The Giraffes Go To Hamburg:

The Giraffes Go to Hamburg André Previn, 2001 Vocal The striking vision of a pair of captive giraffes taken from Isak Dinesen's Out of Africa is the inspiration for this moving vocal work from one of America's most popular conductor composers Written for and recorded by soprano Renee Fleming Out of Africa Isak Dinesen, 1992-09-05 Selected by the Modern Library as one of the 100 best nonfiction books of all time In this book the author of Seven Gothic Tales gives a true account of her life on her plantation in Kenya She tells with classic simplicity of the ways of the country and the natives of the beauty of the Ngong Hills and coffee trees in blossom of her guests from the Prince of Wales to Knudsen the old charcoal burner who visited her of primitive festivals of big game that were her near neighbors lions rhinos elephants zebras buffaloes and of Lulu the little gazelle who came to live with her unbelievably ladylike and beautiful The Random House colophon made its debut in February 1927 on the cover of a little pamphlet called Announcement Number One Bennett Cerf and Donald Klopfer the company's founders had acquired the Modern Library from publishers Boni and Liveright two years earlier One day their friend the illustrator Rockwell Kent stopped by their office Cerf later recalled Rockwell was sitting at my desk facing Donald and we were talking about doing a few books on the side when suddenly I got an inspiration and said I've got the name for our publishing house We just said we were going to publish a few books on the side at random Let's call it Random House Donald liked the idea and Rockwell Kent said That's a great name I'll draw your trademark So sitting at my desk he took a piece of paper and in five minutes drew Random House which has been our colophon ever since Throughout the years the mission of Random House has remained consistent to publish books of the highest quality at random We are proud to continue this tradition today This edition is set from the first American edition of 1937 and commemorates the seventy fifth anniversary of Random House Five Emus to the King of Siam Helen Tiffin, 2007 Western exploitation of other peoples is inseparable from attitudes and practices relating to other species and the extra human environment generally Colonial depredations turn on such terms as human savage civilised natural progressive and on the legitimacies governing apprehension and control of space and landscape Environmental impacts were reinforced in patterns of unequal exchange by the transport of animals plants and peoples throughout the European empires instigating widespread ecosystem change under unequal power regimes a harbinger of today's globalization This book considers these imperial exchanges and charts some contemporary legacies of those inequitable imports and exports transportations and transmutations Sheep farming in Australia transforming the land as it dispossessed the native inhabitants became a symbol of new white nationhood The transportation of plants and animals into and across the Pacific even where benign or nostalgic had widespread environmental effects despite the hopes of the acclimatisation societies involved and by extension of missionary societies planting the seeds of Christianity In the Caribbean plantation slavery pushed back the jungle itself an imported word and erased the indigenous occupants one example of the righteous biblically justified cultivation of the wilderness In Australia artistic depictions of landscape often driven by romantic and gothic aesthetics encoded contradictory settler mindsets and literary representations of colonial Kenya mask the erasure of ecosystems Chapters on the early twentieth century in Canada Kenya and Queensland indicate increased awareness of the value of species preservation conservation and disease control The tension between traditional and Euroscientific attitudes towards conservation is revealed in attitudes towards control of the Ganges while the urge to resource exploitation has produced critical disequilibrium in Papua New Guinea Broader concerns centering on ecotourism and ecocriticism are treated in further essays summarising how the dominant West has alienated nature from human beings through commodification in the service of capitalist progress

Out of Africa* Karen Blixen, 2022-08-01 In Out of Africa Karen Blixen intricately weaves her memoir of life in colonial Kenya presenting a vivid tapestry of her experiences as a coffee plantation owner from 1914 to 1931 Employing a lyrical and evocative prose style Blixen immerses the reader into the enchanting landscapes cultural intricacies and the nuances of colonial relationships The book is rich in description drawing from her keen observations of both the land and its people as she reflects on themes of love loss and the transcendent beauty of the African landscape amidst personal struggles and the socio political complexities of her time Karen Blixen a Danish author better known by her pen name Isak Dinesen was profoundly influenced by her life experiences in Africa which provided a distinctive lens through which she examined issues of identity belonging and the clash of cultures Her tenure in Kenya marked by both challenges and triumphs allows her to insightfully articulate the dichotomy between the native and colonial perspectives Blixen's rich heritage and literary flair influenced by her European sensibilities contribute to the profound qualities of her storytelling Out of Africa is not merely an account of life in a foreign land but a reflective narrative that invites readers to explore deeper philosophical concepts of freedom isolation and the human connection to nature I wholeheartedly recommend this book to anyone interested in memoirs that offer profound insights into human resilience amidst the backdrop of breathtaking landscapes

Reciprocities in the Nonfiction Novel* John Russell, 2000 Nonfiction novels have usually been associated with the new journalism writers of the 1960s such as Tom Wolfe Norman Mailer and Truman Capote Yet this form has long commanded a key position in the literary canon as John Russell now reveals Russell identifies eleven major works not usually thought of as nonfiction novels such as Isak Dinesen's Out of Africa and E E Cummings's The Enormous Room to create a new definition of the genre He shows that journalistic writing is characterized by a reporter's proprietary stance which undermines reciprocity with subjects while true nonfiction novels feature greater reciprocity and also employ such techniques as circular narrative and bricolage Reciprocities in the Nonfiction Novel contributes to ongoing explorations of literary forms and offers wise commentary on how writing about real life can become art

So You Want to Sing Chamber Music* Susan Hochmiller, 2018-12-21 Vocal chamber music encompasses a wide range of music composed for anything from a solo to twelve voices and instruments Performing chamber music offers the singer a unique opportunity to increase collaboration with instrumentalists and improve technique musicianship artistry and communication So You Want to Sing Chamber Music offers a comprehensive guide to learning rehearsing and performing in this genre The book explores such critical skills as choosing repertoire that is appropriate for one's voice type communicating with wind players and string players preparing for a successful rehearsal performance style staging considerations and recital programming Also included are suggestions on using vocal chamber music as a pedagogical tool in the voice studio alongside recommendations for listening and further reading Additional chapters by Scott McCoy and Wendy LeBorgne address universal questions of voice science pedagogy and vocal health The So You Want to Sing series is produced in partnership with the National Association of Teachers of Singing Like all books in the series So You Want to Sing Chamber Music features online supplemental material on the NATS website Please visit www.nats.org to access style specific exercises audio and video files and additional resources Répertitres François Verschaevé, 2007

Nine Faces Of Kenya Elspeth Huxley, 2011-06-30 In this marvelous anthology Elspeth Huxley our best and most popular writer on Africa has drawn on her unparalleled knowledge of Kenya and its literature to present a fully rounded portrait of one of the most fascinating countries in the world In nine sections focusing on exploration travel settlement war hunting wildlife environment life styles and legend and poetry using only first hand accounts she guides the reader through the story of Kenya from AD100 to the present with her characteristic candour and directness Isak Dinesen and the Engendering of Narrative Susan Hardy Aiken, 1990-04-05 Although Isak Dinesen has been widely acclaimed as a popular writer her work has received little sustained critical attention In this revisionist study Susan Hardy Aiken takes up the complex relations of gender sexuality and representation in Dinesen's narratives Drawing on feminist psychoanalytic and post structuralist theories Aiken shows how the form and meaning of Dinesen's texts are affected by her doubled situations as a Dane who wrote in English a European who lived for many years in Africa and a woman who wrote under a male pseudonym within a male centered literary tradition In a series of readings that range across Dinesen's career Aiken demonstrates that Dinesen persistently asserted the inseparability of gender and the engendering of narrative She argues that Dinesen's texts anticipate in remarkable ways some of the most radical insights of contemporary literary theories particularly those of French feminist criticism Aiken also offers a major rereading of Out of Africa that both addresses its distinctiveness as a colonialist text and places it within Dinesen's larger oeuvre In Aiken's account Dinesen's work emerges as a compelling inquiry into sexual difference and the ways it informs culture subjectivity and the language that is their medium This important book will at last give Isak Dinesen's work the prominence it deserves in literary studies Karen Blixen's Existentialism Lars Kaaber, 2023-10-11 This book investigates the writings of Karen Blixen Isak Dinesen from an existentialist angle Although it has not been subject to much study Blixen's writing elegantly and subtly integrates the ideas of Kierkegaard Nietzsche and Sartre in a way that makes the philosophers more accessible to a wider audience However Blixen also offers her own ideas of the fundamental problem in existentialism how to arrive at an authentic identity through free individual choices or as

Nietzsche put it how to become who you are On the whole Blixen's authorship can be seen as an existential study of the 20th century and the ways by which Western culture came to be what it is now In agreement with Nietzsche's statement that all philosophy is an involuntary autobiography this book also contains accounts of the lives of the three philosophers chiefly involved in this study A Century of Short Stories Aidan Higgins, 1977 The Giraffe Bryan Shorrocks, 2016-10-31 Provides a comprehensive overview of one of nature's most engaging mammals Covers fossil history taxonomy genetics physiology biomechanics behavior ecology and conservation Includes genetic analysis of five of the six subspecies of modern giraffes Includes giraffe network studies from Laikipia Kenya Etosha National Park Namibia and Samburu National Reserve Kenya Andre Previn - Aka Mr Preview! Harry Lime, 2019-03-04 Andr George Previn KBE born Andreas Ludwig Priwin on April 6th 1929 Berlin Germany was a pianist conductor and composer Previn won 4 Academy Awards for his film work along with 10 Grammy Awards for his recordings followed by another for his Lifetime Achievement Focus On: 100 Most Popular Grammy Lifetime Achievement Award Winners Wikipedia contributors, The Intimate Empire Gillian Whitlock, 2000 The Intimate Empire explores the interconnections between race gender autobiography and colonialism and uses a method of reading which looks for connections between very different autobiographical writings There's a Rhino in the Rose Bed, Mother Betty Leslie-Melville, Jock Leslie-Melville, 1973 Focus On: 100 Most Popular 21st-century American Musicians Wikipedia contributors, Giraffe J. M. Ledgard, 2007-07-31 An astounding novel based on the true story of the life and mysterious death of the largest herd of giraffes ever held in captivity in a Czechoslovakian town sleepwalking through communism in the early 1970s In 1975 on the eve of May Day secret police dressed in chemical warfare suits sealed off a zoo in a small Czechoslovakian town and ordered the destruction of the largest captive herd of giraffes in the world This apparently senseless massacre lies at the heart of J M Ledgard's haunting first novel which recounts the story of the giraffes from their capture in Africa to their deaths far away behind the Iron Curtain At once vivid and unearthly Giraffe is an unforgettable story about strangeness about creatures that are alien and silent about captivity and finally about Czechoslovakia a middling totalitarian state and its population of sleepwalkers It is also a story that might never have been told Ledgard a foreign correspondent for the Economist since 1995 unearthed the long buried truth behind the deaths of these giraffes while researching his book spending years following leads throughout the Czech Republic In prose reminiscent of Italo Calvino and W G Sebald he imbues the story with both a gripping sense of specificity and a profound resonance limning the ways the giraffes enter the lives of the people around them the secrecy and fear that permeate 1970s Czechoslovakia and the quiet ways in which ordinary people become complicit in the crimes committed in their midst Plant and Animal Metaphors as Signs of Proto-Ecofeminism Catalina Balinisteanu-Furdu, 2024-11-14 In the UK ecocriticism or the green studies originate from the British Romanticism of 1790s rather than from the American transcendentalism of the 1840s a fact reinforced by Lawrence Buell who mentioned the waves of ecocriticism in his works and analysed its evolution from a critical practice in the 1970s to the movement within the literary studies from the 1990s having two semi coordinated and interpenetrating epicentres the British Romanticism and the US nature writing In the beginning this movement was called environmental criticism or literary environmental studies or literary ecology or literary environmentalism or green literary studies ultimately a convenient shorthand was acknowledged as the suitable name ecocriticism A simple definition of ecocriticism would be the one offered by Lawrence Buell the study of the relationship between literature and the physical environment Although ecocritical canon was still in its early stages when Wuthering Heights Jane Eyre Out of Africa Beatrix Potter s Tales were written it is important for us to understand that ecocriticism has evolved in different branches so that people should perceive better their connection to nature The understanding of natural landscapes offered by both Bront Sisters in their works fits Buell s definition However Jane Eyre reveals a particular facet of ecocriticism ecological feminism known also as ecofeminism thus our survey on ecocriticism requires broader parameters so that the readers might understand why the female writers focus on the relationship between the female protagonists and nature
