The Portable Thomas Wolfe:

The Portable Thomas Wolfe Thomas Wolfe, 1948 Books of the Times Orville Prescott, 1946 The Portable Thomas Wolfe, 1946 Thomas Wolfe Holman, 2013 Thomas Wolfe American Writers 6 was first published in 1960 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Thomas Wolfe Joanne Marshall Mauldin, 2007 In 1937 after years of living alone in New York City a manic depressive Thomas Wolfe returned to his family and his native Asheville North Carolina a city he had both ridiculed and brought notoriety to through his novel Look Homeward Angel eight years earlier Concerned about lingering resentment from the community over the literary work and his tenuous relationship with his family members Wolfe returned to his hometown with caution but also with the need to both rejuvenate and compile material for his next novel It is this visit that sparks Wolfe's trademark conclusion You can't go home again During 1937 and 1938 Thomas Wolfe experienced extreme highs and lows as he labored furiously to produce his next work Joanne Marshall Mauldin provides an in depth look at those final two years in the life of the brilliant yet troubled writer in Thomas Wolfe When Do the Atrocities Begin By adding new information and insight Mauldin challenges much of the existing biographical material on the writer and offers a fresh view on the final years of his life Through the utilization of primary and secondary sources including letters interviews recordings and newspaper clippings Mauldin offers a candid account of the life of Thomas Wolfe from the time of his visit to North Carolina in 1937 until his untimely death in 1938 Mauldin chronicles details of Wolfe's shocking change in publishers and his complex relationships with his editors family friends and his mistress This examination goes beyond Wolfe's life and extends into the period after his death revealing details about the reaction of family and friends to the passing of this literary legend as well as the cavalier publishing practices of his posthumous editors Mauldin's narrative is unique from other biographical accounts of Thomas Wolfe in that it focuses solely on the final years in the life of the author Her unbiased approach enables the reader to draw his or her own conclusions about Wolfe and his actions and state of mind during these last two years of his life Portable Prose Jarrad Cogle, N. Cyril Fischer, Lydia Saleh Rofail, Vanessa Smith, 2018-11-09 Portable Prose The Novel and the Everyday examines the novel as a privileged site for representing the everyday as well as a physical object that occupies public and private space This collection interrogates the relationships between these differing aspects of the novel's existence negotiating the boundaries between the material world subjective experience and strategies of representation This collection offers a wide array of innovative novelistic explorations with a focus ranging from nineteenth century fiction to contemporary literary theory and explores the portability of novels as both physical things and virtual hermeneutic devices While mimetic qualities of prose remain an integral consideration for literary interpretation this collection argues for more diverse frameworks ones that see aesthetic components of the novel in close connection with reading practices shared structures of feeling and the corporeal In this capacity this volume will argue for readings of texts that consider the capacity for literary culture to move through the world but also to make it or re make it new

Seven Modern American Novelists William Van O'Connor, 1964 Seven Modern American Novelists was first published in 1964 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions This volume provides critical introductions to seven of the most significant American novelists of this century bringing together in convenient book form the material from some of the University of Minnesota Pamphlets on American Writers The writers discussed and the contributing authors are Edith Wharton by Louis Auchincloss Sinclair Lewis by Mark Schorer F Scott Fitzgerald by Charles E Shain William Faulkner by William Van O Connor Ernest Hemingway by Philip Young Thomas Wolfe by C Hugh Holman and Nathanael West by Stanley Edgar Hyman In an introduction Mr O Connor who is one of the editors of the pamphlet series discusses some critical principles as they apply to fiction writers in general and to twentieth century American novelists in particular He is the author of many volumes of literary criticism as well as a collection of short stories and was a professor of English at the University of California Davis Teachers librarians and others who use the material of the University of Minnesota Pamphlets on American Writers for frequent reference or as classroom texts will find this book particularly useful Biographical information about the writers as well as critical evaluations of their writing is given A bibliography for each writer lists his works and critical and biographical works about him

The Portable Roman Reader Various, 1977-01-27 The Romans conquered most of the known world and detailed their conquests in calm unapologetic histories They were a supremely urbane people who longed poetically for the farming life Valuing toughness and practicality in all things they turned the love poem into a cynical rebuke and wrote tragedies in which the unfathomable actions of gods gave way to the staggering cruelties of man As the empire slid into decay Tacitus pulled back the curtain on the perverse intrigues of the emperors and a Roman educated Christian named Augustine recounted his spiritual awakening in what may be the world's first psychological novel This collection presents the essential writings of the Romans in their finest English translations the comedies of Terence and Plautus the histories of Julius Caesar Livy and Tacitus the oratory of Cicero poems by Catullus Virgil Horace and Martial the philosophy of Lucretius and Boethius along with the stylishly narrated and often ribald myths of Ovid and Apuleius The Portable Curmudgeon Various, 1992-10-01

More than 1 000 outrageously irreverent quotations anecdotes and interviews on a vast array of subjects from an illustrious list of world class grouches If you can't say anything good about someone sit right here by me Alice Roosevelt Longworth
