveness asks how forgiveness is expressed in literature and other art forms and what creative works can bring to secular debates on forgiveness and conflict resolution Jill Scott explores these questions in a wide variety of historical and cultural contexts from Homer s Iliad to 9 11 novels from postwar Germany to post Apartheid South Africa in canonical texts and in diverse media including film photography and testimony The Gift of Madness D. K. Holmberg,2017-09-09 As Raime prepares for another attack those with the power to oppose him begin their preparations Finally fully healed Roelle is tasked with helping an ex soldier recover his skills but nothing she tries is effective Worse she begins to suspect success in the coming war will require her to make an alliance with the Deshmahne but not all the Magi warriors feel the same With the discovery that he is not the last of the damahne Jakob works with those once afflicted by the madness trying to awaken their power knowing they will be the key to victory He must succeed before Raime steals ahmaean from them as he once tried to take from the damahne This time there might be no stopping him Succeeding requires Jakob to discover the origin of the groeliin for him to confront powerful groeliin unlike any he has ever faced The penultimate book in The Lost Prophecy series Rethinking the university Simon Wortham,2018-09-30 Rethinking the university explores and develops key critical debates in the humanities concerning for example postmodernism New Historicism political criticism cultural studies interdisciplinarity and deconstruction in the context of the various crises widely felt to be facing academic institutions The analysis of the characteristic features of today s university is guided by a close reading of Derrida s work on the question of the academic institution particularly with regard to the motifs of leverage and disorientation This important topic has been the subject of heated debate in recent years and Rethinking the university offers clear and concise summaries of current work in the field as well as exploring original and challenging lines of enquiry on a number of issues of contemporary concern. In particular, Wortham argues that while Derrida's image of a university walking on two feet presents us with a potentially paralysing problem, nevertheless it also enables a strong affirmation of the possibilities of academic life, work and effort.
