The Power Behind The All Blacks:

International Sport Richard William Cox, 2004 There has been an explosion in the quantity of sports history literature published in recent years making it increasingly difficult to keep abreast of developments The annual number of publications has increased from around 250 to 1 000 a year over the last decade This is due in part to the fact that during the late 1980s and 90s many clubs leagues and governing bodies of sport have celebrated their centenaries and produced histories to mark this occasion and commemorate their achievements It is also the result of the growing popularity and realisation of the importance of sport history research within academe This international bibliography of books articles conference proceedings and essays in the English language is a one stop for the sports historian to know what is new Sport in the Pacific CRichard King, 2017-07-05 Sport in the Pacific is a comparative consideration of the modern movement of Pacific peoples and their physical pursuits across national and cultural boundaries It covers Australia Japan and the United States Its contributors ensure a deeper understanding of the indigenous peoples of the Pacific particularly their social identities and cultural responses in the wake of the arrival of modern sport Sport in the Pacific comprises eight original contributions which analyze Polynesian and Abogirnal athletes and athletics in colonial and post colonial contexts Their analyses stress the importance of adaptation and appropriation reinvention and revivalism as well as diaspora and globalization The volume will have three overlapping themes change and continuity cultural and transcultural power and the complexity of race gender and national identity Sport in the Pacific in short compares the significance of modern sport in a largely ignored setting the indigenous societies of the Pacific This book was previously published as a special issue of International Journal of the History of Sport Voices from the Back of the Bus Stewart McKinney, 2011-01-25 Voices from the Back of the Bus provides a rare behind the scenes look at international rugby at the height of a golden period Recounted with genuine warmth and much humour over a hundred players recall the scrapes the games the laughs the glory and the gritty reality of the pre professional game Packed with true rugby tales from the days when men played purely for the love of the game and of their nation and multimillion pound contracts and sponsorship deals were unheard of this refreshing revealing and often hilarious collection will inspire sports fans of all generations Touching the Heart David Miller, 2021-10-25 After surviving a near fatal scalding aged three David Miller s life incentives emerged through involvement and achievement in a range of sports nearing amateur international level in football and athletics But then needing employment he retired at 22 to enter sports journalism Having written on 30 sports from 120 countries for four national newspapers Miller is perfectly placed to analyse and explain what drives those who excel in sport This anthology of 50 epic performers provides a mirror of the emotions and commitment that drive the imagination of the many and the ambitions of the elite From the unself conscious self discipline of Jesse Owens Stanley Matthews Jahangir Khan Torvill and Dean and Steve Redgrave to the fundamental loneliness and insecurity that galvanises spontaneous exhibitionists such as Jack Johnson George Best and Alex Higgins

Miller uncovers what makes these great athletes and sports stars tick The White Africans Gerald L'Ange,2012-04-17 The negotiated transfer of power in apartheid South Africa was the last act in the dismantling of white supremacy on the African continent While opening a new era for the whites in Africa it closed an earlier one that contains some of the most colourful episodes in world history In The White Africans South African journalist and writer Gerald L Ange gives a warts and all account of the European experience in Africa from the explorations of the 15th century Portuguese mariners to the presidential inauguration of Nelson Mandela in 1994 The story is traced through the Europeans exploration and settlement through their slavery and economic exploitation their conquest and colonisation through decolonisation and the liberation struggles in Kenya Algeria the Portuguese territories Rhodesia and Namibia to the negotiation of democracy in South Africa Avoiding both past falsities and recent distortions the book seeks the truth of the European experience examines the present situation of the white Africans and looks at what might lie ahead for them The Power Behind the All Blacks Paul Verdon,1999-01 For nearly a century the All Blacks have bestrode the highest rungs of the world rugby ladder Year in year out decade after decade they have forged an international record second to none At the beginning of 1999 the All Blacks test match success rate was 71.6 per cent far ahead of closest rivals South Africa 65 per cent England 50 per cent and Australia 47.5 per cent What I Think! Scott M. Dulaney,2021-10-07 What I Think is a candid and irreverent look at life in the United States through the eyes of a regular guy based on his fifty plus years on the planet We are in a period of great strain on our republic And none of the folks that we are paying to solve our problems are getting us there Sometimes you have to think outside the box to achieve the desired end This work is the product of an individual who has worked in the retail restaurant firearms and technology industries before entering service in the Texas State Guard shortly after 9/11 Scott then built on his training and experience in the Texas Military Forces and entered a law enforcement career where he currently serves as patrol officer in a small municipal department in his home state Maybe it's Scott's wide range of experience and training that brings his unique perspective to this work One thing is certain Scott sees the world through the eyes of someone who knows how to get to the root issues of complex problems And he's not shy about telling you how he sees it What I Think is an eye opening read for people of all ages who care about where this country is headed Key Ideas In Sports Psychology Prof. Sarita Tyagi, Whether you're an athlete coach student or sports enthusiast understanding the mental side of performance is crucial Key Ideas in Sports Psychology is a concise practical guide to the core psychological principles that drive success in sports From motivation and focus to stress management and team dynamics this resource breaks down complex theories into clear actionable insights Learn how elite performers think prepare and recover and how you can apply these techniques to enhance your own performance or support others Sport and Social Media in Business and Society Gashaw Abeza,Ryan King-White,2023-12-06 This concise practical book examines the significance of social media for the sport industry explaining key concepts and sharing tools and best practice for the use of social media in sport business communication Accessibly written and avoiding jargon the book considers the history development commercial impact social effects and the legal and ethical concerns of social media in the context of sport Covering all levels of sport from professional to grassroots the book includes international cases and examples throughout presenting key findings from current research It also explains the role of social media agencies and the fundamentals of managing a sport organization s social media platforms and outputs This book is essential reading for all sport business professionals and for any sport business management or marketing student looking for a primer on this important and growing subject Siya Kolisi Jeremy Daniel,2019-09-11 When Siya Kolisi leads the Springboks out onto the field at the Rugby World Cup in September 2019 it will be the crowning glory of an incredible journey that began on the impoverished streets of Zwijaga a township outside Port Elizabeth As the first black South African to captain a Springbok rugby team Kolisi s remarkable story is unique and deserves to be heard His mother was a teenager when he was born She left him in the care of his grandmother who brought him up until she died in his arms when Siya was twelve He found love and acceptance playing junior rugby with the African Bombers club until his talent was spotted by the prestigious Grey High School who offered Siya a full scholarship that changed his life He adapted well to the posh private school but it was on the rugby field where he excelled Siya was rewarded with a call up the SA schools team and a contract to join the Western Province rugby union Author Jeremy Daniel tracks Siya s journey from running wild on the streets of Zwijaga through some crucial games in high school into the Western Province rugby set up and his fight to become Springbok captain He goes deep inside the systems that identify junior talent the characters who shaped his journey and the moments where he showed who he really was Siya never forgot where he came from and ultimately adopted his mother s other two children after she died when he was in high school His life has not been without controversy and his marriage to a fiery young white woman was a lightning rod for racial politics But he is a shining beacon of hope for South Africa he is massively popular and there is a huge appetite from the public to know about his life and to support him as Springbok captain
