The Preacher's Commentary will help you share God's Word more effectively with others. This volume combining commentary on the Thessalonians 1-2, Timothy and Titus invites students and teachers of the Bible alike to approach these letters with fresh insight, illustration and application. Each volume is written by one of today's top scholars and includes innovative ideas for preaching and teaching God's Word. Vibrant paragraph by paragraph exposition. Impelling real life illustrations. Insightful and relevant contemporary application. An introduction which reveals the author's approach. A full outline of the biblical book being covered. Scripture passages using the New King James Version and explanations. The Preacher's Commentary offers pastors, teachers and Bible study leaders clear and compelling insights into the Bible that will equip them to understand, apply and teach the truth in God's Word.

Preaching Through the Christian Year: Year C Fred B. Craddock, John H. Hayes, Carl R. Holladay, Gene M. Tucker, 1994-11-01. This is the third and final volume in the comprehensive three volume set of commentaries on all of the lectionary texts for Sunday reading including the Psalms and for special days in all communions treating the readings for each year in a single volume. The three volumes are based on The Common Lectionary 1992 together with other readings kept in the Episcopal, Lutheran and Roman Catholic churches. A complete index of texts is included in each volume making it useful for those who do not follow the lectionary or who are looking for commentaries on specific texts. Continuing acclaim for the series. There is no better one volume resource for the weekly task of preparing sermons grounded in biblical faith. Over the course of the past year the four authors have become my good and trusted friends as they helped me find something to say that is both lively and true to the text. The Rev. Barbara Brown Taylor, Grace Calvary Episcopal Church, Clarkesville, Georgia. Simply put, the best commentary series on the best lectionary. An unusual blend of biblical and homiletical skills. James F. White, Professor of Liturgy, University of Notre Dame. Its exegeses are well written and extremely helpful in preparing sermons. I and my congregation are appreciative of this source. I look forward to reading the next volume in the series and in the meantime I find myself continuing to browse through, study, reflect upon, write in the margins of and otherwise use the previous volume. The Rev. Rebecca L. Spencer, Central Congregational Church, Providence, Rhode Island. Professors Craddock, Hayes, Holladay and Tucker have already established themselves as insightful and helpful interpreters of the scriptures. These volumes significantly broaden their previous contributions by embracing all the alternatives offered by the recent revision of The Common Lectionary. The publishing values, the convenience of a single volume, a binding that lays flat and clear, readable type make this an indispensable addition or replacement for the preacher's library. The Rev. Patrick J. Willson, St. Stephen's Presbyterian Church, Fort Worth, Texas. The authors of the outstanding series teach at Candler School of Theology, Emory University. All have published extensively in their respective fields of endeavors. Fred B. Craddock, Professor of Preaching and New Testament; John H. Hayes, Professor of Old Testament; Carl R. Holladay, Professor of New Testament; Gene M. Tucker, Professor of Old Testament.
