regret is evident in the consequent search for political aesthetic and religious mediation which characterizes the aftermath of the Glorious Revolution and Whig Providential discourse Part one interprets eighteenth century Gothic novels in terms of this Whig debate about the true heir culminating in Ann Radcliffe's melancholic theology which uses distance and loss to enable a new mediation Part two traces the origins of the doppelgänger in Calvinist anthropology and establishes that its employment by a range of Scottish writers offers a productive mode of subjectivity necessary in a culture equally concerned with historical continuity In part three Irish Gothic is shown to be seeking ways to mediate between Catholic and Protestant identities through models of sacrifice and ecumenism while in part four nineteenth century Gothic is read as increasingly theological responding to materialism by a project of re-enchantment Ghost story writers assert the metaphysical priority of the supernatural to establish the material world Arthur Machen and other Order of the Golden Dawn members explore the double and other Gothic tropes as modes of mystical ascent while raising the physical to the spiritual through magical control and the M R James circle restore the sacramental and psychical efficacy of objects

Studies on Western Esotericism in Central and Eastern Europe Nemanja Radulović, Karolina Maria Hess, 2019-06-01 These papers examine how occult and esoteric themes appear in visual and verbal media connecting to intellectual history literature the arts present day pop culture and religious practices The topics range from the witchcraft motives in the love poetry of the 15th century Humanist poet Conrad Celtis through the activities of Polish and Russian theosophists Croatian Greek Polish painters of the spiritual the philosophy of wine by the Hungarian esoteric philosopher B la Hamvas to contemporary Serbian magic and neo shamanism Two studies touch upon the influence of Freemasonry and the Kabbalah in Western esotericism and although these are not specifically Central European topics they provide parallel perspectives to what the other papers of the collection are investigating
