The Refugee VIC K. A,2022-11-03 This is a compelling story about my experience in my country s civil war Each time I revisit that time capsule it brings back my memory of the events that took place during the war It was the most miserable moment of my life when my city was overrun by the invading soldiers In view of this my family had to evacuate my city to a neighboring town about thirty miles away My father did not stay to welcome the invading soldiers because he sat high in the socioaEURconomic standard in the rebel area My father left his city on the advice of his governor and the military leaders in his city he was compelled to desert his subjects to other towns We stayed in this other town for about three months when it was besieged by the invading army and we had to evacuate this town again for another town almost forty miles away from my original town Our refugee journey had begun and the epic journey continued as we traveled to more than four towns My father became the father of more than two hundred refugees who depended on him for survival Fortunately the governor aEURor the administrator as he was called thenaEUR was always very close to my father to assist him in all he needed to house and feed the refugees that followed along with him There was mass starvation and severe malnutrition in the refugee camps that made my father very weary of the situation My father became very emaciated and became very sick Unfortunately he succumbed to the heart attack that fell on him he died and was buried unceremoniously in the village that was not his His death looked like the end of the refugees but my uncle had to continue to bear the cross of all the refugees until the war ended after three years of refugee life You don t know the evils of war until you are a refugee

Refugee Support and Moral Practice in Slovakia Eva-Maria Walther,2024-07-02 This ethnography explores the political quandaries and personal dilemmas that refugee supporters volunteers and NGO employees in Slovakia face while working with their target group Operating in a refugee hostile political and public climate they navigate scarce or absent refugee care infrastructures and strict supervision by state authorities Building on extensive participant observation in three different refugee support organizations the book shows how moral codes and emotional templates shape the implementation of refugee support structuring encounters and clashes between refugees helpers and bureaucrats The ethnography illustrates how despite a plenitude of divergent constraints the actors produce remarkably permanent makeshift solutions for good enough care At the same time it is on the level of personal encounters and clashes that ideological and practical delineations between state and non state actors and between refugee hostile and refugee friendly positions become blurred NGO refugee supporters sometimes converge with state policies in practices of control while state authorities occasionally become deeply invested in providing empathetic care The book revisits narratives of illiberal backsliding and xenophobia in Central and Eastern European countries by describing the complicated emergence and perpetuation of refugee hostile sentiments in an exemplary setting Refugee act of 1979 United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Immigration, Refugees, and International Law,1979 The Refugee Crisis and Religion Luca Mavelli,Erin Wilson,2016-12-01 The current refugee crisis sweeping Europe and much of the world closely intersects with largely neglected questions of religion Moving beyond discussions of religious differences what can we learn about the interaction between religion and migration Do faith based organisations play a role within the refugee regime How do religious traditions and perspectives challenge and inform current practices and policies towards refugees This volume gathers together expertise from academics and practitioners as well as migrant voices in order to investigate these interconnections It shows that reconsidering our understanding and approaches to both could generate creative alternative responses to the growing global migration crisis Beginning with a discussion of the secular religious divide and how it shapes dominant policy practices and counter approaches to displacement and migration the book then goes on to explore and deconstruct the dominant discourse of the Muslim refugee as a threat to the secular Christian West The discussion continues with an exploration of Christian and Islamic traditions of hospitality showing how they challenge current practices of securitization of migration and concludes with an investigation of the largely unexplored relation between gender religion and migration Bringing together leading and emerging voices from across academia and practice in the fields of International Relations migration studies philosophy religious studies and gender studies this volume offers a unique take on one of the most pressing global problems of our time The Routledge Handbook of Refugee Narratives Evyn Lê Espiritu Gandhi,Vinh Nguyen,2023-02-17 This Handbook presents a transnational and interdisciplinary study of refugee narratives broadly defined Interrogating who can be considered a refugee and what constitutes a narrative the thirty eight chapters included in this collection encompass a range of forcibly displaced subjects a mix of geographical and historical contexts and a variety of storytelling modalities Analyzing novels poetry memoirs comics films photography music social media data graffiti letters reports eco design video games archival remnants and ethnography the individual chapters counter dominant representations of refugees as voiceless victims Addressing key characteristics and thematics of refugee narratives this Handbook examines how refugee cultural productions are shaped by and in turn shape socio political landscapes It will be of interest to researchers teachers students and practitioners committed to engaging refugee narratives in the contemporary moment The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Social Death Lisa Marie Cacho,2012-11-12 Winner of the 2013 John Hope Franklin Book Prize presented by the American Studies Association A necessary read that demonstrates the ways in which certain people are devalued without attention to social contexts Social Death tackles one of the core paradoxes of social justice struggles and scholarship that the battle to end oppression shares the moral grammar that structures exploitation and sanctions state violence Lisa Marie Cacho forcefully argues that the demands for personhood for those who in the eyes of society have little value depend on capitalist and heteropatriarchal measures of worth With poignant case studies Cacho illustrates that our very understanding of personhood is premised upon the unchallenged devaluation of criminalized populations of color Hence the reliance of rights based politics on notions of who is and is not a deserving member of society inadvertently replicates the logic that creates and normalizes states of social and literal death Her understanding of inalienable rights and personhood provides us the much needed comparative analytical and ethical tools to understand the racialized and nationalized tensions between racial groups Driven by a radical relentless critique Social Death challenges us to imagine a heretofore unthinkable politics and ethics that do not rest on neoliberal arguments about worth but rather emerge from the insurgent experiences of those negated persons who do not live by the norms that determine the productive patriotic law abiding and family oriented subject
