The Gift Of Self To God:

The Gift of Self to God Jean Nicolas Grou, Loreto Publications, 2004-01-01 Self-Consecration Jean Nicolas Grou, 1887

The Gift of the Self Matthew Harp, 2021-08-25 A preliminary cruciform theology using the metaphor of a gift as its thematic principle this book is intended to articulate a foundation for a Christian theology centered around the concept of God's Way of self gift Using the Cross of Christ as a starting point for a doctrine of God The Gift of the Self utilizes insights from biblical studies the sciences and Open and Relational Theology to construct a Christian framework that is compatible with the life and death of Jesus Christ as fully revelatory of God's Personhood This book engages issues of systematic theology metaphysics and ethics in hopes to deconstruct and reconstruct a conceptualization of God's character and power that is most consistent with the Cross as well as a vision for the vocation of the community of faith Finally a seven day liturgy thematized around generosity and the book's primary topics is included so that the reader might become more spiritually formed around this fresh contextualization of the ancient Christian faith As such the underlying purpose of The Gift of the Self is to construct a plausible Christian worldview for a post Christian context rooted totally in the Way of Christ as an alternative to some of the dominant forms of historic Christianity that do not take seriously the Cross's critique of unilateral power and communal exclusivity The author intends that embracing this worldview oriented by self gift can help transform the Church from a power seeking organization to a peace seeking community

The Gift of Being Yourself David G. Benner, 2015-09-24 In the expanded edition of this profound exploration of Christian identity David G Benner illuminates the spirituality of self discovery He exposes the false selves that you may hide behind and calls you to discover the true self that emerges from your uniqueness in Christ Deepen your experience of God through discovering the gift of being yourself

The Gift of Self in Marriage Anita Dowsing, 2007 One of the most striking features of life in the Catholic Church today is the ever widening gap between its official teaching on marriage and sexual morality and the practice of most of its lay members The book seeks to bridge this gap in two ways It considers some of the tacit assumptions about marriage and sexual morality in today's society since these affect Catholics as much as everybody else It also considers the Church's teaching in some of these areas and explores new ways of putting it across so that it can make sense to ordinary lay Catholics In doing so the author draws on contemporary writing as well as bringing her own reflections and experience of living the Church's teaching to bear on the subject The book is aimed at married couples those considering marriage as well as clergy and those involved in marriage preparation and counselling Anita Dowsing was born in Copenhagen in 1944 She was brought up as a member of Denmark's tiny Catholic community but has spent most of her adult life in the United Kingdom She has an M A in English Language and Literature from Copenhagen University and a Ph D in Old English from the University of Wales Anita Dowsing has spent most of her working life in Adult Religious Education in the Diocese of East Anglia as Co ordinator of the Norwich Deanery Team a member of the Diocesan Religious Education Commission and currently the Diocesan Marriage and

Family Life Commission She was a member of the East Anglia Steering Group for the Bishops Conference of England and Wales Listening 2004 project listening to family experience in every diocese and was one of the facilitators at the Bishops Conference Working Group which produced resource material on marriage and family life for parish use She is married with an adult daughter The Gift of Self Marion D. Hanks,1974 A little book on the love of God, tr. by a Dominican father Jean Nicolas Grou,1894 The Perfected Self Marty Boller,2002-11 Kierkegaard and the Changelessness of God Craig A. Hefner,2023-08-22 Living what he perceived to be a culturally lukewarm Christianity S ren Kierkegaard was often critical of his contemporary church This volume explores his reading of Scripture and theology to argue not only that he was a modern defender of the doctrine of divine immutability but that his theology can be a surprising resource today

Paul's Gospel of Divine Self-Sacrifice Paul Moser,2022-09-15 This book explains how reparative self sacrificial righteousness is at the heart of Paul s gospel and how divine self sacrifice authenticates that gospel via human reciprocity toward God in reconciliation Paul Moser explores the controversial matters regarding Paul s message in a way that highlights the coherence and profundity of his message The Cleansing of the Inner Man and Self Allen Brown,2020-05-21 One reason that Jesus came to earth was to redeem man inner man back to the Father through his death burial and resurrection Salvation is for the inner man It is not for you your flesh Self is the enemy of the soul The Holy Spirit purges the soul of sin when he is invited by you He also keeps a close surveillance on self because it will wreak havoc of the soul Self is the one that sins the real you inner man does not sin at all because he is Christlike Self is embedded in the soul of every human being on earth You cannot expel self from the soul by pleading the blood of Jesus or by praying It has a permanent fixture in the soul or outside of the soul When God calls you home self goes back to dust forever Redeeming Masculinity Peter D. Holmes,2024-07-16 John Paul II spoke of a feminine genius using the phrase to describe the unique and positive contribution of women to relationships the church and society What of men There is considerable debate regarding the nature roles and responsibilities of men What does the church have to say to a boy or young man searching for guidance in developing a genuinely Christian manhood Or to parents schools and communities seeking to cultivate this in their young men Or to the faithful seeking to understand the church s teachings and to apply these in public and private life This book seeks to answer the question Is there a masculine genius Is there a unique and positive contribution men bring to relationships the church and society Eros and Self-Emptying Lee C. Barrett,2013-11-30 Pt 1 Setting the stage two pilgrims on the way home Kierkegaard s tensive picture of Augustine Augustine s restless heart and Kierkegaard s desire for an eternal happiness Augustine and Kierkegaard on the road life as a journey Pt 2 Signposts on the journey specific theological intersections of Augustine and Kierkegaard God the attraction and repulsion of boundless love Sin culpable action and corrupt state God s gracious response to sin the enigma of divine sovereignty and human responsibility Christology the allure of lowliness Salvation faithful love and loving faith The church a parting of the ways Conclusion two edifying theologies of self giving

In the Self's Place Jean-Luc Marion, 2012-10-24 In the Self's Place is an original phenomenological reading of Augustine that considers his engagement with notions of identity in Confessions Using the Augustinian experience of confessio Jean Luc Marion develops a model of selfhood that examines this experience in light of the whole of the Augustinian corpus Towards this end Marion engages with noteworthy modern and postmodern analyses of Augustine's most experiential work including the critical commentaries of Jacques Derrida Martin Heidegger and Ludwig Wittgenstein Marion ultimately concludes that Augustine has preceded postmodernity in exploring an excess of the self over and beyond itself and in using this alterity of the self to itself as a driving force for creative relations with God the world and others This reading establishes striking connections between accounts of selfhood across the fields of contemporary philosophy literary studies and Augustine's early Christianity

Gorman, 2023-03-29 This study explores the relationship between the individual person the self the divine and other people in the writings of the apostle Paul and the Roman Stoic Epictetus It does so by examining self-involving actions expressed with reflexive pronouns myself yourself etc in various kinds of sentences for example Examine yourself and You do not belong to yourself After situating the topic within the fields of linguistics and ancient Greek the study then examines the reflexive constructions in Epictetus's Discourses showing that reflexive texts express fundamental aspects of his ethic of rational self-interest in imitation of the indwelling rational deity Next the investigation examines the 109 reflexive constructions in Paul providing an exegesis of each reflexive text and then synthesizing the results Paul's reflexive phrases are essential statements of his theology and ethics expressing an interconnected narrative Christology narrative apostolic identity and narrative ethic Most importantly the study finds that for Epictetus concern for others is a rational means to self-realization whereas for Paul concern for others is a community ethic grounded in the story of the indwelling Christ and is the antithesis of self-interest God's Gradual Self-Revelation to Mankind Michael J. Lorenzo, 2009-04 the more we are in the light doing good works of mercy corporal or spiritual the more we become more like Jesus But we know that already right Do we now Have we greeted Jesus in prayer this morning when we awoke asked Him how He felt throughout the day acknowledged Him by saying hello to someone have we thought said or did something kind for someone did we thank Him for giving us another day to enjoy have we ever thanked Him for creating us and sustaining us have we ever looked in the mirror and said we see a miracle Ah if only there was more time in the day Perhaps we are rationalizing to the point of leading ourselves into darkness What is it we fear that we have to live in darkness so much Could it be the bright shining warm light at the end of the tunnel For those of us who don't try to live in the light You won't have to worry about being blinded or scorched by the bright shining warm light at the end of the tunnel Michael J Lorenzo is an ordained permanent deacon now inactive in the Roman Catholic Christian Church He was instructed

The Death of the Messiah and the Birth of the New Covenant

Michael J. Gorman, 2014-06-27 In this groundbreaking book Michael Gorman asks why there is no theory or model of the atonement called the new covenant model since this understanding of the atonement is likely the earliest in the Christian tradition going back to Jesus himself Gorman argues that most models of the atonement over emphasize the penultimate purposes of Jesus death and the mechanics of the atonement rather than its ultimate purpose to create a transformed Spirit filled people of God The New Testament s various atonement metaphors are part of a remarkably coherent picture of Jesus death as that which brings about the new covenant and thus the new community promised by the prophets which is also the covenant of peace Gorman therefore proposes a new model of the atonement that is really not new at all the new covenant model He argues that this is not merely an ancient model in need of rediscovery but also a more comprehensive integrated participatory communal and missional model than any of the major models in the tradition Life in this new covenant Gorman argues is a life of communal and individual participation in Jesus faithful loving peacemaking death Written for both academics and church leaders this book will challenge all who read it to re think and re articulate the meaning of Christ s death for us
